Chapter 155: 3 Cups of Domestic Vinegar

"Ah, I'm back! It was so hard to find her. It took me a long time to find her company. What's going on?"

When Yu Huijun finally caught the culprit and came back, he was a little confused when he saw the sailors lying on the ground.

There weren't so many people when he left. How come there are so many people here after just one visit?

"Let me go quickly, mother-in-law!"

The old man kept twisting his body to try to break free from Yu Huijun's hands.

"Be quiet! And why don't you come and help instead of talking? Don't you see that the Weile Otters are exhausted?"

Fu Ningna glanced at Yu Huijun who was carrying a little old lady. Although she knew that the one in his hand might be the culprit, but...

It's so busy here. Yu Feng's housekeeper is busy all the time and you're still just standing there watching. Isn't that a bit inappropriate?

"Oh, Aibutan, come out and help!"

The Afterglow Army, who realized the situation belatedly, released Ai Guan Shi and Aledo. After Aledo subdued the Golden Granny, he and Ai Guan Shi quickly joined the rescue operation.

It took a while to stabilize the people who were rescued. After all, these patients who were paralyzed all over their bodies were really difficult to treat.

They are placed on the shore like salted fish being dried.

Yu Feng put down the crew member who had been feeding him cherry fruits and stretched his tired body.

"So this person is the mastermind behind this. Do you think you have seen him somewhere before?"

After stretching his body, Yu Feng looked at Granny Gold who was held in the hand of Aledo and exclaimed in amazement.

"Indeed, isn't this Granny Jin from Lanpulqi City?"

Xiao Gang also leaned over to look at the familiar old woman. Isn't this the old lady Jin who had been causing trouble for them in Lanpulqi City?

When she heard someone calling her Grandma Jin, she stopped struggling, but when she realized they were talking about Grandma Jin from Lanpulqi City, she flew into a rage: "Don't confuse me with that weird person, Grandma!"

"I'm her cousin, mother-in-law."

Grandma Jin, who revealed herself to be the cousin of Grandma Jin from Lanpulchi City...this name is really embarrassing, so let's just call her Grandma Yin.

Just when he was about to show off his business empire and big hotel to Yu Huijun and others, he was stopped by Yu Huijun.

"Just tell me if that thing is yours."

Yu Huijun pointed at the hotel being built over there and asked, although he had already investigated it, this thing still had to go through the process.

"Of course it is, mother-in-law. That is the biggest landmark building."

"The super luxurious Paradise Hotel on the sea, the trump card among trump cards, this is the honeymoon suite surrounded by the most beautiful coral reef in the world, mother-in-law."

Although Granny Silver was being held in Aledo's hand at this moment, this could not stop her from falling into her own fantasy.

Sitting in the underwater suite surrounded by corals and bathed in sunlight, you can also see various Pokémon swimming by at any time. What a beautiful scene it is!

"Since you said that, you should also know about the agate jellyfish."

"Do you know that you have taken over their habitat?"

After hearing Yu Feng say that the coral reef was originally the habitat of the agate jellyfish, Xiaozhi could no longer sit still. This act of encroaching on the habitat of Pokémon was undoubtedly challenging his bottom line.

"So what, granny? The place where you are standing now was originally the Pokémon's place. Why are you going to give it back to them, granny?"

"Those damn agate jellyfish keep coming to hamper my project! Why are there such disgusting things in the world, grandma?"

Granny Silver scoffed at Xiaozhi's opinion. According to Xiaozhi, the city should now be returned to Pokémon. Of course, she also expressed her disgust for the Agate Jellyfish without exaggeration.

"what are you saying!"

"Disgusting?"

The two water-type Pokémon trainers present couldn't sit still anymore. If you say that Agate Jellyfish is annoying, doesn't that mean that water-type Pokémon are annoying?

Others may tolerate such words, but they two cannot.

"It's disgusting, grandma. You can't eat it. It will only hinder my ability to make money! Grandma!"

"Since you guys can use Pokémon to save people, then help me drive away these annoying agate jellyfish, Granny!"

"Of course I won't let you work for nothing, mother-in-law. If you succeed, you can have the most luxurious dinner in the world as much as you want within a year."

"There's also a million-dollar bonus and a hotel voucher for a year. What do you think, mother-in-law?"

"Of course, if you don't like it, you can convert it into equivalent cash, mother-in-law."

Granny Jin tried to bribe the people present with cash, but unfortunately, except for Xiaozhi who was tempted, the others didn't react much.

"One year...."

No big reaction!!!

"One year... this is more than what I can earn in a year of hard work."

No big reaction!!!!

Fu Ningna was ready to glare at the evil Yu Huijun. The top leaders of the alliance would be laughed to death for doing such a thing for such a small amount of money! !

"Ahem, did you know that because of your actions, the Agate Jellyfish are preparing to take revenge on humans?"

Fu Ningna and Xiaoxia's full of resentment directly stimulated Yu Huijun to wake up. After coughing a few times, he told him about the crisis they were facing.

"You are too late, mother-in-law. I have already sent someone to see her!"

Granny Yin pointed at the yacht moving rapidly on the sea and said it was too late for them to stop it now.

"I'm back. The evacuation of the crowd has begun. How are things going here?"

Shirona also came back with Dr. Mustard Orchid and notified the emergency evacuation using the identities of champion and regional doctor. Although the other party said that they would ask the Flying King to verify it later, they still began to evacuate the crowd according to the rules.

"It's not very good. Some people have already gone there. We can't catch up with them at this speed. But fortunately, the crowd has already started to evacuate."

Yu Huijun pointed at the yacht that was about to reach the nearby sea. It was pointless to go there now, not to mention that it would be difficult to get on such a small yacht.

"That's troublesome. How about I let Garchomp fire a destructive death ray?"

Sirona proposed the simplest method. As long as the yacht was blown up, perhaps the incident would be delayed. The people on the yacht should not be harmed by the explosion, right?

"Hold on, not everyone is as physically fit as you."

Yu Huijun stopped Shirona from having some scary thoughts. After all, not everyone can withstand skills like Shiba.

At this moment, the person standing on the boat held up an inconspicuous wooden barrel, as if he was ready to use this thing to defeat these agate jellyfish.

Its name is Domestic Three Cups Vinegar!
