

Gardevoir 195

Chapter 195 He is too dependent on you

In other words, in the eyes of his fellow tribesmen, Xiaozhi's Charmander is a very thin Charmander, and despite Yu Feng's intervention, it did not get wet by the rain.

However, the damage suffered before that had been accumulating in Charmander's body.

"How could that be! My Charmander is very strong."

Xiaozhi seems to be very confident in his Charmander, maybe that's his own confidence.

"I'll see."

Yu Feng didn't say much, because he knew Xiao Zhi wouldn't believe him, so why bother talking to him?

After saying so much, he was the one who was unhappy in the end. Yu Feng said that he was not that stupid.

Back to Charmander.

"Hi!"

Xiaozhi's Charmander looked at Yu Feng's Charmander with expectant eyes, sincerely hoping that she could accept this flower that represented his love.

...Yu Feng's little fire dragon looked at the expression of his thin fellow in front of him and didn't know what to say for a moment.

This weak, skinny, and obviously powerless fellow is definitely not someone who can be trusted!

Although she was very grateful that he liked her...well, she couldn't make up any more stories.

"call!"

Yu Feng's Charmander just opened its mouth slightly and a thick flame directly burned Xiaozhi's Charmander into a char, and then it snorted in disdain.

Xiaozhi's Charmander's heart was as withered as the flowers in his hands. He stayed in a corner, autistic and didn't want to pay any attention to Xiaozhi no matter how he called him.

"Charmander, cheer up! It's just a rejection!"

"We can defeat her with strength and let her know that she is wrong."

Although Xiaozhi doesn't understand what it feels like to like someone, if the other person looks down on him, he will try his best to defeat her.

Tell her that you are worthy of her!

The tail flame of Charmander, which had been gradually getting smaller due to its autism, suddenly burned fiercely. Yes, if you feel that you are weak, then just defeat the opponent and tell her that you are not weak!

Looking at the excited Satoshi and Charmander, Yu Feng and his Pokémon both shook their heads. Although it was not nice to say so, based on Satoshi's training, they couldn't say what would happen in the future, but they definitely couldn't beat him now.

"Come on, Xiao Feng! Charmander and I are in great shape now!"

Charmander once again stood confidently opposite Yu Feng's Charmander, determined to defeat her to prove that he was not a weak Charmander.

"You are so brave, Charmander Sprays Flames!"

Yu Feng glanced at Xiaozhi and didn't say anything else. He commanded Charmander to use Jet Flame and punched Xiaozhi in the face at the same time.

"A sneak attack is shameful! Get out of the way, Charmander!"

Xiaozhi quickly blocked Yu Feng's oncoming punch, and at the same time told his Charmander to quickly dodge the attack. Before, the flames he casually spit out could burn his Charmander to a crisp, so he didn't dare to take on a serious spray of flames.

An absurdly thick flame burst out from Yu Feng's little fire dragon's mouth in an instant. The scorching flame even made the surrounding air seem to be distorted.

Seeing the jet of flame, Xiaozhi's Charmander was so scared that he immediately lay on the ground with his hands on his head, barely avoiding Yu Feng's Charmander's attack.

"Not bad, next, summon your fist into attack position and use the flaming fist!"

Seeing Xiaozhi's Charmander dodging his own Charmander's flame jets in various postures, Yu Feng couldn't help but praise him for dodging well, but Pokémon battles cannot just rely on dodging.

Looking at the Charmander that dodged his attacks one after another, Yu Feng's Charmander had to admit that Xiaozhi's Charmander also had some advantages.

At least he ran fast enough to dodge his own jet of fire, but what came next wasn't so easy to dodge.

Yu Feng's little fire dragon showed a cruel smile and spit a mouthful of blue flame onto his arm.

The Charmander wrapped in blue flames gave a kind smile and suddenly rushed towards Ash's Charmander.

Ash's Charmander tried to dodge, but unfortunately, this close-range attack was different from the flamethrower.

After dodging Charmander's punches several times, luck did not continue to favor him, and Yu Feng's Charmander hit him in the cheek with one punch.

After confirming the feeling of the hit, Yu Feng's Charmander, with a metallic color wrapped around its tail, immediately sucked Xiaozhi's Charmander into the air.

"Charmander!"

"You can still talk, it seems that the strength is not enough!"

Seeing that Xiaozhi still had time to talk, Yu Feng knew that his current strength was too little for Xiaozhi.

So he kicked Xiaozhi's arm hard with the whip and sent him flying.

The movements of one man and one dragon are very synchronized at this moment, and they both seem to be flying in the air, but Yu Feng will wait for Xiaozhi to recover, but Yu Feng's Charmander will not.

After using the Iron Tail to pull him into the air, he added a Big Bang, then his body was wrapped in flames, and at the same time, he exerted force on his feet and caught up with Ash's Charmander in the air.

The fists wrapped in blue flames kept attacking Ash's Charmander, and the scattered sparks dyed the surroundings a very strange blue.

Soon Yu Feng's Charmander stopped the unilateral abuse, fell from the air and knocked Xiaozhi's Charmander into the air with one dragon tail.

Then the dragon wave in his mouth gathered power at the fastest speed and hit Ash's Charmander, who had no ability to fight back, and a purple flower exploded in the air.

At the same time, Xiaozhi was also sat under Yu Feng and unable to move.

He could only watch as his Charmander was defeated and fell to the ground with swirls in his eyes.

"Xiaozhi, do you know what your problem is?"

Yu Feng stood up, stretched out his hand to pull Xiaozhi up, and began to ask him if he knew what his problem was.

After all, after such a beating, it's impossible for him to know nothing.

"I'm sorry Charmander, I'm too weak."

Xiaozhi lowered his head and picked up the Charmander who had just woken up. At the same time, he also expressed his opinion that it was because he was too weak that Charmander lost so badly.

"Li."

Charmander stretched out his little claws to comfort the sad Xiaozhi, indicating that this was not his problem.

"That's one of the reasons. Another reason is that Charmander relies too much on your command."

"As newcomers, we can always command Pokémon to fight, but later on, we can't do that anymore. Our eyes and brains can't keep up with the ever-changing situation."

"Is your Charmander repeating your last command without receiving your instructions?"

Yu Feng shrugged and indicated that Xiaozhi didn't have only this problem.

Charmander was so dependent on Ash's commands that he didn't even think about attacking until he heard Ash's next command.

Although his Charmander was very powerful and left Ash's Charmander no room to resist, he could have resisted before but didn't.