

Gardevoir 22

Chapter 22 Where do you want to go?

Gardevoir covered her rosy face with her hands with great satisfaction, and looked at her two children tenderly.

Yu Feng was the one who had a stronger ability to accept things and recovered first.

"Ahem, mom, please don't do this next time. I'm already very big."

After recovering, Yu Feng used his superpowers to tidy up his messy hair, and also tidied up his sister.

"Sana. (Sorry, I just can't help it. When I think about not being able to see Xiao Fengfeng for several months, I feel like my eyes suddenly lose their light.)"

Gardevoir also felt a little embarrassed. After all, it was indeed her problem and she failed to control her emotions.

"Chirrut!! (What about me... woooooo!!!)"

Shining Kirlia was about to retort subconsciously, but Yu Feng covered her mouth with his hand, gave her a look to shut up, and then let go.

Are you kidding? My mom suddenly got sick because my younger sister talked nonsense. What will happen if she continues to talk?

Shining Kirlia also remembered the consequences of his recent nonsense, so he closed his mouth and sat quietly aside.

"I will come back often in the future."

Yu Feng also knew how much his mother loved them, but every time a long time passed, his mother would worry about this and that.

One time, they went out on an adventure with my aunt and didn't come back for a day. My mother followed the traces of super powers and fought her way through.

By the way, I also gave my aunt a million-ton massage and a Taishan press.

"Shanai. (Little Fengfeng has grown up and doesn't want her mother anymore. Her mother can only grow old quietly in a place where no one knows.)"

Gardevoir used exaggerated acting skills, wiping away her tears while secretly watching the reactions of her children.

Seeing his mother's behavior, Yu Feng couldn't help but feel a headache. She had only been away for a few days and it was like this. If he really finished challenging an alliance and came back, his mother would go berserk and beat him up.

"I promise you, I'll come back at least once a month, okay?"

Even so, Yu Feng also knew that this was a manifestation of his mother's love for them, although neither of them could accept this love.

"Sana. (Twice.)"

"Two days at most. If you say anything else, I won't come back. It's very troublesome to go back and forth."

Yu Feng looked at his mother who was still trying to bargain, and raised two fingers to indicate that this was the limit. After all, he was going to travel, and if he came back twice a month, he would spend most of his time running back and forth. What was the point of traveling?

Not to mention that there may be travel companions, how can I tell them when the time comes?

Say, 'My mother asked me to go back twice a month and you wait for me here for a few days.'?

You must be joking if you say that.

Gardevoir knew that her son's decision could not be changed, so she had to agree. She now really wished that her Poké Ball was with her, so that her son could take her out with him to protect them.

Unfortunately, the Poké Ball is still with their father, and it cannot be retrieved at least until the tribe leader forgives him.

However, if she can't protect the child herself, she can find a travel companion for the child! She has so many sisters, and there are dozens of Gardevoirs besides her.

Besides, it's not like I don't know other humans.

Well, when Xiao Fengfeng goes in to offer sacrifices, I will go and talk to them. At worst, I can just agree to some of their conditions.

So happily decided.

Thinking of this, Gardevoir let go of her worries and felt relaxed.

Yu Feng, who was standing by, had no idea what his mother was thinking, but he felt relieved when he saw that her face was not as worried as before.

"Then it's settled. I'll come back for two days every month."

Yu Feng confirmed with his mother again, and Gardevoir also made an OK gesture to show that she agreed with his opinion.

"Then I'll go out and train this little one. By the way, can I bring her in?"

Seeing that Gardevoir agreed, Yu Feng finally breathed a sigh of relief. He then picked up Charmander, who had been standing there in a daze for a long time, and prepared to take her out for training.

"Sana. (No, you have to have at least one of psychic powers and fairies to get in.)"

Gardevoir shook his head. This was originally prepared for psychic and fairy-type Pokémon. It would have no effect on other Pokémon, and this little guy would have reverse scales.

The parent is at least a powerful dragon-type Pokémon, so it would be extremely uncomfortable if you really went in.

"Is that so? Does that mean other companions can be brought in?"

Yu Feng was helpless. He originally wanted to see if he could ask Xerneas to help him fuse Ho-Oh's feathers with Charmander, but Charmander couldn't go in.

It looks like we'll have to wait until next time, but can other partners come in too?

Is this also a judgment based on the feathers of the Phoenix King? Yu Feng didn't quite understand, but although he didn't understand it now, everything would become clear when he saw the antlers left by Xerneas.

"Then I'll take her out first. Mom, you go ahead and do your work."

Yu Feng held the shy little Charmander in one hand and pulled his sister with the other and walked outside.

"Sanae. (Please come back soon.)"

"understood."

"Chirrut! (I'll supervise him.)"

After receiving replies from the two children, Gardevoir happily hummed her favorite song and began to think about who she could ask to help her look after the children.

On the other side, Yu Feng carried Charmander to the open space where he and his sister were training.

Because this place is often destroyed by the two people's skills, the surrounding area is in a bare state.

After putting Charmander down, Yu Feng and Shiny Kirlia began their daily warm-up. Charmander didn't know what to do for a moment, so he followed them and started warming up.

"Well, Charmander, I have two paths for you to develop. Which one do you want to choose?"

After warming up, Yu Feng folded his arms and began to ask Charmander what she thought.

"What?"

Charmander tilted her head. She had no idea what the two directions her trainer was talking about.

"It's like this. After your clan evolves to the final form, you can still evolve into two more forms with the help of the Mega Evolution Stone."

Yu Feng briefly explained the two routes to Charmander. One is Mega Charizard X, which focuses on physical attacks, and the other is Mega Charizard Y, which focuses on special attacks.

Yu Feng showed Charmander both forms and let her decide which route to take.

Charmander looked at the two forms in his mind, his eyes lighting up at the sight of Mega Charizard X.

“Lili!!!”

Charmander shouted happily, having already chosen the direction he wanted.

"Mega Charizard X? I didn't expect you were such a hottie."

Yu Feng was not too surprised to see Charmander's choice. After all, he thought so too. Not to mention that it was even better if Charmander chose this too.

However....the training amount of choosing Mega Charizard X is much more difficult than Mega Charizard Y.