

Gardevoir 179

Chapter 179 Ending and Shipboard Training

"Well, that's pretty much it."

"We will thoroughly investigate whether the same situation has occurred in all of Grandma Jin's buildings over the years, and legally freeze the property under Grandma Jin's name."

Miss Junsha saluted and reported to Yu Huijun and Sirona on the follow-up handling of the matter, as well as whether any means were used to arrange the buildings built by Grandma Jin over the years.

"Let's do this first. Granny Jin will go to Professor Oak to ask for his opinion. As for the rest, just do as you say."

Yu Huijun skillfully organized the plan in his hand and handed it to Miss Junsha in front of him, and then arranged the subsequent reconstruction work.

After Miss Junsha walked out, Yu Huijun finally gave up that expression that made people feel trustful.

Walking into the backyard with dead fish eyes rolled up, Garchomp was correcting some movement problems of the boss Gardevoir. At the same time, Professor Orchid and Sirona kept taking notes around the boss Gardevoir. After all, they didn't know when they would see it again.

"So this is how you pass the work on to your super-powered king?"

With dead fish eyes, Yu Huijun complained to Shirona with a little dissatisfaction. After all, it should not be his turn to make a report on this matter. Isn't there a champion?

As a result, someone pushed the blame on me with just one sentence. What was that sentence called? Oh, "This matter is entirely under the responsibility of the inspector sent by the alliance."

Good, good, no wonder it is said that the Super King cannot know Sirona, otherwise he will become unhappy.

He originally thought it was just a rumor, but unexpectedly, it seemed that it was Wusong who spread it.

"I'm not good with this paperwork."

Shirona waved her hands to indicate that she was not good at clerical and reporting work, and that this kind of work would take her a whole day.

"I think it's OK."

Yu Feng, who was teaching Charmander Flame Fang, suddenly looked up and recounted how desperate the ice cream shop owner was when he saw Shirona that day.

After hearing this story, Yu Huijun gave Sirona a thumbs up. Although he didn't say anything, his meaning was definitely "You are worthy of me."

"The matter here is settled. Fu Ningna has already gone ahead and taken the Poké Ball back for testing. I am waiting here to hand it over to the Flying King."

Yu Huijun was talking about their current plan. Aledo and Fu Nina had gone back to the alliance first, so he carried his trump card with him in case of emergency.

"As for us, we are also ready to leave. I have been away for a long time and there are a lot of things piled up."

Shirona nodded to show that she understood, and then told them their plans. They had been out for too long and there were too many things for her, as the champion, to deal with in the Sinnoh region.

(Wusong: Aqiu!)

"I think you're fine, but whatever."

Yu Huijun didn't think she could do anything. After all, for her, all the work was done by Wu Song. Who is the Sinnoh Champion? !

But this matter is not his business. Anyway, it is best for the champion to take care of all the work himself, just like them. This way he has time to go out and play, although he has to accept missions. But... well... it doesn't matter, as long as he has fun.

"Well, Xiao Feng, can I call you that?" After getting Yu Feng's consent, Sirona continued, "I invite you to come to the Sinnoh region to challenge after you challenge the Huaxia Alliance."

"I will have a full-fledged battle with you then. I believe you are looking forward to it, Tyrannosaurus?"

That's right, Shirona hopes that Yu Feng will come to their Sinnoh region to challenge the gym after experiencing the Chinese Alliance.

I believe that after going through the baptism of the two regions, Yu Feng will be reborn and be able to have a formal challenge match with her.

"Roar!"

Lu Shark also nodded happily. She really liked to challenge the strong. Although her attributes were restrained, she couldn't resist Yu Feng and the others who liked hand-to-hand combat!

This was exactly what she wanted, and she believed that they would become even stronger after going through the training in the two regions.

As for why he is not worried about time, it's just a year at most, so he can still clear all alliances within a year!

"Remember to train your Gardevoir well."

Jiezilan was also obsessed with asking Yu Feng to take good care of this unique copy of Gardevoir. If she didn't know that she would definitely not be able to borrow it away, she would have wanted to borrow it back to study it carefully.

After saying goodbye, the two of them left the house without saying anything else. The route they were going to take was different from that of Yu Feng and the others, so they could not force themselves to take the same action next.

This was a privileged passage, otherwise, as this port city had just been attacked by a giant poisonous jellyfish, there wouldn't be any extra ships to take them back.

"Your friends should be waiting anxiously. Go find them first. If you want to leave, just tell the captain where you want to go."

Seeing that there was nothing else to do, Yu Huijun hurriedly urged Yu Feng to leave, as if something big was going to happen soon.

Yu Feng felt that there was nothing to worry about now, so he took back the leader Gardevoir and turned to walk towards the pier.

Of course, before he had walked out for long, he saw a dark shadow rushing into the house, followed by a series of curses coming out of it.

"If you dare to call me Flying King again, I will go to the Huaxia Alliance and take your place as Fairy King! Dragonite Thunder Fist!"

"Come on, I'm longing for the Dodo! You know that fairies are your nemesis! Metagross's Freezing Fist!"

In an instant, a dazzling light shone from behind the small courtyard, making Yu Feng's eyes turn into small ones.

No wonder he was so anxious to let me go, it turned out he knew that Dudu...Yulongdu was going to cause trouble.

However, although he really wanted to see the battle between the kings, Xiaozhi and the others had been waiting for him for a long time.

Thinking of this, Yu Feng left this dangerous place, walked along the "gravel path", and finally found a relatively intact port.

Xiaozhi and the others saw from afar that Yu Feng was coming over and waving his hands happily. Of course, only Xiaozhi would do that.

"Xiao Feng, what have you been doing? The Sirona champion has already left."

Xiaozhi was very curious about why Yu Feng came so late. After all, Xiaofeng was the only one among them who was left behind to help.

"Xiaozhi, don't ask like that. What if it's something confidential?"

Xiaoxia was particularly helpless about Xiaozhi's behavior. What if this matter was some confidential matter that needed to be kept secret? Xiaofeng would never tell you what you were doing.

"Nothing much, just training from the Sirona Champion, plus an invitation for me to challenge the Sinnoh League after I challenge the Huaxia League."

There was nothing to hide about this kind of thing, and Yu Feng readily told her that Shirona had invited him to challenge the Sinnoh League.

"That's great! I want to go too!"

Xiaozhi was so excited when he heard this that he also wanted to challenge other alliances.

Xiaogang's words directly interrupted his excitement: "Xiaozhi, you should challenge later. The Sinnoh region's tournament hasn't started yet."

"Well, I suggest that Xiaozhi go to challenge the Johto region second. The conferences in the region and China are held at almost the same time. This way, we don't have to compete for the championship."

Although Yu Feng said the word "grab the championship", he knew very well that Xiaozhi could not win the championship in the Johto region. But who knows? It is impossible that Xiaozhi could not even win the championship in Johto after receiving such a long period of training from him, right?

It looks like Xiaozhi needs some good training before he leaves the team. It's devilish training!

Xiaozhi shuddered suddenly for some reason, as if something bad had happened.

"Speaking of which, I have tamed the Ink Sea Horse. Fu Nina gave the child to me before she left."

Xiaoxia felt that there was no need to talk about that kind of thing now, so she changed the subject and boasted about the fact that she had tamed the black seahorse.
