

Gardevoir 139

Chapter 139 I have something to ask

"Ai Wan!"

"Ai Wan!"

The two servants took out cheering sticks from somewhere and waved them to cheer for Yu Feng.

"Whose spirit are you anyway?"

Looking at Ai Guanshi who got up at some point and ran to cheer for Yu Feng, Yu Huijun had a lot of complaints but he didn't know whether to say it or not. It's okay for you to play me, but you should at least play it longer.

Why are you cheering for the other team while watching your teammates getting beaten? You could at least pretend to lie on the ground.

Ai Guanshi made a face at Yu Huijun and then continued to cheer for Yu Feng, which made Yu Huijun so angry that he was helpless and furious.

The battlefield changed rapidly. After landing, Aledo regained some initiative and fought back and forth with Shiny Kirliao during teleportation.

From time to time, you have to dodge the backstab from Shiny Gardevoir, and this backstab is a real backstab.

He has a shadow ball in his left hand and an energy ball in his right hand. If you get hit by one of his main attacks, you'll fall to the ground.

After all, he really didn't think he could catch a ball that was bigger than half his body. He would probably have to lie in bed for a whole day if he was hit.

After repelling Shiny Kirliao for who knows how many times, Aledo breathlessly reminded his trainer that something was wrong with the opponent.

He was exhausted from using super powers of this strength. What kind of monster was that Shiny Kirliaan on the opposite side? He was still able to handle it with ease after fighting with him for such a long time. Obviously, he was stronger.

Although he could sense that there was a superpower connecting him to the other side, he just thought it was used for communication.

But unfortunately, his idea was totally wrong. The trainer on the opposite side remained silent, and the huge beauty in his eyes did not move because the two of them were using psychic powers to buff Shiny Kirlia.

As a Gardevoir, Yu Feng's use of super powers is better than that of Aledo. Secondly, there is a Gardevoir twice as big as him next to him, and Yu Feng has the innate ability to perfectly connect super powers with his sister.

It was equivalent to him being constantly fighting with three people. Even after strengthening his sister, Yu Feng still found time to give Elkada a few hard blows.

"There's no other choice. Use close combat after the sword dance!"

In the situation just now, Yuhui Jun had no way to interrupt. He dared to guarantee that if he gave the command, Alakaza would be beaten even worse. After all, Alakaza could feel the fluctuations of super powers but he could not.

The situation would be even worse if wrong command caused Aledo to hesitate, so command could only be given at this time.

Aledo used Sword Dance to dodge Shining Gardevoir's magic leaves while constantly approaching them.

Flash Kirlia closed her eyes as she looked at Aledo rushing towards her. Two blue lights flashed across her body instantly, and her cherry lips slightly opened: "Lu~~!"

An angelic singing voice sounded. Although the song sounded very nice to Yu Feng and the others, Aledo covered his ears with a look of pain on his face.

At the same time, his eyes turned slightly red, and he kept punching his chest in an attempt to cause damage.

When Aledo, Shiny Gardevoir and Shiny Kirliam saw this, their eyes lit up at the same time. They didn't expect that it would actually be successful.

In an instant, the two men disappeared from the spot and reappeared above Eledo, one holding an energy ball and the other holding a shadow ball, and then they smashed them hard on Eledo.

The smoke and dust slowly dissipated, and Aledo was lying on the ground with circles under his eyes, losing his ability to fight.

"Aledo has lost his ability to fight, so the winner is Yu Feng!"

Fu Ningna confirmed that Aledo would not be able to fight for a short period of time, so she announced that the winner was Yu Feng.

"Really, if it weren't for Ai Guanshi playing the role, I wouldn't be so difficult to beat."

After putting Alakaza back into the Poké Ball, Afterglow couldn't help but complain that his own Butler was acting weird today.

It would be fine if she just played him, but when asked what happened she refused to tell us, and the main character is a rebel.

"Ai Wan."

Ai Guanshi smiled at Yu Huijun as always. Could she say that this was her good sister's child? No, since her good sister hadn't told the child what their father looked like, why should she interfere?

Who knows what her good sister is planning. Although she knows that the trainer doesn't want to look for her, but since he didn't go, he didn't go, and nothing can change it.

Anyway, she just needs to watch carefully. Except that this good sister's son has a sweeter taste while his mother has a bitter taste, everything else is quite similar.

"I can't argue with you, and you won't translate what it means for me."

Anyway, let's go find Miss Joy first, it's been half an hour.

The Afterglow Army had nothing to say about their beloved butler's sudden rebellion today. Anyway, the main purpose was not to fight, and Aledon did not use his full strength.

He can't just use super evolution to get the intelligence he has obtained. He still has to have some dignity.

But their purpose now was to come to Miss Joy to pick up some stage decorations, so they must have almost packed them up.

So after some discussion, everyone decided to go to the front desk to find Miss Joy to ask about the situation.

"Now that you are here, this is what you want."

Before they reached the front, they saw Miss Joy and Jigglypuff pushing a cart towards them. The cart was filled with things that would be used on stage.

"Well, these should be enough. Thank you for troubling our elf, Miss Joy."

Yu Feng checked the things on the cart and estimated the size of the small stage. What Miss Joy found was almost enough for decoration.

Then he stood up and handed the three Poké Balls to Miss Joy, asking her to help heal his Pokémon. Seeing Yu Feng's actions, Fu Ningna and Yu Huijun also handed their Poké Balls to Miss Joy.

"No, this is our job."

Miss Joy waved her hands repeatedly. These were just things they were supposed to do, and she felt a little embarrassed to say that.

"Just one of you guys can stay. I saw a Pidgeot dropped a flyer saying there's a beauty pageant in two hours. I guess that's why you borrowed these."

Miss Joy also gave them some advice. After all, these things showed that the beauty pageant should be hosted by them, and there were still two hours left, which would be around one or two o'clock in the afternoon.

If we go there now, we can decorate the venue properly so that it won't be a ruin to others. As for leaving one person here, it will be fine.

"Then you two go back and I stay here? One is an idol and the other is a friend. You should be able to help."

Yu Huijun said, why not let him stay here and get the Poké Ball and send it to them? After all, he can't help much if he goes there.

"Actually, I would suggest Xiao Feng stay for a while. I have something to tell him."

Miss Joy came back at some point and looked at Yu Feng with joy, as if she had something to tell him.
