Chapter 136 The Singer!!

"Time is running out and I don't know when Miss Joy will finish sorting. Let's just play 1v1. Is that okay?"

Yu Huijun didn't know how long it would take Miss Joy to sort out the props she would use, but there was no problem having a 1v1 fight during this time.

Just to see what the difference is between a child raised by a psychic and one raised by a big wolfhound.

After all, the alliance is so big that there are all kinds of people. If you are lucky, you can find them when they are very young and bring them back. If you are unlucky, you will find that they have completely turned into savages when they grow up.

This is the first one discovered so far that is completely connected with humans and has become a trainer, so it still needs to be observed.

"I'm OK."

Yu Feng suppressed his sister's eagerness and nodded. Although they would challenge the Chinese Alliance later, it would be nice to get to know the gym leader in advance.

And I don't know why, but my sister is really active today.

"I don't have any problem on my end either."

Although it was not a formal challenge, Uncle Yu must have his own reasons for doing this, and Fu Ningna also agreed to this way of fighting. Otherwise, not only would the treatment be troublesome, but it would also easily undermine the child's self-confidence.

At least in Fu Ningna's opinion, Yu Feng's challenge to her now would be like being abused. Even though the Chinese region received their initial Pokémon later, they were still better than Yu Feng, who just started traveling at the age of ten.

Afterwards, Fu Ningna thought for a while and decided to let the Weileta take the field. After all, he knew how to control his strength so as not to make Yu Feng cry.

"Moga."

Hearing Fu Ningna's words, Vileta shook his head to indicate that he would not go on stage. As the saying goes, a man who eats someone's tea is soft-hearted and a man who takes someone's tea is obliged to return the favor. He just took someone's tea and then went on stage to bully them. Vileta is not so shameless.

"Why, why! That Vile otter!"

Seeing that the Otter was unwilling to play, Fu Ningna's cheeks swelled up with anger like a bloated pufferfish, and she condemned the Otter for not playing.

"Moga, Moga."

Then Wileta said that no matter what you say, he will not play today. Instead of being in a stalemate with him, it is better to think about who should be replaced.

"Really? No one else knows how to control their power."

Seeing that the otter was very determined, Fu Ningna knew that there was no other way and began to think about who else she could send to fight.

After rejecting several options, Fu Ningna could only take out a Poké Ball with a special logo from her waist.

"Go ahead, singer!"

She thought about it and realized that among her friends, only she was gentle in her attack, while the others were not too gentle or too heavy-handed. When Yu Feng travels to their area later, they should be able to have a good fight.

After making up her mind, Fu Ningna did not hesitate, and a sea lion with long curly blue hair gracefully appeared from the Poké Ball.

"Xiren!"

Xishi Hairen looked at the target in front of her with loving face. She had heard what was said just now. The girl...boy in front of her was her opponent.

As someone who grew up taking care of most of the Pokémon in the team, she has a lot of experience in showing mercy.

"Then this is me, come on, Ai Guanshi!"

"Ai Wan!"

Although Ai Guanshi found Yu Feng's words a little unbelievable, he still walked up very gracefully and looked at the Western Lion and Sea Ren opposite him.

Although she felt that the Western Lion Sea Ren on the opposite side was very strong, Xiao Fengfeng was pointing in the direction she should move forward.

Hiren also looked at Lovebot with a smile on her face. Although they were not the same kind of Pokémon, she could feel that the Lovebot in front of her was just like her, specializing in taking care of people.

"Well, then the rules are 1v1 no-restrictions regular battle, let's begin."

Seeing that both sides were ready, Yu Huijun directly announced the start of the game.

"Singer, test the waters with your enchanting voice!"

Since it was not a formal gym challenge, Fu Ningna decided to take the initiative to test the opponent's strength to avoid failure.

"La la la~~~"

As the sea lion sang, the sea-blue music lingered towards the servant.

Ai Guanshi did not show any weakness. When he started to make the announcement, his invisible mental power had already spread throughout the entire venue. Even if Xi Shi Hai Ren wanted to stop it, it was of no avail. After all, without super powers, he could not stop it.

Ai Guanshi closed his eyes, a red light flashed on his body, and he completed a meditation while enduring the charming voice.

"Xiren!"

Sea Lion felt the improvement of Ai Guan Shi. Since the battle began, her danger level increased by more than 10%, especially in the beginning, from requiring a little effort to becoming a threat. Now that she had completed the meditation, it was even more exaggerated.

She couldn't help but remind Fu Ningna to be careful. Losing is a small matter, but being hit by others is a big deal. After all, she heard that the other person had only been traveling for a year.

"I understand, I understand, by singing."

Fu Ningna bit her fingers and looked at the situation on the field with an anxious face. She hasn't graduated yet, and she took over the family gym because of her good strength. If she faced an opponent, Wei Laitao would be able to defeat the opponent without her having to explain.

Now that she encountered a tough enemy, Vileta was unwilling to take action, which revealed that she had little practical experience. It was okay for her to win the game, but when she encountered such an "equally matched" opponent and got into a stalemate, she began to get into trouble.

The beautiful singing voice lingered around Ai Guanshi's body like a maggot. Ai Guanshi resisted the sleepiness and completed another meditation before falling into a deep sleep.

This is why Yu Feng doesn't really want to fight against this kind of Pokémon. The sound is pervasive and is almost a sure-hit skill. Except for Pokémon with soundproofing characteristics, there is basically no solution. Fortunately, he had already expected such a situation.

Yu Feng has taught Ai Guanshi how to deal with it, and he also said the first sentence since the beginning.

"The butler talks in his sleep."

When Yu Huijun heard Yu Feng speak, he knew what was going on. He must have been connecting with Ai Guanshi through super powers just now.

"Damn, singer, stop her!"

Fu Ningna became even more panicked when she heard the talking in her sleep. This twice-strengthened love servant ghost knew how painful one skill could be.

Xi Shi Hai Ren did not dare to be careless. After all, she had successfully strengthened him once again. Although he did not know why the opponent did not dodge or counterattack, it would be bad if this dream talker could use an output skill.

A huge bubble appeared from her mouth, and as the bubble grew bigger, it suddenly split into countless small bubbles and rushed towards the servant.

Dense foam submerged the sleeping Ai Guanshi, and the destroyed ground was stirred up with countless dust that covered the Ai Guanshi inside.

Unfortunately, according to the law of "no harm if there's smoke", Ai Guanshi did not suffer much damage.

Just as they were staring at the dust nervously, extremely tiny leaves shot out from the smoke.
