Chapter 188 Thank you for your patronage!

"It's around this time of year that male tourists are attacked."

"And all your strength and energy will be sucked away, and in the end you'll become like a mummy."

"Found in the temple, this is all the work of the soul of the girl who died in resentment because she couldn't wait for her lover."

The old woman told everyone about this horrible thing by the fire, which happened every year.

It seemed as if he wanted to use this incident to scare the people present.

Unfortunately, among all the people present, Yu Feng had a different perspective so he knew exactly what was going on. Satoshi was not afraid of ghosts, Misty and Musashi were girls and were not afraid of this, and Meowth was even less afraid, he was just a meow.

"But if I could be with her..."

Xiaogang muttered something to himself, as if he really wanted to be with the girl forever.

Xiaozhi placed his hand in front of Xiaogang and waved it around, as if trying to wake up Xiaogang's consciousness, but unfortunately Xiaozhi's action did not get a response from Xiaogang.

Xiaozhi had no choice but to look to Yu Feng for help, as if he wanted to ask Yu Feng if he could wake Xiaogang up.

"Just this once."

Yu Feng closed his eyes and snapped his fingers with one hand. Invisible waves swept over Xiao Gang, making him a little more sober.

Compared to Gon who was completely caught up in it, Kojiro's reaction was relatively normal... probably.

Kojiro was seen shaking his head and shouting how scary it was. Musashi and the others tried to stop him but unfortunately it was of no use.

"But it's not like there's nothing I can do. I have this."

The old woman's face looked somewhat scary in the light of the fire, and she took out a stack of talisman papers with a strange expression.

Then he quickly pasted the talisman onto the foreheads of the two men.

"This is a talisman for exorcising demons, but..."

"But?"

After the old woman pasted the talisman on, her tone was a little hesitant, as if she was hesitating whether to say this matter out loud.

Fortunately, Xiaozhi asked this question very considerately, allowing the old woman to find a way out.

"My demon-removing talisman paper costs money!"

The old woman took out a cash register from somewhere and rubbed her fingers at Xiaozhi and the others, as if to say that this thing was not cheap.

Such straightforward words made Xiaozhi fall to the ground. He never expected that someone could say such words.

"Wait a minute, where do we get the money?"

Musashi suddenly remembered that they had no money, but she remembered that there was someone who must be very rich and that person should be here soon.

"So that's why you called me in?"

Mantori, wearing black stockings, only felt that her mind was full of "". She could actually remember herself even when she had no money.

She was really grateful to Kojiro and the others for remembering that she had money. She told them not to remember it next time. She couldn't stand these people thinking about her so much.

"Hey, I'll pay for you. Same with the others over there. Meeting each other is fate."

Mantori thought about his mission. It just so happened that his target was on the opposite side, so it was necessary to make friends with the other party.

So we still have to build a good relationship, and this incident happens to be the best opportunity. Thinking of this, a smile appeared on Zhenniao's face, and he showed his kindness to Yu Feng.

"That should be enough, and if there are other ways, please tell me."

Manatori took out a stack of coins from her bag and handed it to the old woman. Although she didn't want to save Kojiro and the others, she knew that if she didn't save them and Boss Itaki found out, she would be in trouble.

The old woman's eyes turned into money, and she snatched the money away with a slap, and handed the talisman paper to Zhenniao: "Thank you for your patronage, of course it's enough! Just let them stay with me tonight."

"Well, let's put talismans on this room. Hopefully we can get through today and everything will be fine tomorrow."

Seeing that the matter was over, Manato distributed the talismans in his hand and ordered Team Rocket to cover the surrounding rooms with the talismans.

After all, this matter is still very important, and the safety of Kojiro and the others is still very important.

"Ah, and ma'am, can I have a moment of your time?"

Suddenly remembering something, Zhenniao begged to take up a little of Yu Feng's time.

"Ah, Xiao Feng, you have to be careful. She knows Kojiro and the others."

Although he knew that since Mantori knew Kojiro and the others, he might not be a good person, but since they had paid for them, it was hard to refuse. He could only remind Yu Feng to be careful.

"It's okay. And what should I call you?"

Yu Feng waved his hand to indicate that it was no big deal, then looked at Zhenniao. Although he knew how to address the other party, it would be strange to call him out directly.

"Just call me True Bird."

Mantori seemed to realize that he had not introduced himself yet, so he briefly introduced himself to Yu Feng.

"Ms. Manatori, right? First of all, I have to remind you that I am a boy, not a girl. Secondly, there is nothing you can't say here."

Yu Feng really didn't understand why Zhenniao could still admit her mistake even though she had clearly heard his voice, but he still patiently corrected her mistake.

He had a feeling that he would have to explain things to people more often in the future.

"Oh, I'm so sorry! But please come with me for a moment."

Zhenniao became even more excited when he heard that Yu Feng was a male, because that made it right, and it matched 80% of the information in the file.

"Hey, forget it, I'll go with you, Xiaozhi, you guys will be responsible for covering the house."

Looking at Manori who still invited him, Yu Feng felt a headache. Manori was Banmu's secretary. When did Banmu set his eyes on him?

In order to appear less often in front of Itaki, he had been very restrained and did not let Team Rocket know his secret.

Moreover, he was able to get Manatori to show up and change out of the old-fashioned clothes he had been wearing for years. Could it be that Banmu wanted to recruit him into the gang?

Anyway, let's go over there and see. At worst, we can give up the Quartz Conference and challenge the Chinese Alliance directly. I heard that there is no Rockets force there.

"Okay, Mr. Yu Feng, please come with me."

Seeing Yu Feng glance at her legs in black stockings, Zhenniao felt secretly happy. At least the other party was not someone difficult to talk to. The fact that he was attracted by her black stockings showed that he was a normal man.

Then she took the lead and walked out of the shrine towards a quiet place. Yu Feng shook his head and walked away with her.

In this way, Yu Feng and Manori walked out of the shrine and headed towards a remote place in the distance, as if they wanted to talk about some secret things.

"Hey, Kojiro, do you think this girl with watermelon-shaped glasses has a crush on this big devil?"

Musashi seemed to be very gossipy. After making sure that the two had gone far away, he gossiped with Kojiro about why Manatori was hanging out with Daikito.
