Chapter 181 The Legend of Maiden Gorge

"I see the port!"

Xiaoxia pointed at the port in the distance with some excitement. Although she liked water Pokémon, she still felt uncomfortable taking the boat every day.

"That must be the port of Maiden's Gorge we are going to."

Yu Feng looked at the port which was very similar to the one in his dream, his thoughts drifting away. Although he didn't care, what on earth did the dream want to tell him?

"Yes, the unintentional sea breeze also carries the breath of autumn. This summer is lackluster."

Xiaogang, however, lay on the railing with a slightly melancholy look on his face, lamenting that his summer had ended without him having done anything.

"How come? I feel like a lot has happened this summer?"

Xiaozhi turned around and looked at Xiaogang who was inexplicably depressed with some confusion. He didn't think that nothing happened in the summer. Just think about the giant Dragonite and the huge poisonous jellyfish. Such things would be so fun.

"Children's summer is the beach."

"Summer is the season for love for adults, but I don't..."

"Summer, swimsuits, beauties!"

As Xiaogang said this, he couldn't help but imagine a beautiful big sister in a swimsuit in his mind. When he thought of this, Xiaogang couldn't help feeling lost.

"The seaside season has come to an end!"

As he was talking, Xiaogang seemed to feel that life was meaningless. He knelt aside and slowly began to turn black and white.

"If you had gotten rid of that habit of being a fangirl, I think you would have succeeded a long time ago."

Yu Feng had to say that Xiaogang was extremely charming, of course you had to ignore his squinty eyes.

She is gentle, considerate, can cook, and can take care of Pokémon, which makes her one of the best in this world. As long as she changes her habit of being infatuated with others from time to time and treats the other person seriously, she would have succeeded long ago. Of course, she has to ignore her squinty eyes.

Well, Yu Feng admitted that Xiaogang's biggest flaw was his squinty eyes, which even the beautiful girl Xiaomi couldn't change.

Seeing that Xiaogang could not be persuaded in this situation, Yu Feng decisively gave up trying to persuade him. He thought that he would be able to recover on his own by the time they got off the boat.

Sure enough, by the time they arrived at the port of Maiden's Gorge, Xiaogang had already recovered from his loss.

At the same time, a girl with glasses, black stockings and a bob haircut also came down. She seemed to have done her investigation and walked towards a hotel to look for the three members of Team Rocket who were going to meet her.

"You have to believe me, I really saw a very beautiful girl just now."

On the way to the temple fair, Xiaogang kept explaining to Yu Feng and the others the beautiful girl he had just seen.

But looking at the distrustful eyes of Xiaozhi and Xiaoxia, it seems that there is still a long way to go to convince them.

"Xiao Gang, although I know you really want to find your other half, but..."

Xiaoxia didn't say the rest of the words, but it was obvious that she wanted Xiaogang to give up this idea. After all, even if there really was a beautiful woman, she might not be interested in him.

"I believe you."

Yu Feng took a sip of the black tea in his hand. His words at this moment made Xiao Gang feel as if he had seen an angel.

"Sure enough, Xiao Feng, you are my good brother!"

After hearing what Yu Feng said, Xiaogang excitedly grabbed his hand. He never expected that Yu Feng, the most rational person in the team, actually believed that he really saw a very beautiful woman.

"Don't be impatient, just listen to me." Yu Feng blew the tea in his hand slowly and continued, "The reason I believe you is that this is Maiden Gorge."

That's right, Yu Feng believed what Xiaogang said. The bottom line was that this was Girls' Gorge, no matter if it was from the original novel or his own precognitive dream.

All of this shows that the so-called girl ghost does exist here, and that the girl seems to be waiting for the boy's return.

Having come to this point, Xiaozhi became curious. After all, Xiaofeng seemed to believe Xiaogang's words, but he also said that he believed Xiaogang's words because this was Girls' Gorge.

Following the principle of asking when one does not understand, Xiaozhi immediately asked why it was only Girl Gorge that believed Xiaogang's words.

"Are you the Xiaozhi I know? You can actually think?"

"But let me put it this way. There is a rumor in Maiden Gorge that a girl turned into stone and waited for her lover to return. To this day, the girl's ghost will still return today, waiting for her lover's reincarnation."

"That is to say, the beautiful girl that Xiaogang mentioned disappearing is very likely the ghost of that girl."

Although he was very puzzled as to why Xiaozhi could think, Yu Feng was still kind enough to tell the local legend to these people who had no idea about it.

Of course, whether it was meant to scare them is another matter, but in any case there is nothing wrong with the legend.

"Ghost!!! Ghost!!! Ghost!!! Ghost!!!"

A lady like Xiaoxia couldn't stand listening to such ghost stories. She immediately hid behind Xiaozhi with a pale face, looking around with a panicked look.

Beautiful girls like them are afraid of nothing except insects and ghosts. After hearing Yu Feng's story, Xiaoxia suddenly felt that going to the temple fair was not a good idea.

Who else could this temple fair be held for? Of course it was held for that girl!

"Hey, Xiaoxia, are you so scared?"

Xiaozhi is confused about Misty's fear of ghosts. Are ghosts really scary?

There is no word "fear" in his dictionary. Ghosts and monsters are all just clouds.

"Hey, you can't say that. There are already ghost-type Pokémon. Is it strange to have a human soul?"

Although whether or not there were souls in his previous world was a question, the events he experienced this time clearly showed that there were indeed ghosts in this world.

It's not a ghost pretending to be Gastly, but a real ghost. If conditions permit, Yu Feng also wants to explore how human ghosts are formed, and maybe he can even find an ally.

Hearing Yu Feng say this, Xiaoxia completely shrank her head behind Xiaozhi and whispered, "I regret coming here now. Can we leave? You know, besides bugs, people are most afraid of ghosts."

Anyway, after Yu Feng said this, Xiaoxia instantly lost interest in visiting the temple fair. What she was more worried about now than the temple fair was the ghosts that might appear at any time.

"Xiaoxia is so lame."

"It's daytime now, there are no ghosts out there. Come on, Xiao Feng, let's go to the temple fair."

Xiaozhi took Yu Feng and Xiao Gang and headed towards the temple fair, leaving Xiaoxia alone standing there in a daze.

Then Xiaoxia seemed to realize something and closed her eyes in fear: "Ahhh, don't leave me alone!!!"
