

Gardevoir 19

Chapter 19 Return to the forest.

Yu Feng and Shining Kirlia were led by a huge super power and instantly returned to the forest where they once lived.

"Hello, Butterfly."

Yu Feng caressed the cute butterfly-shaped horseflies that came close to him as soon as he came back, and also stroked the pink and tender orchid mantis flowers that were sticking to his legs.

Under the relentless pursuit of Shiny Kirlia, they finally escaped from the encirclement of Pokémon.

The price was that Yu Feng's hands and head were already filled with pollen and nectar of butterfly flies and moe flies.

"Chirrut. (I honestly don't know why they like you so much. Why am I not as popular as you?)"

Shining Kirlia looked at the gap between herself and Yu Feng.

Well, not as tall as him, not as strong as him, but other than that they are almost the same, why is the stinky brother so popular? I have nothing.

"Is it possible that you've never done anything good before?"

Yu Feng used his superpowers to peel the nectar from the ends of his hair. It would be very uncomfortable if these things stuck together for a long time.

"Chirrut! (Nonsense, I am recognized as the queen of good deeds in the whole forest.)"

Shining Kirlia angrily denied that the person Yu Feng was talking about was her.

"Are you sure? Let me think about it. Who destroyed the Beedrill's hive and put the blame on the three bees? As a result, we were surrounded by the three bees for several days."

Yu Feng raised his eyebrows. How dare this little sister deny her fault?

"Chirrut. (That time it was an accident...)"

Shining Kirlia checked her fingertips somewhat guiltily, after all, she had actually done this before.

"Accidentally? What about the time before that when you kidnapped the daughter of the leader of the Tianlengmei Queen clan and forgot about it, causing her to go berserk and attack several forces before you brought her back?"

Seeing that Kirlia refused to admit it, Yu Feng continued to talk about his past dark history.

"Chirrut! (Alright, alright! I did it, stinky brother.)"

Shining Kirlia covered her ears, shook her head and ran towards home.

Yu Feng also smiled slightly. It was not an easy thing to make his sister admit defeat.

Mix the peeled nectar and pollen balls together, and dip them in the cream handed over by the Cream Fairy next to you.

When Yu Feng put the nectar cream pollen ball into his mouth, he felt a hint of sweetness.

"Damn, it's too sweet. I'd better not use cream next time."

Yu Feng silently swallowed the pollen ball. After all, it was a token of love from the Butterfly Fly and it would be a shame to throw it away.

The two of them safely passed through the outskirts of the forest. The gathering place of Gardevoir was under the largest tree in the center of the forest.

A familiar figure appeared on their path.

"Mom? Why are you here?"

"Chirrut? (Mom?)"

Yu Feng and Shining Kirlia were both very curious. They didn't tell their families in advance when they would be back, so how did their mother know they had arrived?

"Sana. (You used the token. That token is mine.)"

Mother Gardevoir smiled gently, holding both children in her arms.

"Sana. (Look at how thin my baby has become. How about I take that sweet bamboo with you?)"

Gardevoir hugged Yu Feng lovingly. It was so heartbreaking to see that her child had lost so much weight in just these few days.

"It's okay, mom. It's normal to lose weight after going out."

Yu Feng scratched his head. It's impossible to eat as well when traveling as at home. It's normal to lose weight.

"Chirrut! (That's right, mom, you are biased. You only care about whether the stinky brother has lost weight. I have lost weight too.)"

Shiny Kirlia lay in Gardevoir's arms and acted coquettishly, accusing her mother of not caring about her.

"Sanae. (Silly child, mom cares about you too, but your brother is a human and you are an elf. Human bodies are not as fragile as elves.)"

Gardevoir touched the little head of Shining Kirliam helplessly. This child is so old but still jealous of his brother.

"Chirrut? (A human who is so fragile that he can beat up a circus bear?)"

Shiny Kirlia rolled her eyes. How could she be so fragile and yet still be able to beat up Turbot?

"Shanai. (All right, kid, the old patriarch is waiting for you in the back.)"

Gardevoir also remembered that now was not the time to reminisce about the past, as the old patriarch was still waiting for them in the important area behind.

Gardevoir brought them to the old patriarch, where Yu Feng and her aunts had been waiting for a long time.

The old patriarch looked at Yu Feng in surprise, as if he had noticed something.

But she didn't ask too much and started asking about Yu Feng and the others' recent experiences.

When Gardevoir heard that they encountered Ho-Oh and Yu Feng boldly asked for a few more feathers, her anger almost overflowed.

Ho-Oh is a legendary Pokémon. Fortunately, he has a good temper and doesn't care about what his little Fengfeng says. Otherwise, it would be hard to know whether he can see him now.

"Well, I'm still here, right?"

Yu Feng pushed away the aunts who wanted to check his body with a helpless look. What could happen if he just stood there?

"Sana! (Promise mom that you will never do such risky things again.)"

"Sana. (That's right, just because Ho-Oh has a good temper doesn't mean other legendary Pokémon have the same good temper.)"

"Sana! (That's because he didn't train well. If he had trained well, it would have been great to have a fight.)"

The Gardevoirs who were trying to dissuade Yu Feng from doing such dangerous things in the future looked at the sharp-eyed Gardevoir with a strange look.

"Sana? (Why do you think there is something wrong with what I said?)"

Sharp-eyed Gardevoir raised her eyebrows. She didn't think there was anything wrong with what she said. If she encountered such a thing, it was because she didn't train well.

"Sana. (Okay, quiet down.)"

The old patriarch finally spoke, quieting the noisy scene.

"Sanae. (There's no need to worry so much. This is the child's chance.)"

The old patriarch stared at Gardevoir's mother, and his majestic gaze made her feel a little uneasy.

"Sana. (But they are still my children.)"

Of course, even if the old chief said so, she was still worried. After all, she didn't always have this kind of luck, and not every legendary Pokémon had a good temper.

"Shanai. (I know what you are worried about, but this child is not born ordinary. He will encounter some things sooner or later.)"

The old patriarch shook his head. This kind of thing could not be avoided. Even if Yu Feng stayed in the forest and did not go out, trouble would still find him.

She could protect him temporarily, but she couldn't protect him forever.

"Sana. (But...)"

"Sana! (We'll talk about this later, let's get down to business first.)"

The old patriarch ended the discussion on this matter in a tough manner, and turned to explain the purpose of calling Yu Feng and others back.
