Chapter 186 What on earth is this!

"But Xiaogang said he would be back before the curfew."

Xiaozhi swallowed a big mouthful of the dish and washed it down with the drink brought by the butler.

After all, Xiaogang had said so before, and it was getting late now. Xiaozhi was a little worried about Xiaogang as the curfew time was almost up.

"He's an adult now, you have nothing to worry about."

"Instead of worrying about him, you should think about what to do with the gym next."

As for Xiaozhi's worry about Xiaogang's thoughts, Yu Feng felt that he was just worrying for nothing.

While others are taking care of their younger siblings, Xiaozhi, you are still playing with Xiaomao. Instead of worrying about others, you might as well think about what to do in the next gym.

Yu Feng stirred the black tea in his hand, thought for a while and added a few pieces of golden honey into it. The black tea became so viscous that traces of stirring could be seen for a while.

Seeing that Yu Feng was not worried about Xiaogang's situation, Xiaozhi was a little speechless, but he understood that Yu Feng was right. Xiaogang could be said to be the most reliable one among them.

"Yeah, if you ask me, you just think too much."

Xiaoxia was also eating the hard-earned ingredients with big mouthfuls. They were already very close to Jinhuang City, and the day when Xiaofeng would leave the team was getting closer. The only way for her to eat these good things in the future was to hope to meet Yu Feng on the road.

But considering Xiaozhi's poor sense of direction, she was afraid that she would not be able to meet him on the rest of the journey. She would have to eat up the food for the next few months.

"Eat slowly, I'll leave some for Xiaogang."

Yu Feng curled the corners of his mouth when he saw Xiaoxia, who was almost starving herself to death. It's not like they won't see each other anymore, so why is it so necessary?

But Xiaoxia couldn't bear to hear these words. After all, if she stayed, the energy would be used up eventually.

"Goo~Goo~"

Time passed as the two of them overate, and until the clock hanging on the wall started to strike, Xiaogang still hadn't returned from there.

"Eleven o'clock, curfew time!"

Miss Joy's voice rang out, reminding everyone in the Pokémon Center that it was time to go to bed.

"The curfew time has come, why hasn't Xiaogang come back yet?"

Seeing that Xiaogang hasn't come back yet at this time, Xiaoxia can't help but feel worried about Xiaogang.

After all, Xiaogang is sometimes unreliable, but when it comes to time, he is still very punctual.

"I'm going to see him now!"

Seeing that the door of the Pokémon Center was about to close, Xiaozhi could no longer sit still and prepared to go over to see what was going on with Xiaogang.

After all, there is no time when Xiaogang cannot do what he promised.

But at this moment, a slender hand appeared from behind Xiaozhi and grabbed the back of Xiaozhi's neck.

Miss Joy's voice came from behind, like the whisper of a devil which made Xiaozhi shudder.

"It's eleven o'clock now. It's time for the kids to go to bed."

This voice made Xiaozhi tremble unconsciously. It seemed that he had thought of something. When he was about to say something, Miss Joy blocked his words first: "I am the person in charge here. Staying up late is the natural enemy of children's skin. You are not allowed to go."

Xiaozhi was about to retort when he heard this, but found that he seemed unable to refute Miss Joy's words. Everyone else went back obediently, and they were the only ones left at the scene.

Oh, yes, Xiaozhi excitedly pointed at Yu Feng who was looking out the window with his chin in his hand. After all, Xiao Feng wasn't sleeping either, so why didn't Miss Joy talk to him?

"Are you serious? He is the same age as you. Look at him and then look at him. I think it is better for you to get some sleep. Go back to your room quickly."

Miss Joy looked at Yu Feng and then at Xiao Zhi. She could see Yu Feng's registration information, and information about the child began to circulate in the family, although she didn't know whether the other sisters wanted to help him or had other ideas.

It is undeniable that his height has already reached the standard and he does not need to supplement it by sleeping like Xiaozhi does.

As for his companion, from what I've described he's already an adult and can definitely take care of himself. If that doesn't work, he could just stay at the police station for a night.

In this way, Xiaozhi was ruthlessly suppressed by Miss Joy in the Pokémon Center. As for Xiaogang...he can only wait until daytime.

"So, you guys are sleeping here?"

Bluebird looked at the four sleeping bags hanging on the tree in front of him and pushed his glasses in confusion.

She knew that these people were having some difficulties, but she didn't expect them to be so difficult. How could they not even afford to sleep in a hotel and had to hang on a tree?

Can they really sleep like this? Won't the wind give them a headache?

"Otherwise, come up quickly. It's really a waste of our limited money to make a sleeping bag for you."

To be honest, Musashi was already very dissatisfied about spending money to make a sleeping bag for Manori, and now he is still complaining about this and that.

"Alright, alright, Musashi, stop talking. Our salaries are in her hands."

Kojiro tried to persuade Musashi with cold sweat on his forehead. After all, their next month's salary was still in Manatori's hands. If she was unhappy with them and deducted some of the money, it would be troublesome.

"Really."

Musashi also knew this, but he just couldn't stand her anger. She and Manatori didn't have a good relationship to begin with.

However, knowing that his life was in control, Musashi turned his head and changed the direction of his sleeping bag.

Out of sight out of mind.

"Haha, although I want to thank you for your kindness, but I have a hotel for you to sleep in. You guys can do it yourself. I will come to see you tomorrow morning."

Manatori smiled. She was different from Musashi and the others. She didn't spend much money staying in the base, so she could still get a room in a better hotel.

Then, regardless of Musashi's dark face, she walked towards the hotel in high heels and twisted her waist.

Seeing Shintori like this, Musashi was completely furious and the flames behind him seemed to materialize. He was about to rush out of the sleeping bag and beat Shintori up.

"No, she holds our lifeline in her hands!"

"That's what I'm saying. Meow wants to eat something good next month!"

Kojiro and Meowth held onto Musashi's thighs tightly, fearing that she would really rush out and beat Manatori up.

If this fight really happens, it will become a big deal!

I fell asleep peacefully after playing and fighting for a while.

.....

"Drip drip!"

"Wake up, it's time to work."

The alarm rang. Meow Meow opened his sleepy eyes and checked the time, only to find that it was already two or three o'clock.

He quickly got up and woke up Musashi and the others, preparing to steal the thousand-year-old famous painting.

But at this moment, the strong sea breeze made Miaomiao unable to open his eyes.

The door of the small shrine not far away suddenly opened. When Miaomiao realized it, the scene that most challenged his cognition appeared before him.

"What the hell is this, meow?"
