

Gardevoir 180

Chapter 180 I really want to see you!

Yu Feng stood in the darkness thinking about life. When did he come to this place and why did he come?

"I want to see you! I want to see you!"

A voice full of longing interrupted Yu Feng's thoughts, as if guiding him somewhere.

After thinking for a second, Yu Feng decided to pretend that he didn't hear it and continued looking for other exits in this place.

Since this voice wanted to attract him over, he would rather go over. Yu Feng's favorite thing was to say no to self-righteous people.

It's a pity that this place is pitch black, with only light coming from where the sound came from. If you listen carefully, you can also hear the sound of waves hitting the rocks.

"But it has no taste."

.....

As Yu Feng moved away, the voice seemed to become more anxious.

The anxious cries of "I want to see you" reached Yu Feng's ears, making him very irritated.

After some exploration, he finally knew where this place was. This was his dream.

As for why he is so clear-headed, it is simply because of his enormous mental power.

He doesn't usually dream, but if someone like him dreams, it means that the dream is a so-called precognitive dream.

Why was he sure that this dream was true? Because supernatural phenomena existed in this world, and he was one of them. Moreover, he had had this dream more than once.

The first time I dreamed, I was traveling through mountains and rivers with my sister. The second time I dreamed, I was beating up a man whose face I couldn't see clearly and a male Kiria.

He had had this so-called precognitive dream countless times, and it always came true. Even the man whose face he couldn't see clearly was found to have signs of fighting when he looked over there a few days later.

This time's precognitive dream is the same, but I don't know if it has anything to do with me.

In order to leave this dream, you have to see what will happen.

Yu Feng had no choice but to walk towards the only place with light, as if someone could sense that Yu Feng was coming towards him.

The second half of the sentence changed from 'I want to see you' to 'I really want to see you'.

As Yu Feng got closer, the woman's voice became clearer and sadder.

Finally, when Yu Feng saw the purple-haired girl standing on the beach and looking into the distance, the voice lingered in his ears like a leech.

After Yu Feng stopped, the girl seemed to know someone was coming. She turned around and saw a grinning Gastly.

A hoarse heckling sound replaced the previous sad female voice. Countless Gastlys surrounded this space, and the largest Gastly attacked Yu Feng.

This dream finally came to an end.

Yu Feng sat up from the bed with an expressionless face. To be honest, he felt helpless as this kind of dream could not scare him at all.

But to leave that kind of dream you either have to destroy it violently or just watch what is going to happen.

This dream, combined with the port they were about to arrive at, made it clear what was going on.

There is no such thing as reincarnation in the Pokémon world...that would be strange!

When talking about this, I have to mention that woman.

Yes, it is Xiao Guang! Or Xiao Zhao.

One is the heroine of the main film, and the other is the heroine of Xi Cui.

The biggest problem is that both of them are modern people, but Xiaozhao is Xiaoguang's ancestor.

Oh, this relationship is extremely messy.

Yu Feng quickly took care of his teeth, and then used his superpowers to remove the dust from his body.

Well, Yu Feng, with glitter all over her face, is back. Yu Feng nodded with satisfaction and looked at her beautiful face with appreciation.

Then he blew himself a kiss and went out to start training. The sky was getting slightly brighter at this moment.

Because they are on the boat and there are people coming from time to time, they definitely cannot do daily exercises, so they can only practice basic skills privately. Charmander is about to evolve and needs a lot of energy supply.

Of course, it would be best to have a fierce battle to activate the energy dormant in Charmander's body. To be honest, there is no shortage of materials such as various evolution stones at home.

It is difficult to count how much Fire Stone and Charcoal she has absorbed since she tamed Charmander. At least she can buy several of Misty's cars with that much.

It is particularly abnormal that it has not evolved until now, but this cannot be blamed on Yu Feng. Charmander is a typical case of overeating.

An ordinary Charmander is only 0.6 meters tall, but she must have eaten too much and grew very fast, and if she didn't evolve, all the nutrients would be supplied to her body.

With a height of nearly one meter, it is almost as tall as the average Charmeleon, especially Ash's.

It's hard to fight against your own people, as they will show mercy, so it's best to fight the gym leader, but he doesn't want to fight the gym a second time.

In other words, does it depend on Golden City to evolve Charmander?

It's not impossible. If you're afraid of failure, just let the boss Gardevoir take the back position.

Then the other Pokémon, the sister is still the same, but she is different from Charmander. Charmander does not evolve because it does not have enough combat experience, but people are still growing, but my sister...

Her height didn't increase much, she's just a little taller than the average Kirlia, but not much taller.

His figure is not as good as mine, I'm so worried!

"Chirrut! (Arche!)"

In the distance, the flash Kirlia sneezed, then looked around suspiciously, as if she was wondering who was saying bad things about her, otherwise why would she sneeze.

Watching her movements, Yu Feng quickly looked at the next steward before she looked at him.

That's right, his butler is an expert in both fighting and cooking.

Especially cooking, which is his best skill.

But it's not surprising. I've been taking care of him since he was eight years old and he basically knows what he wants to eat without me having to say it.

She knew what she wanted to drink just by raising her hand, but she claimed that she didn't like fighting, so she never thought of asking her to fight.

So what she was trained on was teleportation, although I don't know why she could do it.

Next is the flash-loving Blim, her childhood playmate. Of course, this childhood refers to when she was six or seven years old.

I have always had great fun playing with myself, except that sometimes I don't see any Pokémon. I heard that they are recuperating at home. Anyway, their combat power is not weak and they are close to evolving. In short, I grew up in the forest and have no shortage of battles, I just lack a little bit of accumulation.

Then there is the Shiny Cream Milk Fairy. Well, she was originally brought here to provide cream, and she was also my childhood playmate. However, she evolved in order to help me.

However, by evolving in this way, the super-giant position can be given to her, which is not a weak position after all.

Squirtle is temporarily being fostered by Professor Oak. To be honest, I don't pay much attention to her because I have no intention of taming her, but my sister tamed her.

The combat power and combat experience are sufficient, but the accumulation is lacking. When in the Squirtle Army, the food was not good, so now the main focus is on nutritional supplementation.

Finally, it is myself, the shining boss Gardevoir...

There's nothing much to say, just keep training.

Next is the arrival, the place predicted in the dream.

Yu Feng looked out at the sea, and his eyes seemed to have already seen the port on the other side.
