Chapter 191 Night is my home!

The bell representing the morning suddenly rang, and Gastly's expression suddenly became extremely ferocious.

It seemed like it was fighting against something, but there was nothing else around.

"what happened to you?"

Xiaozhi is worthy of being Xiaozhi. He actually asked this kind of question to the real person.

Fortunately, Gastly's goal was not to harm people, so he pretended to be in pain and answered Xiaozhi's question: "Although I am not a vampire, the ghost's stage is still at night after all. Before next summer comes, you must not forget the existence of the girl ghost!"

As the sunlight shines, Gastly's figure becomes fainter and fainter.

Finally, it gradually disappeared into the air. Of course, within the range of Yu Feng's superpower, Gastly was still there.

"What on earth is he doing?"

Misty was a little confused. No matter what Pokémon she sent out, it would be restrained and just disappeared under the sun.

"Maybe I'm just teasing you. After all, I turned into an old woman and was able to move around during the day."

Yu Feng clapped his hands, slapped away Gastly that was swaying around in front of him after becoming invisible, and explained to Xiaozhi and the others.

After all, if you really are afraid of the sun, what was that old lady that Xiaogang and his friends saw during the day?

"What you said makes sense. Anyway, let's report this matter to Miss Junsha."

After Gastly left, Brock gradually became sober. Although he was still obsessed with the girl, at least he knew that his current goal was not that.

It would be better to go find Miss Junsha to soothe your wounded heart.

"Then I'll take my leave now. I may need your help later."

Manatori also stood up, patted her slightly torn black stockings and said goodbye to Yu Feng. She had finished what she came here for, and the next step was to go back and sort it out and report to Boss Sakaki.

As for other things, we will talk about them later.

After saying that, Zhenniao hurriedly walked away, as if he was anxious to go back.

The three members of Team Rocket looked at each other and felt that there was no reason for them to stay here, so they quietly retreated and disappeared from the sight of Xiaozhi and the others.

Now, only Yu Feng and his three companions and a Gastly who was hiding and observing Yu Feng were left there.

"Then shall we go find Miss Junsha?"

Xiaozhi made a suggestion. After all, it would be better to record the next situation. He didn't know whether Miss Junsha had any records of the previous events.

Everyone packed their clothes and headed towards the local police station.

When Miss Junsha heard what they said, she became very serious, because similar situations had occurred in previous years, although in most cases there was no major harm.

However, every time the victim was found, he became skinny. Although there was an investigation, the "girl ghost" only caught boys and not girls, and never targeted locals, but specifically targeted tourists.

Miss Junsha could only sigh at her natural beauty. Most people who were harassed would not even know to call the police, just like she did today when she believed the words of a fake fortune teller.

"Well, I already understand what you are talking about."

Miss Junsha quickly wrote down the details told by Xiaozhi and the others. This kind of thing was not something that those squeezed passengers could know.

"A Gastly who can speak human language wants you to remember the legend of the girl."

"Really? Could it be that Gastly was responsible for all these incidents over the years?"

Miss Junsha felt a headache looking at this situation. Although Gastly did something bad, he didn't hurt anyone. He was just drained and couldn't recover in a few days.

That's what you did, right? It's not a good thing to play pranks on others like this. We can only wait until next year's temple fair to search carefully.

Hopefully, next year someone will come and call the police. She'll have to have a good chat with that Gastly. Maybe this temple fair can develop into something good to attract people.

"Hehe... Miss Junsha, I am a student..."

Although Xiaogang is currently out of Gastly's control, he starts to become infatuated with Miss Junsa again.

"Um...is your companion injured here?"

Looking at Xiaogang who was grinning at him, a drop of cold sweat ran down his forehead. He pointed to his forehead, indicating to Yu Feng and the others that Xiaogang might be injured here because of being controlled.

"It's okay, it's okay. We will take him to see Miss Joy later."

Xiaoxia skillfully grabbed Xiaogang's ear, ignoring his cries of pain, and pulled him away from Miss Junsha. After all, if they continued like this, they would be the ones to be embarrassed.

"Is that so? By the way, there is a sea lantern event tonight, you can come and join us."

Watching Yu Feng and the others walking away, Miss Junsha, in order to thank them for telling her such important information, took the initiative to mention the custom of setting off sea lanterns at night here and invited them to come together in the evening.

"we know!"

Xiaozhi waved to Miss Junsha and said that he and others would definitely go if they knew about this.

Things became simple after that. After handing Xiaogang over to Miss Joy for examination, everyone began to wait for the night to come.

"Are you sure you don't want to come with us?"

Xiaozhi confirmed again that Yu Feng would not go with them to release the sea lanterns. After getting Yu Feng's affirmative answer, he had to go with Xiaogang and the others regretfully.

Why do I feel regretful? Because if Yu Feng doesn't go, there will be nothing delicious to eat.

Yu Feng, watching Xiaozhi and the others walking away, turned and walked towards the Girl's Rock. After all, the predicted scene had not happened yet.

Yu Feng came to the front of the shrine again. It seemed that the shrine knew he was coming, as the door of the shrine was open and the lights were on.

"I want to see you...I really want to see you..."

A girl with purple hair, who looked very beautiful even from the back, was facing the shrine devoutly, muttering some creepy words.

"I said Gastly, stop pretending."

Yu Feng is not interested in this kind of thing. If it didn't scare him yesterday, how could it scare him today?

"If you do this... it's meaningless, hahaha."

It was originally a gentle female voice, but when I turned around, it was a girl with a Gastly face...or rather, Gastly.

"You're really interesting. You may say you're a human, but I think you're more like a Pokémon."

"You may be a Pokémon, but you look like a human."

Gastly floated around Yu Feng with its mouth wide open. After observing him for a long time today, he only knew that he was both a human and a Pokémon.

He had been playing in Guandu for so long but had never seen anything so interesting.

"What do you care who I am? Why did you call me here?"

Yu Feng was too lazy to say anything more. Although the prophecy scene had already appeared and he could leave anytime he wanted, why not see what this old Gastly wanted to do since he was already here?
