Chapter 198 Don't interfere with other people's love without permission!

"So? Why did you rent a hot air balloon?"

Yu Feng was very confused about the fact that Satoshi and the others were still renting a hot air balloon even though they knew they didn't need to release Butterfree.

There's no need to release them. Why don't they just go directly to Jinhuang City? Why do they need to rent a hot air balloon?

"You don't understand. You can only see such a spectacular sight once a year."

"And even if you don't go out, it's good to leave offspring."

As Xiaogang spoke, he pulled down the ignition rope. The flames suddenly burned, and the hot air balloon carrying Xiaozhi and the others slowly flew into the air.

With Xiaogang's control, the hot air balloon gradually approached Butterfree.

After reaching a certain distance, Xiaogang stopped approaching the hot air balloon. After all, if he got any closer, it would disturb the Butterfree.

"We'll just have to keep this distance. Any closer and we'll easily disturb Butterfree's ceremony."

Although Xiaogang felt envious when he saw the pairs of Butterfree in front of him, he still had to remind Xiaozhi that if he wanted to find a partner for Butterfree, he had to do it now.

"Go ahead, Butterfree! Find a good partner!"

Looking at everything in front of him, Xiaozhi couldn't help but release his Butterfree.

And told him to find a good partner, of course this is not something Butterfree can decide.

With Satoshi's instructions and immense self-confidence, Butterfree flew towards the single female Butterfree that was still flying in the air.

Butterfree flew leisurely towards its first target, and as soon as it got there, it decided to hit a straight ball and directly asked the opponent to be together.

The female Butterfree glanced at Satoshi's Butterfree and decisively turned her head to the side to express her rejection.

The female chooses the male based on body size, scales and gracefulness of flying, but the male Butterfree in front of her really does not meet her requirements.

Even though she still doesn't have a male Butterfree to accompany her, it's no reason for her to just settle for it.

After being rejected for the first time, Xiaozhi's Butterfree was not discouraged and continued to look for the next target.

Soon he found the second female Butterfree that he liked, and Satoshi's Butterfree went forward to express his love without hesitation.

But the other party still rejected Satoshi's Butterfree very directly, without any reason and simply because he didn't like it.

After two failures, Xiaozhi's Butterfree did not get discouraged and continued to look for his true love, three, four times...he experienced countless failures.

Xiaozhi's Butterfree was dejected and was about to fly back to Xiaozhi.

"What's the matter?"

Because of the limited distance, Xiaozhi had no idea what was going on. It couldn't be that Butterfree came back to say goodbye to him.

"I don't think so. If he succeeded, he wouldn't have come back like a butterfly on his own."

Yu Feng actually knows more than Xiaozhi and the others. Telekinesis is really magical.

He saw all the scenes where Butterfree's confession was rejected through his supernatural powers. It's true that he kept fighting and failing.

"Chirrut! (That's it!)"

Shining Kirlia agreed with her brother. After all, she also saw this scene with the help of her brother's mental power.

How can you pursue a girl directly by going straight to the point? You have to show how strong you are.

"Maybe there's no style he likes."

"Is there still a difference? I think Butterfree and the others all look the same."

"For example, those that fly very gracefully, or have a unique appearance, like Xiaofeng's Kirlia."

Although Xiaogang didn't know what happened, he knew from Butterfree's flying movements that he had been rejected more than once, but he had to save some face for his good brother.

What? When did Butterfree become Brock's good friend?

Since we were all rejected by girls, we are definitely part of the loser alliance!

Xiaoxia was more curious about whether Butterfree had different styles, but after hearing Xiaogang's explanation, she suddenly understood.

It is true that the smoothness and size of the starfish gemstones vary.

But at this moment, the noisy sound behind attracted their attention.

Many hot air balloons slowly rose up, white rays of light appeared from them, and Butterfree flew out from them.

The people inside those hot air balloons were there to release Butterfree.

Xiaogang also told Xiaozhi about the trainer who comes to release Butterfree at this time every year.

Although he knew that he didn't have to release the animals, he still felt indescribably embarrassed when he saw these actions.

Xiaogang noticed a beautiful woman who released Butterfree, and frantically encouraged Butterfree, who looked lost, to go find the Butterfree that the woman released.

As long as the Pokémon of both sides connect, maybe the trainers can also connect!

Of course, his ending was that he was rewarded by Xiaoxia. Falling in love is Butterfree's business, so you, an outsider, should not interfere.

Butterfree looked at the violent Misty and suddenly felt like not wanting to find a partner.

"If you want to leave offspring, Butterfree, you have to work hard."

Xiaozhi doesn't quite understand those twists and turns, but he knows that if Butterfree can't find a mate, it will not have offspring.

"You can rely on us more."

Although Yu Feng was not interested in this (or rather, he didn't dare to), he still spoke up and encouraged Butterfree.

Shining Kirlia also nodded seriously and praised Butterfree.

With the encouragement of everyone, Butterfree mustered up its courage again and flew towards the group.

Butterfree returned to the tribe again and began to look for someone to confess his love to.

Looking left and right, he locked his target on a pink Butterfree.

His eyes instantly turned into love shapes, as if he was shot by Cupid's arrow of love, and he danced his courtship dance around the pink Butterfree.

"What is Butterfree doing?"

Since the object was not very far away this time, Xiaozhi could clearly see Butterfree dancing in the air.

He was very surprised by the dance that Butterfree performed, after all, he had never performed this kind of dance before.

"That's a courtship dance. Butterfree will do this dance for the one she likes."

"If the other party likes it, they will respond with a corresponding dance."

Yu Feng explained to Xiaozhi what the dance that Butterfree was doing was on behalf of Xiaogang. After all, he could sense Xiaozhi's jealousy just now.

"Ah...Is that so? Hahahaha."

Of course, Xiaozhi would not react the way Yu Feng expected. He just scratched his head and laughed awkwardly.

Then he looked at Butterfree with confidence. After all, he raised this cub, so how could he not be welcome?

Of course, with Satoshi's training level, the other party unsurprisingly rejected Butterfree's love confession and flew away to other places.

However, Butterfree inherited Satoshi's thick-skinnedness and flew out as well, until the other party couldn't help it anymore and gave him a fierce wing.
