Chapter 157 I'm a joke, I'm very brave (I advise everyone not to eat uncooked dishes QAQ)

"Help!"

"Help me quickly!"

Just as Yu Feng and the others had imagined, the surging waves instantly swept across the entire port. Those who did not believe Miss Junsha's evacuation order were directly swept into the sea and accompanied by the agate jellyfish.

A few people who had foresight had already taken refuge in high-rise buildings far away from the port; at least at this height they would not be swept away by the waves.

As for whether it would be destroyed by the giant poisonous jellyfish, that was no longer within their consideration.

Perhaps they could pray for a certain flying king to arrive in time? But no matter how fast that flying king was, it seemed that he could not be faster than the giant stinging jellyfish destroying the house.

The giant stinging jellyfish was not only demolishing the city in front of it, but also lifting up an unconscious meow with white eyes.

An agate jellyfish climbed onto Meow Meow's head, and venom was instantly injected into Meow Meow's body. The agate jellyfish instantly controlled Meow Meow's body.

At the same time, ultrasound is used to mix the next words into the human broadcast.

"We are the agate jellyfish and the stinging jellyfish."

As Meow Meow's words began to be broadcast, the giant poisonous jellyfish ruthlessly destroyed nearby human buildings. Its huge tentacles could smash a building into pieces with a single wave of their arms.

"This time you humans destroyed where we live."

The rows of agate jellyfish bombarded the water continuously with ultrasonic waves, and at the same time pulled the people in the water into the seabed and disappeared without a trace.

"So we destroy where you live as revenge, and no one can blame us!"

It has to be said that the stinging jellyfish has a good grasp of human knowledge. Just by controlling Meow Meow for a while, it has made this three-dimensional defense measure very well.

At least people like Xiaozhi have no way to refute what they say, after all, what they say makes sense.

but....

There are always some unreasonable people, or they are the reasonable people.

"Aledo, Air Blade!"

"Greco-Shark, Dragon Star Group!"

"That Vile Otter, Bubble!"

Yes, these people are the unreasonable ones. After all, putting aside other things, why didn't you submit an application before you destroyed it?

They are destroying human cities here without any application or review. This shows that they don't take them seriously.

Although they were indeed in the wrong in this matter, if they ignored the issue, they would be the first to be criticized by their superiors if something went wrong.

Aledo grabbed a collapsed building with one hand and chopped downwards with the other hand. The invisible air blade knocked down the surrounding agate jellyfish directly. After confirming that the air blade had swept the surrounding agate jellyfish, Aledo immediately teleported to another place to continue cleaning.

It was even more relaxed for Tyrannosaurus Rex, he spit out a burning energy bomb into the sky.

As the energy bomb exploded, countless meteors burning with blazing flames smashed towards the agate jellyfish in the water. As for why they were not worried about buildings and the like.

After all, the stinging jellyfish have almost destroyed it. Since it needs to be rebuilt anyway, it would be better for her to help clean it up first so that it doesn't have to be flattened later.

As for the Virile otter, it was even more brutal. Although it had a small body, the water cannon it spit out was almost as high as the waist of the giant stinging jellyfish.

The agate jellyfish in front of us were swept by the current to the distant sea and never came back.

"Mo, Mo!"

The black seahorse appeared in the battle group at some point, and seemed to want to persuade the stinging jellyfish to change its mind.

"You again, Ink Sea Horse! No matter what you have to say, I will never give up on this matter."

"I want to let those humans know the sadness of having their homes destroyed!"

"Those who do not know pain cannot understand true peace. From now on, let mankind feel pain!!"

While fighting against Tyrannosaurus and his men, Poison Ivy still had the time to control Meowth to pay attention to the Seahorse next to him.

But his tone was very firm. After all, there was nothing more to talk about at this point, right?

Only after tasting pain, humans will know how outrageous what they do is! For the safety of other Pokémon's territories, his giant stinging jellyfish must make these humans feel pain!

"ink!"

Ink Seahorse shook his head with tears in his eyes to indicate that he was not talking about this, but the three elves around him.

"You mean them? It doesn't hurt me to hit them. How can I lose? Even if I give them one hand, I still have 79 tentacles!"

"They can try whatever they want. Even if I have to carry the entire tribe's habitat on my back and hold this meow in one hand, I am still as invincible as a poisonous jellyfish! Your spineless attitude will only make them more arrogant!"

The poisonous jellyfish was very confident that it could withstand the attacks of two kings and a champion and still had no reaction thanks to its strong physical strength.

If all humans were like this, they would immediately let humans know the consequences of invading their territory.

Yu Feng and his sister, who were rescuing paralyzed citizens who were pulled into the water in the distance, couldn't help but sigh, is there really anyone stupid enough to mess with Guan Jun and the others?

Not everyone is as awesome as that giant Dragonite. This stinging jellyfish is still relatively young, and it's unclear who can be provoked and who can't.

These champions were not angry. They were just waiting for Yu Feng and the others to rescue the nearby citizens.

If someone is hurt, it's a big deal, and their wages may not be enough to compensate.

Oh, you ask Xiaogang and Xiaoxia what they are doing, they are fleeing. (Smile)

"ink!"

The black seahorse seemed to be very dissatisfied with the words of the stinging jellyfish and refuted loudly.

The three Pokémon who were slacking off on the side almost laughed out loud.

"What? You said we jellyfish don't have bones? Then don't blame me for teaching you a lesson!"

Although what the black seahorse said was true and that their stinging jellyfish did have no bones, it did not mean that such a thing could be said out loud.

So he wanted to teach Mo Hai Ma a lesson on behalf of Yueliang and let him know the consequences of speaking without restraint.

The huge tentacle smashed directly towards Seahorse, but before that it was rescued by Aledo using teleportation.

After putting him next to Fu Ningna, he returned to the battlefield without looking back.

"I'll leave the singer to you."

Fu Ningna threw the Ink Seahorse to the singer who was guarding them without even looking at it. There was already a Thornybone in her team, but she was not interested in it. She was not a collecting maniac. She had to collect both a male and a female Pokémon of the same kind.

That has nothing to do with her at all. Yu Huijun is quite optimistic about this little guy. He dares to face such a powerful poisonous jellyfish. Many humans don't dare to do so.

It's just a pity that the attributes are too inconsistent. In the end, he evolved with dragon attributes and could only be at the bottom of his team for ten thousand years.
