

Gardevoir 146

Chapter 146 So the Champion is Special

"grandmother."

At this time, Shirona, who had finished the ice cream in her hand, regained her heroic side. She walked to Dr. Mustard Orchid and sat down. At the same time, she nodded to Yu Huijun who greeted her from a distance.

"Let me introduce you. This is my granddaughter. She is now the champion."

Mustard Orchid deliberately introduced her granddaughter to Damu. The person they were looking for was right in front of them. All they had to do was tell Damu that their granddaughter was the champion.

Any trainer would definitely want to challenge, and then his granddaughter said that she only brought the main force, and in order to make a good impression on the champion, she would definitely take out her strongest Pokémon.

She had learned from Yuto Seidai before coming that the strongest weapon of this young man named Yu Feng was that unknown giant Pokémon.

Unfortunately, although Professor Mustard's idea was good, this trick didn't work very well on Yu Feng, because he wasn't a passionate trainer in the strict sense. Instead, the one who reacted most to this was...

"!!!"

"Can I challenge you?"

Xiaozhi directly triggered the special entry and couldn't help himself when he heard the word champion.

Isn't that why he became a trainer! To meet Pokémon and challenge powerful trainers together.

"you are?"

Dr. Mustard Orchid felt a little strange. He didn't expect that the boy he wanted to attract had no reaction at all, while the other one reacted so intensely.

This is not what she expected. Isn't it said that the stronger the trainer, the more he wants to challenge the champion to prove his strength?

"I'm Satoshi from Pallet Town! My goal is to become a Pokémon Master."

Seeing Xiaozhi's very confident self-introduction, both Professor Mustard and Professor Oak had a drop of cold sweat on their foreheads. His courage is commendable, but they have never seen such a confident person.

How can you challenge the champion right away? Fortunately, the champions have good self-cultivation, otherwise, with Xiaozhi's reckless behavior, it would be unreasonable not to teach him a profound lesson.

"Xiaozhi, the champion is the top fighter in a region. You can't challenge him just by saying so."

Professor Oak smiled bitterly and advised Xiaozhi to think carefully about his identity as a champion. He said that he could not challenge the champion whenever he wanted. If everyone could challenge the champion, the champion would have nothing else to do in a day.

"But the moment a trainer's eyes meet, they must fight."

Xiaozhi was a little confused. Isn't that what everyone says? Trainers can fight as long as they make eye contact, so why is the champion so special?

Faced with Satoshi's question, Professor Oak was unable to explain the twists and turns to him clearly. He could only say that only the champion would be interested in you and offer to challenge you. You cannot challenge the champion directly. Of course, it would be another matter if you are an evil organization.

"Grandma, I don't think we need to go through so much trouble."

"Your name is Xiaozhi, right? And your name is Yufeng, right? Sorry, your Chinese names are hard to pronounce."

Shirona stood up and first complained about her grandmother's failed plan, then looked at Yu Feng and Xiao Zhi in a very serious tone.

"Hey, hey! It's your names that are hard to pronounce!"

Yu Huijun strongly protested against Sirona's comment that their names were difficult to pronounce.

It is obvious that Shirona and the others' names are difficult to pronounce. Their names in China have at most four characters, while four characters in names in other regions are considered few.

He also suppressed Fu Ningna, who felt that seeing Shirona was like seeing her idol. After all, as the only two female champions at present, any female trainer would definitely target her.

"I'm sorry Yu Tian... the inspector of the Tian Patrol, but it's really hard to read for me. Okay, Xiaozhi, you want to challenge me, right?"

When Shirona was about to point out Yu Huijun's true identity, she only saw him making faces at her and making gestures with his mouth open.

Although Shirona didn't understand why he wanted to hide his identity, after all, as a champion she had no such idea, but since he kept hinting at her, why not listen to his advice?

Regardless of how long Shirona's little mischief had made Yu Huijun nervous, Xiaozhi was also very excited when he heard Shirona's words. For him at the moment, challenging a champion was a very important thing.

Even though Pikachu tried desperately to stop him, he couldn't stop his movements.

"Of course!"

When Xiaozhi heard what Shirona said, he instantly became excited. Could it be that she agreed to fight against him? Then he could challenge the championship before Xiaomao.

Xiao Mao, who left early, will definitely regret it! Xiao Zhi was a little complacent thinking about this.

"But not now."

"I only brought one Pokémon here, so I can't fight you with all of your Pokémon."

"But we can have a 1v1 coaching battle."

As Shirona spoke, Xiaozhi's expression changed from excitement to disappointment and finally to excitement, as if Shirona did it on purpose, although Yu Feng knew that Shirona was probably just saying whatever she thought.

But people who met her for the first time couldn't tell whether it was her bad taste or just her inherent personality.

Maybe it's just like that? A super-powered superstar cursed and left the chat.

"Listen to me, let's take a good rest today and fight at the Pokémon Center tomorrow. After we finish, I can have a fight with you, Yu Feng."

Yu Feng, who was talking to his sister at the side, was confused when listening to Shirona's words. He didn't say he wanted to challenge her, so why did he drag himself into it?

"That me..."

Following the principle of asking if you don't understand, Yu Feng was about to ask his own question when Dr. Mustard Orchid interrupted him.

She could see that the boy didn't want to challenge at all, or he had no obsession with challenging the champion.

It's really....so weird.

"Don't say that. A champion's guidance is something that many people would even ask for. You should cherish it. Don't you think so, Oki?"

Dr. Mustard Orchid tried his best to dissuade Yu Feng as if he was afraid that he would refuse this opportunity, and at the same time hinted to Dr. Oak to persuade Yu Feng.

"Yes, many people would love to be coached by the champion, but my grandson Xiao Mao doesn't have this blessing."

Although no one knows what Dr. Mustard Orchid is planning, for Yu Feng and his friends, the guidance of a champion is indeed rare. His grandson is in a hurry to leave and will not have such good luck.

"But I..."

"What's there to be sad about? That's Ms. Sirona!"

Fu Ningna had a look of disappointment on her face. If Ms. Sirona was willing to give her some guidance, she would wake up laughing in her dreams.