Chapter 18 Hairless Phoenix

Yu Feng could feel that the Phoenix King, which was flying in the sky, paused for a moment, but quickly adjusted its flying movements. If you didn't look carefully, you would have no idea what movements it had just made.

"That's not Shiny Toucans, that's the legendary Pokémon Ho-Oh that a person might not see once in a lifetime."

Yu Feng held his forehead with his hand. He had overlooked the fact that there was no legend of the Phoenix King in the area they had been in before.

Instead, they are replaced by Xerneas, the god of life, and Yveltal, the god of death, although it seems that Ho-Oh is also the god of life?

"Chirrut? (Are you saying that this Shiny Toucan is a mythical beast like Master Xerneas?)"

Shiny Kirlia pointed at the retreating Ho-Oh in disbelief. She couldn't believe that such an ugly Shiny Toucan was actually a legendary beast like their Lord Xerneas.

"Yeah, I remember that Feng Wang is also called the God of Life?"

Yu Feng said with some uncertainty. After all, the timeline was a bit long ago. Even if he had super powers to help him remember the past, he would inevitably forget some things.

After all, it has been more than 30 years since I first saw the God Pokémon? Especially since the appearance rate of Ho-Oh is still low, it is really normal that I can't remember it.

"Chirrut!!! (You mean this ugly shiny Toucan is the god of life just like Xerneas-sama!!!)"

After hearing Yu Feng's words, Shining Kirlia suddenly felt as if her worldview had collapsed.

This ugly Toucan... Oh no, it turns out that Ho-Oh is the God of Life just like the great Lord Xerneas?

Life...Lord Xerneas, what kind of devil's whispers did she hear?

Yu Feng touched his cheek and looked at his sister who seemed to be in a state of collapse. To be honest, he didn't know why he felt that Ho-Oh was not worthy of being compared with Xerneas.

Obviously, he didn't have this feeling before, but after evolving into Kirlia, he felt that Ho-Oh was not worthy of being compared with Xerneas.

Could it be because of the fairy system? It's not impossible, after all, Xerneas opened the door to the fairy system, but this requires more verification.

The Phoenix King, flying slowly in the sky, glanced at Yu Feng below, shook its wings, and two feathers emitting rainbow light floated to two different places.

Originally, the dropping of a few feathers would not attract much attention. After all, the number of feathers dropped by bird Pokémon in the entire forest every day is at least 8,000 to 10,000.

But these two feathers are different. The colorful light they emit is as eye-catching as a large neon sign.

"I know, I know, please stop shaking my eyes."

Yu Feng rubbed his eyes which were tearful due to the feather and was speechless.

After seeing Yu Feng noticed her, the light on the feathers became softer, flickering as if inviting him to take her.

For the sake of his own eyes, Yu Feng took off the feather.

After Yu Feng got the rainbow feather, the light around him dimmed.

Unexpectedly, Yu Feng originally thought that Ho-Oh's feathers would be no different from those of Pidgeot, but in fact, Ho-Oh's feathers were neither as easily broken as those of ordinary bird Pokémon, nor as hard as Lugia's feathers.

Instead, it looked like a piece of jade. The self-pitying Flash Kirlia also noticed the feather and came to Yu Feng and asked curiously: "Kirlia? (What is this? The feather of the Phoenix King?)"

"Yes, it's like the antlers that Xerneas shed over there.

But did you see it? I thought you didn't notice it."

Yu Feng raised his eyebrows. He was not surprised that Ho-Oh gave him the Rainbow Feather. After all, the existence of him and his sister represented the possibility of harmonious coexistence between humans and Pokémon.

He was just surprised that his sister actually noticed this, after all, usually when she started to feel sorry for herself, she rarely paid attention to what was happening outside.

The look in Shining Kirlia's eyes seemed to be saying, do you think I'm blind? It would be strange if I can't see something so shiny.

"Hey, one slice isn't enough!"

Yu Feng ignored his sister's shocked look and shouted loudly in the direction where Phoenix King flew away.

Shiny Kirlia was already numb. You know, although she couldn't believe that Ho-Oh and Xerneas shared the same title, she only dared to whisper.

Is her brother so brave that he dares to make demands on the gods?

The Phoenix King, who was moving away in the distance, paused again, and a feather fell towards Yu Feng again, as if he was afraid that Yu Feng would say something else.

The Phoenix King changed its previous slow flying speed and disappeared into the horizon in the blink of an eye.

"Tsk, you run so fast, two feathers are not enough."

Yu Feng smacked his lips. Although two feathers were good, they were not enough. No matter how he thought about it, they were not enough.

Not to mention that Ho-Oh's feathers can turn into holy ash that can revive creatures after burning. What if they can comprehend the sacred fire? This will be an epic enhancement for both the little sister and Charmander.

As for why they said it was Charmander and Shiny Kirlia, just kidding, who would they give those two expensive ones to?

To himself?

The problem is that he is a trainer and he doesn't have to fight against Pokémon on the field. As for the so-called wild fights, just kidding, how many people in the entire Pokémon world can beat him?

While Yu Feng was thinking, Shining Kirlia's gaze became more and more admiring.

My brother has taken good care of me since I was a child. He always takes care of me when I am in trouble and eats the delicious food first. However, since my mother told me about their relationship, my brother has not been so enthusiastic.

But he still took good care of her, and now it was a legendary Pokémon like Master Xerneas who made a request, and the most important thing was that he actually gave it to her.

So I will protect you, brother! Those bad guys can't even touch him.

Yu Feng on the side had no idea what his sister was thinking. After briefly assigning the ownership of the two feathers, he looked at the rainbow still in the sky.

Since Ho-Oh appeared and really gave himself extra feathers, it means that this world view is more in line with the animation.

Otherwise, Ho-Oh's response just now might have been a jet of flame.

This is actually good news. There won't be any so-called Rainbow Rocket Team and that little boar Liu Bo who beats up Ho-Oh.

Although the Mewtwo experiment is just as dangerous, and Mewtwo is probably able to see his own identity clearly.

Well, these are things for the future. For now, we should consider why their families want them to go back again.

After packing up the tent and other things with Ai Guanshi, Yu Feng injected his own superpowers into the token.

In an instant, he and Shining Kirlia disappeared into the Evergreen Forest, leaving only the holes where the tent was fixed to prove that someone had been here before.
