Chapter 185 Let Me Be Alone for a While

Under the setting sun, two groups of people who were supposed to be hostile to each other stood beside the Girl Rock, staring at the beautiful stone statue.

Mana was looking at Satoshi and his group beside Team Rocket. Although there was one less girl than in the information, it was not a big problem and that woman was not an important target.

By comparing various data and hairstyles, the one among the four people on the opposite side who most looks like the Gardevoir Butterfly Mask is the blue-haired man in the middle, Yu Feng.

Why not the blue-haired Kojiro... This question is very subtle. Kojiro doesn't have the temperament or the time to do that. Besides, if Kojiro can really beat Athena, why would he be a member of the special operations team?

At least she would never believe that this pervert-looking Kojiro would be the elegant Gardevoir Butterfly Mask.

"Is that the Maiden Rock? What a beautiful rock!"

"Yes, my heart can't help but be warmly moved."

Looking at Kojiro in front of him and Xiaogang opposite him saying infatuated words in unison, Manatori felt that these two people were hopeless.

"If that's a Pokémon, I'll never leave her for the rest of my life!"

"Me too, I won't let anyone have the chance to take her away, even if Team Rocket comes!!!"

Although Kojiro and Xiaogang have similar ideas at the moment, it is obvious that Xiaogang's self-restraint is much better than Kojiro's.

At least Xiaogang didn't need Xiaozhi and Yu Feng to pull him, but Kojiro...if Musashi hadn't tried his best to stop him from jumping down to his death.

I guess you can see Kojiro drooling on top of the Girl's Rock right now. After all, Kojiro can say that even if Team Rocket comes, it seems that there is nothing he can't do now.

"There's no way something that big could be stolen!"

Musashi was very happy that Kojiro thought so highly of them, but he was very unhappy that they went back to steal a broken statue. How much was a broken rock worth? Even if it was really a statue from a thousand years ago, they couldn't sell it and no one dared to buy it.

"If it's that painting, then I can steal it, meow."

Although this stone statue cannot be stolen, the painting displayed in the shrine can be stolen. It's rare that Meowth can come up with a good idea, although Meowth has always been the think tank of Team Rocket.

"Yes, that painting can be sold for a good price!"

Hearing what Meow Meow said, Musashi clapped his hands subconsciously. If the stone statue was too big to take away, the painting could be taken away. Even if it couldn't be sold, he could give it to Boss Itaki as a gift.

However, Kojiro, whom Musashi had been holding in his hand, flew out due to inertia. Fortunately, he was quick-eyed and quick-handed and grabbed Manatori's sleeve, preventing him from falling directly.

"I'm telling you two! Come and help!!!"

Manatori really couldn't stand these three strange guys anymore. This was definitely not the place to talk about their weird plan, right?

And did she not notice that she still had a hold on him? How could she let go so easily?

How can a little girl wearing high heels like her pull a big man like Kojiro!!!

Only after hearing what Manatori said did Musashi realize that Kojiro was still hanging there.

He quickly reached out to grab Kojiro, but because he was too anxious or something, Musashi lost his balance and fell down.

It was already difficult enough for Manatori to pull Kojiro alone, and now that Musashi has also gone down, it is conceivable that she will not be able to hold on now.

So mixed with the screams of the three people, the sound of falling into the water echoed around the stone statue.

"These two guys will never repent, meow."

Meow Meow looked at the two people who were taken away with Zhenniao, and really didn't know what to say.

Time passed quickly, as if it was moved by Paimon, and in the blink of an eye it was night.

"Hey, how long do you want to see it? It's just a stone."

Xiaozhi really didn't understand why Xiaogang was so interested in this matter. Even Xiaozhi knew that this matter was just a legend and the girl had died two thousand years ago.

"Let's go to the temple fair. It's fun. Xiao Feng has been there for a long time."

Xiaoxia looked at the lively atmosphere of the temple fair behind her, then looked at the desolate Girl Rock in front of her, and couldn't help but persuade Xiaogang to go to the temple fair.

This kind of place is fine during the day, but she feels creepy staying there at night.

"You guys go first, I want to stay here for a while."

Xiaogang stared at the girl's head without turning back, and persuaded Xiaozhi and the others to go play first. After all, Xiaozhi and the others were different from him, and he really felt this desolate feeling.

"Do you know where we live today?"

After hearing what Xiaogang said, Xiaozhi also went to pack up his backpack. After all, they couldn't waste all their time here. Xiaogang was usually very independent-minded, so nothing should go wrong.

"It's the Pokémon Center at the port, right? I'll get back before the curfew."

"It's okay, I'm an adult."

After hearing what Xiaogang said, Xiaozhi and the others were a little worried, but they still walked towards the temple fair. After all, Xiaogang still had Onix with him, so nothing should go wrong.

As Xiaozhi and the others walked away, Xiaogang felt that he was exceptionally calm. He didn't know what the girl felt two thousand years ago, but at this moment he seemed to understand her thoughts a little.

Unlike Brock who was feeling lonely, Ash and Misty were having a lot of fun at the temple fair. When they returned to the Pokémon Center, they were still competing with him with a few strings of candied apples in their hands.

When entering the Pokémon Center, Ash looked left and right trying to find someone he knew, but he soon found his target.

Yu Feng, who was sitting in a seat, was enjoying the feast from the Butler with his Pokémon.

Xiaozhi and Xiaoxia sat in an empty space nearby and enjoyed the delicious food from the butler, while handing a string of apple candies to Yu Feng.

Yu Feng took it, took a look at it, and then handed it to Ai Guanshi to deal with. He was afraid that this kind of candy would cause his teeth to ache if eaten.

Butler Ai took the candy with a smile and prepared to deal with it. Since he had borrowed the kitchen from Miss Joy, he didn't mind dealing with one more thing.

"Where's Xiaogang? He came with the mud-oil waistcoat."

Xiaozhi ate the delicacies that he couldn't usually eat with big mouthfuls, and at the same time asked Yu Feng if he had seen Xiaogang come back, as he should have come back after such a long time.

"Don't talk while eating. But as for Xiaogang, I didn't see him. Wasn't he with you guys?"

Yu Feng took a sip of black tea and asked Xiaozhi to finish his food before talking. Then he thought about whether Xiaogang had come back during the time he was sitting here. When he was sure that he had not seen Xiaogang, he gave him an accurate answer.
