

Gardevoir 194

Chapter 194 Charmander: Hello!

"It's rare that you want to train. Who do you want me to train you?"

Yu Feng stood opposite Xiaozhi with his arms folded across his chest, although he was puzzled as to why Xiaozhi, who usually slacked off in training, suddenly became so serious today.

But I have to come, right? After I leave anyway, it will be difficult for Xiaozhi to see me.

"Can I choose... Well, I can't beat Aibutsu, the same goes for Shiny Kirlia, Frostmilk often eats her cream and beating her is too much, and Blim feels too bullying, and that giant Gardevoir... Just skip it."

Xiaozhi was thinking on the side, and the images of the Pokémon that Yu Feng was currently carrying flashed through his mind one by one.

Ai Guanshi, I have received too much care from her, and she is so skilled in teleportation, no one should be able to withstand me.

The same goes for Shiny Kirlia. It's even more difficult to deal with because it's a Pokémon that specializes in combat and can use skills while teleporting.

As for the Frosty Milk Fairy...Xiaogang would borrow her cream when making desserts, eat her cream himself and even beat her up, which is really too much.

Miblim...she looks like a little kid, even younger than Pikachu. I feel like even if she wins, it's not a fair victory.

As for that huge Gardevoir... he was not sure, he was not sure at all. He had watched the entire battle with Sirona some time ago. Now that it had that super evolution, there was no way he could beat it.

So at the moment, the only ones he can beat are Charmander and Squirtle. Coincidentally, Yu Feng rarely brings Squirtle with him and usually leaves him with Professor Oak.

"I choose Charmander! I happen to have a Charmander too, let's see who can train better!"

After thinking about the Pokémon that Yu Feng was carrying, Xiaozhi decisively chose the one that was easiest to fight.

Yu Feng had a strange look on his face. After choosing for a long time, he finally picked a difficult one. Who is better at training Charmander between you and me?

While my Charmander was doing weight training, yours was sleeping in. While mine was absorbing fire stones and charcoal, yours was eating.

As for this level of training...to be honest, I don't know what can compare to Yu Feng.

Although the fear of water has not been corrected...

"It's up to you, Charmander!"

Xiao Zhi was afraid that Yu Feng would change his mind and release other powerful Pokémon, so he released his Charmander first to compete with Yu Feng. Although Yu Feng's was the initial Pokémon, he only encountered Charmander later, so it was still unclear who was stronger.

"Hi!"

Charmander appeared outside of dinner time for the first time in a long time. What? You said it appeared in Maiden Gorge before.

Come on, that time was for a fight, and I was scared to death by Gastly turning into a fire extinguisher.

This time, Charmander was full of confidence. After all, without Gastly's extremely restrained fighting style, what was there for him to be afraid of? It was before, and it is now! He has surpassed what he was that day.

"Since you want to be trained so much, then come out, Charmander!"

Yu Feng couldn't persuade him any more. Looking at Charmander who had the same character as Xiaozhi, he knew that he had no choice now. Of course, Charmander would definitely be the one who got beaten.

"Xiaozhi, how about trying Yadou?"

Thinking that Charmander couldn't get hurt alone, he must bring Satoshi along as well. With the idea of being good for Satoshi, Yu Feng proposed this way of playing.

"Yadou? What is that?"

As expected, we still can't expect Satoshi to know some common things. It hasn't been long since the era of Professor Oak and the others. Oh, he is Satoshi, so that's not surprising.

"Wild battles, also known as open-air unlimited battles, are a form of battle in which trainers also have to take part, and Pokémon can also attack trainers."

"Because this method is more demanding on the trainer, we changed it to the fighting methods we are familiar with now."

Yu Feng looked at Xiaozhi with a smile on his face. It was just that Xiaozhi was lucky. If he had started a few years earlier, his fighting style might have been a wild fight.

"But I may not be able to bear it."

At this time, Xiaozhi began to hesitate, but that was normal because he couldn't withstand Charmander's skills (this was a lie).

"Then we won't attack the trainer. I'll fight you so that you can train your close combat skills to prevent someone from getting close to you and snatching your Poké Ball."

Yu Feng had to beat Xiao Zhi up today. It was definitely not because he wanted to retaliate against him for disturbing him from thinking about something. Absolutely not.

"Ah, that's fine."

Xiaozhi thought for a moment and agreed with Yu Feng. He had never tried this new thing called Wild Fight, and didn't know how it was different from the current Pokémon battles.

"What's the difference? The difference is that you will be beaten badly. Go ahead, Charmander!"

Yu Feng took out Charmander's Poké Ball from his waist at some point and gave Xiaozhi a dangerous smile.

This made Xiaozhi a little scared. After all, Yu Feng's smile was basically a signal that he was going to do something ruthless. Although he was his teammate, there shouldn't be any big problems.

"Lili!!"

A Charmander that was almost a head taller than Xiaozhi's Charmander appeared on the field. Its determined eyes, as if it was about to join a party, and its fiercely burning flames all told of how powerful this Charmander was.

"Hi!"

The moment he saw Yu Feng's Charmander, Xiaozhi's Charmander was as if he had seen his true love, and his eyes couldn't help but turn into hearts.

The arrow from Cupid seemed to have shot his heart in an instant, and Xiaozhi's Charmander walked hesitantly to Yu Feng's Charmander.

Under her puzzled gaze, a flower appeared from nowhere and was carefully handed to Yu Feng's little fire dragon.

"What?"

Yu Feng's little fire dragon pointed at the flower and then at himself, as if wondering whether this thing was for him.

Xiaozhi's Charmander nodded shyly, as if hoping that Yu Feng's Charmander would take the flower.

.....

"Xiao Feng, do you think my Charmander can succeed?"

Xiaozhi is very open-minded. He thinks it would be great if his Charmander can find someone he likes.

But Yu Feng just waved his hand, looking nonchalant: "I advise you not to think too much. My little fire dragon has an extraordinary obsession with becoming stronger. Yours is too skinny and small to have a chance."

Yu Feng still doesn't know what's going on with his own Charmander. He almost writes "I want to become stronger" on his face.

As for Ash's Charmander...if you haven't watched the episode about Charizard Canyon, you might think it is indeed strong, but if you have watched that episode, you will find that Ash's Charizard got sick when it was caught in the rain before it was captured.