Chapter	140	What	did v	ou/	do?
---------	-----	------	-------	-----	-----

"Then please go back and help me first. I will ask Kirlia to take me there using teleportation later."

After hearing what Miss Joy said, Yu Feng looked at Yu Huijun and Fu Ningna with some apology. After all, this matter was originally their business.

"That's fine. I'm still very interested in this beauty pageant at the beach, right...Fu Ning...Na?"

Yu Huijun waved his hand to indicate that it was nothing, and he was still very interested in this thing. His hometown was not like here, where you could just clap your hands to get whatever you wanted done.

There was no hesitation at all, but his voice gradually became softer after he saw Fu Ningna's expression.

After all, Fu Ningna's expression is still very ugly now.

"Moga."

That Vileott shook his head helplessly. He was really courting death. He knew full well that this kind of thing had nothing to do with his trainer. He had been malnourished since childhood.

"Come on, come on, I must let you know! I am the most beautiful on the beach."

Yu Huijun was grabbed by the collar and left the Pokémon Center by Fu Ningna. Facing the rudeness of his own trainer, the Velociraptor bowed slightly, then hooked his little hand and a stream of water gathered into a rope to trap the two carts and chased in the direction of Fu Ningna.

"It's good to be young. Okay, Xiaofeng, come with me."

Looking at Fu Ningna who was dragging Yu Huijun away, Miss Joy sighed, and then she took Yu Feng to the inside of the Pokémon Center.

The next thing we are going to talk about cannot be discussed in public like this, after all, it concerns the top leaders in the neighboring area.

Taking Yu Feng around in circles, Miss Joy opened a more secluded room and led the way in.

After clearing two more seats, Miss Joy spoke first: "It's like this, we already know a general idea about your father, but we can't say it openly."

Yes, although they had previously found out that his father was a superstar, further investigation would reveal that they would not be able to contact anyone higher up, at least not anyone in this area.

But just now, they found the mark, although they still don't know whether it is the real person.

"Found it? But even if we know who it is, we still have to challenge the gym over there, right?"

Yu Feng was not surprised that they had found out who it was. It would be strange if they couldn't find out who it was with a family of doctors and police officers spanning all regions. However, based on the last chat with Miss Junsha, meeting the king was not an easy task.

It's not like you can write a novel and see someone you want, and ordinary people can't see the superstar whenever they want. What's more, there are Four Heavenly Kings in such a big place. The competition for the job is really exaggerated.

At present, the only gym leader he knows is Fu Ningna, and he has never defeated her. Although he does not regard Ainz as his main battle Pokémon, Ainz when linked with him is not something that ordinary gym leaders can defeat.

"So what did Mr. Satoshi, who has done a lot, do? Oh, and this title was written by Professor Oak himself."
Xiaoxia explained the process of setting up the stage, then looked at Xiaozhi with a smile and asked him what he had done.
These Xiaozhis couldn't help at all.
Xiaoxia's series of questions silenced Xiaozhi. He didn't help with any of these things. On the contrary, the work was almost not completed because of his interference.
"Okay, okay, Xiaozhi should still help distribute the flyers."
Yu Feng tried to help Xiaozhi out of the predicament. After all, he was one of those people who had not done anything yet, and he would be in trouble if the fire burned him.
"Dear guests, the Blue Pulchi Beach Beauty and Makeup Pokémon Beauty Contest will begin soon."
"The champion will receive generous prizes, please participate!"
Xiaogang's voice is extremely tempting. This is the best reward for those who consider themselves beauties. Their goal is not the prizes, but the first place, which can give them a sense of victory.
With Xiaogang's promotion, girls coming to register and boys coming to watch came in an endless stream, far exceeding their previous expectations.
However, they underestimated the desire of these girls to compete with each other.

Of course, this does not include Grandma Jin, who was biting her handkerchief in envy.

Xiaozhi also sat in the stands early and sat with Professor Oak and Hanako, not caring at all what Yu Feng and the disappearing Xiaoxia were doing.

"I'm participating in a community consolation trip, and Professor Oak is also coming along so..."

Hanako is explaining to Satoshi why Professor Oak appeared on the beach with her.

"So that's how it is. I was shocked."

"Hey, it's a rare chance for you and your son to be reunited, so just act like a spoiled brat for a while."

Satoshi wanted to say something but was quickly interrupted by Professor Oak. Professor Oak had long seen that Satoshi was a restless child, and that Hanako would see her son less and less in the future.

"I wouldn't do such a thing."

Xiaozhi immediately refused. He was an adult and he would not do the kind of thing that a child would do, throwing himself into his mother's arms and acting coquettishly.

"Did you eat well? By the way, where's Xiao Feng? Why haven't I seen him since the beginning?"

Hanako looked at Xiaozhi with a smile, and asked him about his recent daily life. After knowing that everything was fine, she felt relieved. Then she looked around, curiously, where Xiaofeng had gone.
