

Gardevoir 25

Chapter 25 We Are Here

"Gira!"

Yongjira stared at the shining Kirlia who was walking forward. He remembered very clearly that the mysterious elf who saved him said that he would test any Pokémon that wanted to pass by here.

Although the other male Shining Kirliao looks very much like a human, the aura is not deceiving, they are both elves.

Maybe the male Shiny Kirliao is some kind of mutant, but only one of the two of them needs to pass.

Don't ask him why he knew it was a shiny Pokémon instead of a colored Pokémon. He just has been in the forest for a long time and is not a fool. Basically, Pokémon like Gardevoir will pass through here after a while.

He had seen the shining elves more than once, although this was the first time he had seen the shining Kirlia.

The two Pokémon stared at each other for a moment, and Yongjira decided to strike first.

Colorful phantom light gushed out from the spoon in his hand and shot towards the shining Kirlia.

Shining Kirlia was not panicked. When the illusion light approached, she slightly turned her body to avoid Yongjira's attack.

Looking at the movements of Shining Kirlia, Yongjira snorted contemptuously, did he really think that this kind of skill could not be used?

The spoon in his hand moved slightly, and the phantom light swept across the waist of the flashing Kirlia.

Flash Kirlia had already seen through his thoughts, and also shot a ray of phantom light at Yongjira.

Two phantom beams collided in the air, and smoke and dust filled the entire battlefield.

Was she trying to use smoke to block my vision? It was a good plan, but did she overlook the fact that I was a psychic Pokémon?

Yongjira narrowed his fox eyes, and his huge mental power enveloped the field. No matter what Shining Kirlia did, he would be able to discover it.

"Chirrut. (Are you thinking I forgot you're a Psychic Pokémon?)"

The voice of Shining Kirlia sounded in the smoke and dust, making Yongjira's already small eyes narrow even smaller.

That's right, the shining Kirlia who was covered in dust did not make any low-level mistakes. She just wanted to prevent Yongjira from seeing her movements.

The evil energy gathered in her hands, and she hooked her fingers at Yongji, who she sensed. A flash of red light quietly disappeared into the dust.

Can this guy read minds? Yongjira was a little puzzled. He just had this idea, how could the other party know what he was thinking.

A red light quietly merged into Yongjira's body in the shadows, and his thoughts changed instantly. He now just wanted to teach this ignorant and intrusive Shining Kirlia a lesson.

The phantom beams spray into the dust as if they were free, and the main function is to provide a fire coverage.

Yongjila's movements were as dazzling as the sun in the field covered by telekinesis. Sensing the flash of his movements, Kirlia quickly leaped forward to avoid the attacking phantom light, and each time she dodged it by narrowly brushing the edge of the phantom light.

Obviously, even though Yongjila was so angry, he did not forget to use his superpowers to lock onto the position of Shining Kirlia.

Of course, that's all.

After dodging another phantom beam with one hand, Flash Kirlia's eyes flashed with blue light, and then she disappeared on the spot.

Then an even thicker phantom beam hit the position where Flash Kirlia was just now.

Feeling the flash in the telekinetic field and the disappearance of Kirlia, Yujira with red eyes became even more angry, and the materialized mental power turned into sharp blades and flew out in all directions.

"Really? How could they accidentally hurt the audience?"

"Sister, stop playing. We need to go back early."

Yu Feng shook his head, and his mental power also turned into a blade, but it was different from what Yongjila did. Instead of scattering it, it was concentrated on his wrist.

He swung at the spiritual blade that was attacking him and cut it in half, then retreated to a safe place and shouted to his sister.

"Chirrut. (Got it.)"

The voice of Shining Kirlia came in front of Yongjira. Even though he was cautious enough, he was still in an angry state and his perception of space became weaker.

The shining Kirlian appeared again with a white luster wrapped around her legs, and a dangerous aura lingered around her white legs.

Sensing this dangerous aura, fear appeared in Yongjila's red eyes. He could feel that as long as he was hit, he would have no chance of winning.

"Gira!?"

He wanted to use his superpowers to escape without hesitation, but no matter how he communicated with the space, he couldn't use his skills.

If he had a mirror, he would be able to see that a small x with a red ring had appeared on his tail at some point.

Shining Kirlian's white calf hit Yongjira's head with tremendous force, making his eyes bulge out. It was obvious that Shining Kirlian had a vengeful heart.

A violent roar echoed throughout the forest, and a group of Bobo flew away in panic.

In the middle of the big pit on the ground, Yongjila was lying on the ground with his eyes full of blood, looking as if he had lost his ability to fight.

Shining Kirlian slowly stood up, gently patted the non-existent dust, and jumped towards Yu Feng, looking like a good boy.

"Don't be so playful, it's easy to fail."

Yu Feng touched the tentacles on the head of Shining Kirlian and nodded to Blimwen who suddenly appeared.

Blimwen appeared in the distance, carrying Yongjila who was knocked unconscious by Shining Kirlia, and nodded to Yu Feng. The blue light flashed again and then disappeared.

"Chirrut. (It looks like everything will be fine from now on?)"

Shining Kirlia also saw Blimwen. She was one of the guards stationed here. If she came, it meant that the next levels should be able to be passed directly?

"I don't know, but just be prepared in case of another sneak attack."

Yu Feng gathered his clothes, smoothed out the wrinkles on his sleeves, and continued walking deeper into the forest.

Shining Kirlia also followed Yu Feng closely and walked forward.

I don't know if Blimwen in front told the gatekeepers behind, but most of them didn't come out, and the few who came out just said hello to Yu Feng and the others and disappeared.

"Chirrut! (How far is it?)"

After saying goodbye to the Gardevoir that was guarding the gate, Shiny Kirlia straightened her cheeks which were somewhat stiff from smiling.

"It's almost there.... No, we're already there."

When Yu Feng calculated the distance and was about to reply to his sister, he felt as if he was stepping on a thin film, and a dazzling light filled his eyes.

He felt that even if he didn't say anything now, his sister would be able to tell whether she had arrived or not.
