

Gardevoir 130

Chapter 130 Why are you two just standing there with your mouths open?

"You mean the mission failed because someone hypnotized you? Is that what you mean?"

Banmu, who was sitting in the shadow, made it impossible to see his expression. Only the hand that was stroking the cat boss showed that he was not at peace.

Originally, Meowth and the others said that a difficult trainer had boarded the ship, so he specially sent Athena to escort the operation.

The result is this answer?

I was hypnotized before I could react. Isn't this funny?

"I'm sorry, Boss. I won't do it again next time."

Athena lowered her head. The failure of this operation was her mistake. She thought that the difficult trainer that Musashi and the others talked about was fake.

After all, with their strength, how powerful could a difficult trainer be? With this in mind, I didn't pay much attention.

"Humph, you can fail at something so simple... Forget it, you go down first."

Banmu was about to get angry. After all, this failure was too unforgivable. A ship sailing on the sea was like an isolated island. Even something as simple as robbing the Pokémon and running away could not be done well.

But on second thought, there were still problems this time. The fact that Athena came back safely and didn't ask him to go to the Alliance prison to rescue her showed that the other party didn't want to make enemies with them for the time being. So after thinking for a moment, Banmu let Athena go down first.

"It's the boss."

Athena respectfully withdrew from the room without looking up.

The room fell into silence, and the screen in front of Banmu was still emitting a faint light.

"Real bird."

Banmu stopped stroking the cat boss and called his secretary.

"Boss."

Wearing black stockings and glasses, a uniform that men like, Manori, with a purple bob haircut, walked out from the shadows in high heels as if she had been waiting for a long time.

(I hate that the real bird's costume is too ugly, so I changed into a different outfit instead of the original one.)

"Go check who that Gardevoir Butterfly Mask is and see if you can win him over. If you can't, don't make enemies with him."

"Also, ask Kojiro and the other two to keep a close eye on these five people. If you have any questions, you can contact me directly. Also, contact... Dr. Jinbo to ask about the progress of the experiment."

The screen in front of Banmu suddenly showed the scene of the battle on the ship at that time, the Pikachu with incredibly powerful skills and Yu Feng who suddenly disappeared in the middle of the battle. A shadow covered Banmu's cheek, making it impossible to know what he was thinking.

"It's not Jinbo, it's Nanbo!"

A doctor in a white coat suddenly appeared on the screen and corrected Banmu's slip of the tongue, and then the screen returned to the original picture.

"I understand. Do you want these five people?"

Manatori ignored what Dr. Rumpo said just now, made a gesture of wiping his neck, and asked Itsuki for his opinion.

"Makoto, remember that we only catch Pokémon and never attack humans, otherwise we wouldn't be where we are now."

"I lost my words, sir."

After hearing what Itachi said, Manori immediately admitted her mistake. After all, she was not a stupid person since she could be Itachi's personal secretary.

Banmu waved his hand and told Manatori to quickly complete his task and talk about other things later.

Manatori nodded and slowly retreated into the shadows, leaving Itsuki alone in the room.

"Pikachu and this person who disappeared instantly, hehehe."

In the darkness, Banmu grinned as if he was thinking of something happy. The corners of his mouth couldn't help but curl up and he let out a terrifying laugh.

"So Xiao Feng was on the boat before, what on earth were you doing?"

Xiaozhi was still very curious about what Yu Feng was doing when he disappeared for a while. He felt he wouldn't be able to sleep well if he didn't figure this out.

"Instead of worrying about what I did before, you should take a good look at the city in front of us. This is the resort city of Lanpulqi."

Yu Feng didn't want to answer Xiaozhi's question, asking him to use his energy in the city in front of him. After all, there were not many cities where he could go on vacation.

This is a rare vacation time, how can we waste it on exploring the truth?

"seaside!!"

Yu Feng's change of topic was useful to Xiaozhi only, while the others all looked at him helplessly.

But Xiaozhi had already run over excitedly, so they could only follow him, and this topic could only be discussed later.

After checking in at the Pokemon Center, Xiaozhi couldn't wait to take Pikachu and run to the beach.

In order to prevent Xiaozhi from doing anything outrageous again, everyone had to pack up their luggage and follow him.

"It's the sea!"

Xiaozhi and Xiaogang couldn't wait to throw off their clothes and jumped into the sea.

"Ai Wan."

Ai Butler looked at the two of them as if they were children who had never grown up. He used his superpowers to gather their clothes and placed them near the beach chairs where Yu Feng and You Teng Shengda were lying.

Yuto Seidai and Yu Feng were also able to blend into the surrounding environment. Yuto Seidai was wearing a red bikini and lying under a parasol, looking at the endless sea in front of her, with a look of satisfaction on her face. Her work was about to be over.

My cousin said they had already bought the boat tickets here and would arrive in a few hours.

Honestly speaking, after spending so long with Yu Feng, I felt reluctant to leave. After all, staying with him allowed me to enjoy those high-end ingredients every day.

But the good thing is that she is about to go back to the Sinnoh region to study, and she may have the chance to see Yu Feng again in the future. Even if Yu Feng does not go to the Sinnoh region, she will come to find him later.

Yu Feng was very handsome. If it wasn't for the fact that we all knew he was a boy and was wearing a men's swimsuit, just him lying there in this posture would have been enough to attract people's attention.

Frosty the Frost was sitting on the table, pouring cream into Yu Feng's drink. In the distance, Blim was making sand sculptures with Squirtle. Shiny Kirlia was lying on Yu Feng's chest with his trophy sunglasses on, with ice chips appearing in his hands from time to time to cool the drinks that Yu Feng and Yuto Sundae had put aside.

As for Charmander and Shiny Gardevoir, Charmander didn't like the weather at the seaside so he asked to be swapped with Squirtle and went to training. Professor Oak also happened to record Charmander's data.

The problem with the Shiny Gardevoir is her size, so she can't be released easily. Yu Feng, who has a feminine appearance, is already attractive enough, and if there's a giant Pokémon, then he won't be able to enjoy his vacation today.

"Hi! The young and beautiful Miss Xiaoxia, the idol of the seaside, is here."

"Why are you two just staring blankly with your mouths open?"

Xiaoxia came in front of everyone wearing a sexy red bikini and a pair of white high-heeled sandals.

Xiaozhi was stunned by Misty's equipment. He opened his mouth wide, not knowing what to say.
