Chapter 200 Hey

"Yeah! You just have to sell yourself well!"

"The most important thing in love is to take the initiative."

"As soon as the bell rings, throw your fist out!"

At this point, Xiaoxia seemed to feel that what she said was a bit too broad, and then she waved her fist fiercely and continued.

"While she's unsteady on her feet, knock her out in one go! Then she's yours."

Xiaoxia became more and more excited as she spoke, and even said something like knocking the other person unconscious.

Yu Feng could only raise his middle finger in his heart at Xiaoxia's remarks. This was even more outrageous than his own idea.

After all, I have captured a Pokémon, and Xiaoxia's method is more serious.

"Are you telling the truth?"

Compared to Yu Feng who silently raised his middle finger, Xiao Gang obviously believed what Xiao Xia said. He eagerly asked whether this method was true.

"Hehe, of course what I said is true."

Xiaoxia hugged her shoulders with both hands, looking as if what she said was definitely correct.

"I see!!"

Xiao Gang scratched his head frantically. Is it so easy to find a partner? Then why had he been rejected so many times before? ! !

Yu Feng couldn't bear it anymore. Looking at Xiaogang's expression, he thought that he would really try it. He didn't want to go to Miss Junsha to rescue her.

"You really believe her words. Miss Junsha is watching you."

How should I put it? The method Xiaoxia suggested is indeed an effective method, but it has serious side effects. If they are not careful, they will have to meet Xiaogang at Miss Junsha's place.

The difference is whether this is the last time we meet.

"Why is this happening!"

Xiaogang obviously reacted in time. These words could indeed help him find a partner, but it did not guarantee that he would have nothing to worry about in the future.

"Anyway, let's try it again!"

Xiaozhi didn't understand the roundabout way they were talking. All he could think about was making sure his Butterfree could easily gain the other party's favor.

This matter is obviously the most important thing. Compared with it, other things can be given up directly.

"Wait, dress up first before going!"

Even though Xiaogang was feeling annoyed, he realized that if he went directly there, the result would most likely be the same as before, so he might as well dress up properly.

He took out a silk scarf from somewhere and gently wrapped it around Butterfree's neck.

"This will make me more energetic."

The three of them gathered together and looked at Butterfree, who had become more energetic. They felt indescribably happy, as if they saw the child they had raised with great difficulty finally succeed.

Just as a few people were looking at Butterfree with satisfaction, Yu Feng took a Poké Ball from Shiny Kirlia who had disappeared at some point in time.

After looking at the Poké Ball and then at the excited trio in front of him, Yu Feng decided that it would be better not to tell them the good news.

After making all the preparations, Xiaozhi and his friends flew back to the Butterfree group that was preparing for their tour.

This time they are determined to make Butterfree gain the other party's favor.

Xiaozhi was holding a telescope and looking at the Butterfree group in the distance, trying to find the pink Butterfree. At the same time, he kept muttering to himself, "Where did the pink Butterfree go just now?"

"Xiaozhi, why do you care so much?"

Misty was a little confused about why Satoshi suddenly cared so much about Butterfree. After all, she had never seen him let Butterfree out except for fighting and eating.

"Butterfree was raised by me personally, I must make sure he is recognized."

Xiaozhi repeated what he said to Xiaoxia. Although he did not take good care of Butterfree, he still watched over and cared for Butterfree until it evolved.

"tired."

Yu Feng didn't say much, just spun the Poké Ball in his hand. For someone like Xiaozhi who was only stubborn with his mouth, Yu Feng was too lazy to say anything more.

Anyway, you will only know to change after you suffer losses. If you don't do it, I won't do it, and no one will do it.

"Hey, I didn't expect you to be such an active father."

Xiaoxia couldn't help but sigh when looking at the serious Xiaozhi. She didn't expect that Xiaozhi would only be serious after failing a challenge.

Unfortunately, no matter how hard Ash looked, he couldn't find that special pink Butterfree.

"Where did Butterfree go? It can't have disappeared in such a short time."

Xiaozhi continued to look for the pink Butterfree with some distress, hoping to see where she was.

After all, they had only been away for a while, so it was impossible for Butterfree to leave the team in such a short time.

"Not so fast. Different-colored and shiny Pokémon aren't very popular among their kind."

"It's good enough that I haven't been rejected. It will probably be difficult to find a partner."

Yu Feng crossed his arms over his chest and answered Xiaozhi's questions. Green Pokémon and shiny Pokémon are not as popular in the wild compared to their ordinary counterparts because of their special colors.

After all, Pokémon usually look the same, and the color of their bodies is also a good protective color.

"But I just can't find it."

Xiaozhi put down the telescope in his hand with some distress. There were so many Butterfree here that it was difficult to look at them one by one, but he still couldn't find any trace of the pink Butterfree.

"I can only say that you are not careful."

Yu Feng took out a Poké Ball from somewhere and spun it in his hand. Seeing Xiaozhi's decadent look, he became very angry.

Although he was sure that Satoshi would not be able to find the pink Butterfree, it would be too irresponsible to just give up like that.

Suddenly, the roar of a propeller sounded nearby, which made Xiaozhi wonder.

Butterfree is being released nearby, so it's not logical for anyone to come in by helicopter at this time.

Doing so would not only easily injure Butterfree, but could also cause you to crash.

"What is it?"

Xiaozhi and the others looked at the helicopter with a red R printed on it in the distance with some confusion.

These words seemed to activate the DNA of the people in the helicopter.

"Since you sincerely asked for advice."

"I will answer you in my great mercy."

"To prevent the world from being destroyed!"

"To protect world peace!"

Without having to hear the whole story, Xiaozhi and the others knew that it was definitely Team Rocket that was flying the plane, and Team Rocket wanted to prevent Xiaozhi and the others from not knowing that it was them.

A banner with the two's portraits and lines was also hung behind the helicopter to ensure that Xiaozhi knew it was him.

This is love! I support Team Rocket and Xiaozhi!

"There are so many Butterfree flying around!"

"There's a ton of them just by looking at any network!"

Kojiro and Musashi looked at the Butterfree group in front of them and their saliva was almost flowing. If they caught so many Butterfree and presented them to the boss, would they have to worry about their future funding?

A huge net bag suddenly appeared under the helicopter and rushed towards the Butterfree group.
