

Gardevoir 154

Chapter 154 I didn't understand!

"So why did you guys follow me?"

Xiaozhi watched his team becoming more and more bloated, and felt more and more helpless as to why there were four more people in his team.

"Don't think too much. If you want to take a plane, Yumachi Pier is the place you have to go."

Yuto Seidai told Xiaozhi to worry less, as their destination was Yumachi Pier, which was the only way to the airport.

She was going to transfer to Sinnoh to study. Hehehe, after enduring for so long, she finally made it.

"I don't think this is what you're worried about. We've already missed the earliest flight."

Yu Feng pointed at the cruise ship sailing away nearby. Although he didn't want to discourage Xiaozhi, he was the last one to get up among everyone.

This morning, in order to wake him up, the butler's hands were swollen but he still couldn't wake him up.

In the end, Pikachu was the more skilled one and woke Ash up from his sweet dream with an electric shock.

I have to say that Pikachu is quite resourceful. He was able to wake up the two butlers who didn't react even after being slapped repeatedly. It's really awesome!

.....

"what!"

Xiaozhi collapsed on the breakwater at the seaside, looking as if he had lost all hope in life. The last boat passed them by, and the next one would take another three hours. How could he pass this time?

Xiaozhi had no idea what to do at this time. He could still go fishing in the wild, but it was not easy to fish with so many people around him.

"Look over there, isn't that a black seahorse?"

Fu Ningna, who had nothing to do, looked at the sea in the distance with a bored look. Suddenly, she seemed to see a familiar figure, so she called on everyone to look in that direction.

After all, as someone who has raised a Thorn Dragon King, it is still easy to recognize the Black Seahorse in its initial stage.

"Mo! Mo!"

Seeing that the humans on the shore finally noticed him, the seahorse happily jumped up and danced. Unfortunately, he accidentally touched his wound and rolled in the water in pain.

"Look, is there any injury on his body?"

As the first of the two people who cares most about Water Pokémon (self-proclaimed), Xiaoxia could tell at a glance that this black seahorse was in a very bad situation. The black circles around its eyes made it obvious that it had been hit by someone.

"But we didn't bring any medicine."

"Or I..."

The meaning of Xiaoxia taking out the Poké Ball was very clear, otherwise she would have captured the Black Seahorse.

Yu Feng didn't want to say anything about this. He always encountered situations where he needed medicine, but he never brought any medicine with him. Is this some kind of passive causality?

Yu Feng was already tired of this situation, so he chose to use practical actions to illustrate that medicine was not necessarily necessary. Besides, why was it necessary to take out the Poké Ball? Your fox tail has already been exposed.

"Love steward, healing wave." X2

Yu Feng and Yu Huijun had a tacit understanding and asked Ai Guanshi to use healing waves to heal the black seahorse.

The black seahorse felt the warm emerald green light flowing into his body and couldn't help but cry out in comfort.

"Mo! Mo!"

But after a moment he remembered the purpose of his coming here, so he hurriedly spit out ink and drew two very abstract portraits.

Then, while saying something, he pointed at the building under construction over there and splashed water everywhere.

"Yeah, that's it."

Yu Huijun nodded as if he understood what Mo Haima meant. He looked at Fu Ningna beside him in surprise. How could this guy understand what was being said without the help of Psychic-type Pokémon?

"What is he talking about?"

With the principle of asking if you don't understand, Fu Ningna asked Yu Huijun what the black seahorse had just said.

Yu Huijun looked seriously at Fu Ningna and the other people around who were listening attentively.

"I don't understand."

Yu Huijun stuck out his tongue to show that he didn't understand at all. I don't know why Ai Guanshi has been sticking to Yu Feng's and whispering about something. Aledo is another person who can't translate.

It's really hard to expect him to understand.

"Hey, let me tell you, have you seen those two pictures? One is of the agate jellyfish and the other is of the stinging jellyfish."

"And what the Ink Seahorse wants to say is that because of the construction going on over there, the habitat of the stinging jellyfish has been destroyed, so the stinging jellyfish are preparing to retaliate against humans."

Yu Feng briefly explained Mo Haima's words, and Mo Haima nodded frantically to confirm Yu Feng's statement.

"Also, uncles, please stop acting cute. It's really off-putting."

Finally, Yu Feng protested to Yu Huijun who was acting cute, saying that the uncle should just act mature, what does being cute mean!!!

It is really unacceptable for an old man to act cute!!!

"Ah, is it true that I am already an uncle?"

"But I still have to go when I hear such news."

"where are you going?"

Although Yu Huijun was very dissatisfied with being called uncle, the current matter happened to be within his jurisdiction. He glanced at Shirona and asked her where she was going.

In the case of a Pokémon riot where it is unclear when it will occur, it is obviously best to act separately, although in terms of strength alone, all the stinging jellyfish in this sea area combined are not enough for them to defeat.

But you can't withstand too many and you have the home advantage. A large group of stinging jellyfish at the seaside is enough to cause a large tsunami.

They also couldn't go into the water and catch their Pokémon one by one. It was not impossible, but they didn't have their entire team in hand. It would take a few days for them to get their Pokémon out, and by then it would be too late.

"Go check this store. I'll ask Junsha to start evacuating the crowd."

Her intuition told Sirona that the destruction of the jellyfish's habitat was closely related to the hotel under construction.

"I think so too. It seems that some people have lived a good life for too long and have forgotten who gave them such a convenient life now."

There was a gleam in Yu Huijun's eyes. He always hated this kind of people. The last person who dared to do this had all his Pokémon defeated and sent to prison.

"Fu Ningna, you guys just stay here and watch over there. If what Mo Haima said is true, then the workers there will definitely be the first to suffer."

Then Yu Huijun pointed at the building under construction over there and said very seriously, after all, if what Mo Haima said was not a lie, the poisonous jellyfish had been thinking about revenge for a long time.

The workers over there are in danger at any time, and the poisonous jellyfish are planning to retaliate, which shows that this has happened more than once or twice.

Fu Ningna also understood that this was not the time for her to play around, so after releasing the otter, she also released the three salon members and the singer.

Xiaoxia also released her three Pokémon in case anything unexpected happened.