Chapter 119 Sometimes I really doubt Ma Zhishi's mental state

Yu Feng sneered at the trainers who clenched their fists and wanted to hit him, making them unable to beat him with both hands.

"Why am I wrong? Why don't you take a look at your Pokémon? Caterpillar? Gnoll? Rattata? Come on, Xiaogang, tell me, what would you do if you encountered something like this every day?"

"Oh, for those of you who don't know who he is, he's the gym leader of Nibi City."

Yu Feng felt that talking about them was not enough, so he also pulled Xiao Gang out to share his own experience. After all, there should be someone who believes what the gym leader says.

"Hey! Xiao Feng."

"Well, I would suggest that the opponent train for a while before challenging me."

Xiaogang didn't expect that Yu Feng would push him out as well. He was stunned for a moment, but when he felt the anger of those trainers, he had to explain.

He said the same thing to Xiaozhi at that time, so there is no question of whether there is a problem with what he said.

"See? Everyone else said they would persuade us, but Ma Zhishi would not persuade us."

When the Caterpillar's trainer heard what Xiaogang said, his tone became a little intense. If Ma Zhishi had advised them, how could their Pokémon be like this?

"Didn't I persuade you? I think Ma Zhishi spoke to you in a very bad tone, didn't he? He has been here for a long time, and he has said all the good and bad things, but you still went to challenge with a Pokémon that has not evolved once and is even restrained."

"Sometimes, look for your own reasons. Have you trained your Pokémon well? Look for your own reasons. How can he treat you well?"

Yu Feng was speechless about these trainers who didn't look for their own problems. How come Xiaogang said it but Ma Zhishi didn't say it? I'm afraid Ma Zhishi is too lazy to say it later. Why not start with the key points and let you guys back off when you encounter difficulties?

Unfortunately, Ma Zhishi didn't expect that these people would never look for the reasons in themselves, but only blame him for being too harsh.

"Humph, how can you be better than us? Maybe you are even worse than us."

Seeing that he couldn't win the argument with Yu Feng, the Caterpillar trainer decided not to follow him and directly pointed out that Yu Feng couldn't beat the Withered Leaf Gym either, and might end up worse than them. Instead of talking big and making excuses for others, he might as well go and fight himself.

"Me? Can't beat you? Even if I can't beat you, I'm still stronger than you. At least I won't dream of defeating the Dead Leaf Gym with Caterpillar."

Yu Feng pointed at himself and almost laughed out loud when he saw the Caterpillar trainer opposite him nodding.

It was the same journey, but Xiaomao passed it on the first try, and Xiaozhi also passed it on the second try. But it was too easy for these people to defeat it with a Caterpillar or something like that.

Even after being defeated, Xiaozhi still knew to actively train to defeat his opponent next time, although most of the time it was Pikachu who was acting.

Still doubting that you can't win? At least you won't challenge the gym with a green caterpillar that has no fighting ability.

Not wanting to say anything more to them, Yu Feng's eyes flashed with a blue light. The trainers on the opposite side found that they opened their mouths but could not speak, and they pinched their necks in astonishment.

"This is your punishment. Just wait for seven days."

Yu Feng was too lazy to talk nonsense, so he waved his hand and walked outside. Xiao Zhi and the others looked at each other and hurriedly left this embarrassing place. They were afraid that they would be in trouble if they stayed here.

Miss Joy also hurriedly chased after them. It just so happened that the Pokémon that Yu Feng and the others had left here had all recovered, so they had to be delivered to them as well.

Xiaozhi and the others ran out quickly and saw Yu Feng standing angrily in the waiting area. They didn't know what was wrong with Xiao Feng recently. He seemed to have a very bad temper and would get angry over the slightest thing.

You can't possibly do that, but the problem is that Xiao Feng is a boy. In any case, it's better not to provoke Xiao Feng in this situation. This is the experience summed up by the warrior boy mentioned above.

The eerie silence lasted until Miss Joy sent their Pokémon back.

"Don't take it personally, they're just worried about their Pokémon."

Although Miss Joy also doesn't like these people's behavior, as a Pokémon doctor she still has to say a few words to persuade him.

After all, those people's Pokémon were already injured, so they were always in a bad mood.

"I don't have any opinion of them."

Yu Feng put the Poké Balls on his belt one by one and explained his views to Miss Joy. They were just chance acquaintances, so what could he think of these people?

"What I care about is that they didn't listen to my advice. Ma Zhishi must have told them more than once not to challenge him with a newly acquired Pokémon, but it's clear that they didn't listen."

While Yu Feng was speaking, another Jigglypuff pushed the charred Bobo who was electrocuted and ran in.

"Look, what did they learn from this? They learned nothing. They still let their Pokémon get beaten for nothing."

Yu Feng rolled his eyes at the Pokémon that had just been pushed over. He really didn't understand why the Pokémon didn't train himself before challenging again when things had come to this.

What kind of idiot would make the choice of Pidgeot hitting Raichu? If you were Pidgeot or Pidgeot, you wouldn't be beaten like this.

Even Miss Joy didn't want to say anything now. As an experienced doctor, she could see that Bobo's level was not high, but he still dared to challenge the electric gym recognized by the alliance. To be honest, she now doubted whether Ma Zhishi's mental state was still okay...

That is to say, although the gym leader's task is to guide the trainers, you should at least be able to resist him for a while. You can't just use non-main force to fight against you and have to reduce the power to play house with you.

Although Ma Zhishi's Raichu accompanied him for a long time, it was obvious that he didn't take it seriously, otherwise these Pokémon would not be able to survive until the Pokémon Center.

The atmosphere between the two became a little awkward. Miss Joy repeatedly hinted at Yu Feng to say something. You couldn't let a girl like her find topics to talk about. Suddenly, a violent bolt of lightning interrupted their conversation. Looking back, it was Xiaozhi who was holding Pikachu and was being electrocuted by Pikachu.

After Yu Feng separated the two of them, Miss Joy said helplessly: "I know you two are close enough to fight, but this is a hospital. Do you two want to stay in the ward directly after the fight?"

"I'm sorry Miss Joy!"

"Pickup!"

After hearing Miss Joy's scolding, Pikachu and Xiaozhi quickly bowed 90 degrees to apologize.

"Alright, alright, go get some medicine, then I'll tell you how to get to the Dead Leaf Gym."

Seeing that the man and Pikachu admitted their mistakes at the speed of light, Miss Joy sighed helplessly and took Xiaozhi to get some medicine. At least the medicine would make them heal faster, right?
