Chapter 123: Once you evolve, you can't change back

Everyone's attention was drawn to Miss Joy, who was standing at the door looking at them.

"Sorry, I just overheard your conversation."

Miss Joy walked inside and explained that she had overheard the incident by accident.

Of course Yu Feng on the side just smiled but said nothing. Miss Joy had been standing outside for a long time. She might have taken a fancy to the silly boy Xiaozhi.

"What method are you talking about?"

Xiaozhi didn't care about anything else, he just wanted to know what solution Miss Joy suggested.

What method can be used to defeat Ma Zhishi's powerful Raichu? According to Ma Zhishi, the Raichu that fought against him was only used to deal with challengers, and the gap between it and the main force that fought against Yu Feng was not a little bit.

"Look, this is something I got by chance last time."

Hearing Xiaozhi's question, Miss Joy took out the box that she had clipped on her apron early in the morning. When she opened the box, she saw an emerald green stone with lightning patterns on it.

"This is the Thunder Stone!!"

As a man from the hometown of stone, Xiaogang knew what this thing was at a glance. It was the rare evolutionary stone Thunder Stone. And judging from the color and appearance of Miss Joy's stone, it seemed to be of very good quality.

"Thunder Stone?"

Xiaozhi, a newcomer with little knowledge, didn't know what the Thunder Stone was, so he turned his curious eyes to Xiaogang, as if he wanted him to explain what the Thunder Stone was.

"The Thunder Stone is an item that can allow Pikachu to evolve into Raichu. The better the quality, the greater the bonus to the evolved Pikachu."

Looking at Xiaozhi's inquiring eyes, Xiaogang knew that this was another blind spot of Xiaozhi's knowledge. Although he didn't know why as a trainer he didn't even know some evolution items, with the idea of explaining the knowledge points, Xiaogang still explained the function of the Thunder Stone to Xiaozhi.

Seeing Xiaozhi's confused look after hearing what he said, Xiaogang felt helpless. Is it really okay to travel like this?

"Can Pikachu turn into Raichu like this?"

After hearing what Xiaozhi said, Pikachu's ears moved and he looked at Xiaozhi. He was very curious about what choice Xiaozhi would make.

"Can it be on the same level as Mashishi's Raichu?"

Xiaozhi picked up the Thunder Stone and fell into deep thought. Is this really what he wanted? Is he going to evolve Pikachu just to prove that he can beat him?

"Please think twice before using the Thunder Stone."

Seeing Xiaozhi's indecisive look, Miss Joy kindly reminded him. After all, this matter concerns the life of Pokémon.

While Xiaozhi was still thinking about why Miss Joy said that, Xiaoxia had already explained it for him: "Once you evolve, there is no way to change back to your original state."

The evolution of Pokémon is like this, once you advance, it will advance forever, which is completely different from Digimon which can degenerate.

"There are many ways to cultivate, and it doesn't necessarily have to be evolution."

Yu Feng also advised Xiaozhi, after all, after all, will Pikachu still be the same Pikachu they are familiar with after it evolves? Not necessarily.

Besides, there are many ways to cultivate, and evolution is not necessarily a good thing.

"If Pikachu turns into Raichu, it is possible to win, but if he forces it to evolve just for the sake of winning, he will become the same as Mashiro."

Xiaozhi said to himself, now his heart was full of entanglement, is it really what he wants to evolve in order to win? If he does this, wouldn't he be the same as Ma Zhishicheng?

Instead of doing this, it would be better to give the decision to Pikachu himself and let him decide whether to evolve or not. Thinking of this, Xiaozhi turned around, took the Thunder Stone in his hand and looked at Pikachu.

"Pikachu, what are your plans? I do want to defeat Mashishi, but I can't let you evolve in this way just for my own convenience."

Pikachu listened to Xiaozhi's heartfelt words, stared at the Thunder Stone in his hand, and struggled to climb up.

Under the gazes of everyone, the Thunder Stone in Xiaozhi's hand was knocked away by its tail. Yu Feng's eyes twitched when he saw this scene. Fortunately, he wrapped Pikachu with a layer of super powers, otherwise it would have evolved directly.

"Pika Pikachu! Pika, Pika, Pikachu, Chu!"

Pikachu spoke and gestured at the same time, and his words were very intense, as if he wanted to express his thoughts and opinions. As he spoke, he felt that Xiaozhi and the others might not understand what he meant, so he looked at Yu Feng, hoping that he would translate what he was saying for them.

"He said he had to defeat Raichu in Pikachu form, and he had to stay in that form, otherwise he wouldn't be able to avenge himself. Even if he evolved and won, it would still be a thorn in his heart."

"He has to defeat Raichu all by himself. There is no sweet victory without hard work."

Seeing that all their eyes were looking at him, Yu Feng wiped his nose and explained to Xiaozhi and the others what Pikachu had just said.

Honestly speaking, Yu Feng highly approves of Pikachu's mentality, but he is puzzled as to why Pikachu does not intend to rely on others. Can he ask others to help with special training?

"Okay! Let's work together, Pikachu!"

"Let's start special training now!"

After hearing Yu Feng's explanation, Xiaozhi clenched his hands and decided to have special training with Pikachu right away, just like the last time they challenged the Nibe Gym.

"Pika! Pika~~"

Pikachu also made a cheering gesture with all his strength, and then, as if all his strength had been drained, he lay limply on the bed.

"Pikachu's strength hasn't fully recovered yet. Just let him rest for a while."

Looking at the confused Xiaozhi, Miss Joy smiled and explained to Xiaozhi why Pikachu was so weak, and that he just needed to have a good rest.

So everyone looked at Pikachu who had fallen asleep and quietly walked out, leaving this place to Pikachu alone.

"Bang."

A bottle of soda fell from the machine, and Xiaoxia picked up the soda and drank it in gulps.

"I remember Mashishi said his Raichu evolved immediately after being captured, right?"

Xiaogang suddenly remembered what Ma Zhishi had said before, that Pokémon must evolve immediately when they are captured. Although he remembered this, he still had to ask other people.

"Well, that's what he said."

Yu Feng confirmed Xiao Gang's statement that Ma Zhishi evolved as soon as he was caught.

"If that's the case, then Raichu..."

Xiaogang seemed to want to be a riddle man, with a slight smile on his face. He seemed to have known the weakness of Ma Zhishi's Raichu.

"Oh! You mean to say!"

Yuto Seidai is indeed a top student. She understood what Xiaogang meant without him explaining it in detail. If the Raichu evolved as soon as it was caught, then it would indeed have this disadvantage.

"That's not what you're talking about."

Yu Feng also knew what they were talking about, but he just wanted to see Xiaozhi's inquiring expression.

"Hey, hey, what are you talking about!"

Oh, there's something I don't know about Misty. It's not surprising that water-type Pokémon generally don't use that skill.
