

Gardevoir 132

Chapter 132 Who are you calling stupid again?

After a brief understanding, Yu Huijun and Fu Ningna temporarily put aside the issue of Yu Feng's outrageous height. After all, maybe psychic Pokémon have special skills in taking care of people?

Maybe it can make people grow taller? A 1.7 meter tall person at the age of 10 is not too outrageous, right? After all, there are many middle school students in the Huaxia Alliance who are 1.8 meters tall.

"But I'm still curious, why did you come here to travel instead of studying in our place? After all, you speak standard Mandarin."

Although she gave up the idea of his height, Fu Ningna was still curious why he didn't go to school in his hometown but instead traveled in Kanto.

At this age, she should be in primary school. It seems that she is going to enter university for further studies this year, although university studies are of no use to her anymore.

"Moga!"

The very steady water otter held its shell in its hand and slammed it to the ground, interrupting Fu Ningna's chattering. This kind of thing is obviously other people's privacy, so why do you care why they don't learn from it?

"It's okay, don't blame her. It's not a big deal. It's just that all my knowledge was taught by my family. What I'm learning now is completely different. By the way, are you called Vilette?"

Yu Feng waved his hand to signal Water Otter not to criticize his trainer. This kind of thing was not surprising. Pokémon had no money or identity to register their children for school. Those like him who were not out of touch with humans were considered a minority.

Most of the children raised by cat- and dog-type Pokémon have become no different from wild humans. He himself has seen children raised by Infernape when he went out. If his mother hadn't told him that they were human cubs, he would have thought they were some undiscovered species.

"Moga."

The water otter nodded and shook his head, indicating that the name was mostly correct but there were still some mistakes.

"Hmm! That's how you say bad things about me, Willita? Hey~~ Do you understand what he's saying later?"

Watching the conversation between that Vileta and Yu Feng, even if Fu Ningna was stunned, she knew that Vileta must have said something bad about her, otherwise Yu Feng would not have said something like "don't blame me".

But as she was talking, she realized that Yu Feng was communicating with the Velita just now. Otherwise, how could she know that the Velita was saying bad things about her? It was only because they had been together for a long time that she could roughly guess what he wanted to say from his expression and actions.

But Yu Feng, who is meeting for the first time, shouldn't know, unless...

"Unless you understand Pokémon language."

Yu Huijun clapped his hands excitedly. He had to rely on his Pokémon to translate for him before he could understand.

Yu Feng can communicate directly with Pokémon without having to guess what they mean. He is a natural born researcher and trainer.

"No, I just know a little bit."

Yu Feng humbly accepted Yu Huijun's praise and made a little movement with his hands to show his humility.

Yu Huijun rolled his eyes at Yu Feng, his words filled with sourness: "You only know a little bit. Being too modest is not a good thing. I also rely on my own partners to translate the general meaning to me."

"Elu!"

Aledo suddenly stretched his head over and muttered something to Yu Huijun, while his eyes kept looking at the love ball hanging on Yu Feng's chest, with an indescribable fear in his eyes.

"Yeah, yeah, I know."

Listening to Aledo's words, the Afterglow Army nodded repeatedly, as if to affirm his words.

"Uncle Yu, is there any work arranged over there?"

Fu Ningna looked curiously at Aledo who was whispering over there. As she knew why Yu Huijun had captured this Aledo, she was still quite curious about what this mysterious thing was.

The Velociraptor on the side couldn't even hold Fu Ningna back. Her mission was a secret to begin with. If you asked about it, it would be a big problem. Not to mention that there were outsiders here...? ...An outside Pokémon was here.

"Oh, no. Aledo, you know I don't understand what you are saying. Please pack it directly into my brain next time."

After explaining to Fu Ningna that this was not the problem, Yu Huijun said to Eledo earnestly that he couldn't understand what he said at all, so next time he should just learn from Metagross and pack up what they wanted to say and tell him using their super powers.

Otherwise, he won't understand anything you say, and that wouldn't be a waste of time.

"Elu..."

After hearing what the Afterglow Army said, Aledo's eyes instantly turned into small eyes. How did he understand what he said before?

After a while, as he said, it seemed that in the past, there was always a Pokémon present with Metagross, but now, maybe because it was rare to see a member of the same species, Butler warned him not to come over and then went to the side to chat with that person's Butler.

It seemed like there was really no one to translate what he was saying, so Aledo could only convey his meaning to his trainer through his psychic powers.

Really, you pretend like this every time, making him think he can understand you.

After accepting Aledo's meaning again, Yu Huijun seemed to be thinking about something. He nodded and couldn't help but look at the love ball on Yu Feng's chest.

"Well, let me call you Xiao Yu. Xiao Yu, do you want to fight with Fu Ningna? Even though she seems unreliable, she is the water gym leader on our side. It's a good opportunity to get familiar with her team so as to prepare for challenging the gym later."

Yu Huijun thought for a while but still didn't know how to address Yu Feng, so he simply called him Xiao Yu. After all, there was nothing wrong with calling someone younger than him Xiao Yu.

He began to instigate Yu Feng and Fu Ningna to have a fight, just to collect information about the gym leaders' team building. Now they were both challenging the Quartz Alliance, and they would definitely challenge them later.

"Huh? Who are you calling unreliable? If it weren't for that Velita holding me back, I would have taught you a lesson today!"

When Fu Ningna heard Yu Huijun's words, she rolled up her sleeves. The Vileotter symbolically pulled her ankle. After all, her own trainer knew it well, and he would only dare to jump like that when he was by his side.

If you let go of her hand, I guarantee she will immediately become a quail. Don't you think carefully about your position relative to hers?

Thinking of this, Vileott let go of his hand and wanted to see what his trainer was going to do.

Who knew that as soon as she let go of her hand, Fu Ningna felt it. She lowered her head to look at the indifferent Vileta, squatted down, took his little hand and put it back on her ankle, then bared her little fangs at Yu Huijun.

It seemed like it wouldn't end until he gave an explanation.

Yu Feng could hardly hold back his laughter when he saw the Vileta with a look of despair on his face. How did he say that?

'People rely on the power of water otters.'