

Gardevoir 32

Chapter 32 Raise your hands

"Hey, both of you raise your hands. You are the ones who caused the explosion."

She was rushing to the explosion site, but she didn't expect this person to suddenly appear in front of her car, carrying an unknown psychic Pokémon, which was obviously the outfit of a criminal.

This was too much. He immediately raised his gun and pointed it at the two blue-haired guys, one big and one small, in front of him.

"No, we just got here too, Miss Junsha."

Yu Feng and Shining Kirlia raised their hands decisively, then turned to look at Miss Junsha.

Looking at the original skin of Junsha, Yu Feng felt a wave of nostalgia. Ah, this is it, this is the most familiar Junsha, although he prefers Carlos Junsha's uniform.

"Don't give me that. Don't mistake me for someone else."

"And don't move. If you move, I'll shoot."

Miss Junsha looked at the human in front of her with a nostalgic expression and immediately thought that he was trying to get close to her, so she immediately made it clear that she was not the Miss Junsha he knew.

Of course, when Miss Junsha saw Yu Feng put his hand in his pocket, she immediately became nervous, with her finger slightly pressing on the trigger.

"You misunderstood. I just want to get my Pokédex."

Yu Feng was speechless, but from Junsha's perspective, his actions were indeed dangerous. Although the bullet could not hurt him, he still raised his hands obediently.

But he still used his superpowers to quietly take out the picture book and dropped it on the ground for Miss Junsha to find.

"Illustrated book? Even if you have it, it can't prove your identity. What if you stole it from someone else? I need to check it."

Miss Junsha was still a little wary, after all, Yu Feng was much taller than her.

"Why are you so defenseless when you see Xiaozhi, and you just raise your gun when you see me?"

Looking at Miss Junsha's expression, Yu Feng secretly complained that the difference in treatment was too obvious.

I don't know what Miss Junsha pressed, but Yu Feng's portrait appeared on the picture book, and Professor Oak's voice also sounded from the picture book.

"This Pokémon Encyclopedia is for Xiao Feng. Come on, Pokémon Trainer."

"Also, this Pokémon Encyclopedia cannot be reissued once it is stolen, so please be careful. ---Message from Professor Oak of Pallet Town."

Miss Junsha looked at the illustrated book and Yu Feng in disbelief, her eyes darting back and forth trying to find any differences, but unfortunately, except for the two orange stripes on her hair that were missing, they were basically exactly the same.

"I'm so sorry, please forgive me."

After returning the illustration to Yu Feng, Miss Junsha immediately bowed 90 degrees to apologize to Yu Feng.

"It's alright. I need to find a place to rest. I'm on my way to the Pokémon Center."

Yu Feng waved his hands. He knew that the Pokémon Center was most likely bombed, but he had to pretend that he didn't know.

"Let me take you there as an apology. There happened to be an explosion nearby and I was on my way there."

After hearing what Yu Feng was going to do, Miss Junsha suggested that she drop Yu Feng and the others off on the way. After all, she was the one who was at fault in this matter, and she even pointed a gun at a ten-year-old child's head.

Although... this ten-year-old boy is almost as tall as her, the problem is that once he is reported, her salary for this month will be gone. She also wants to go to Yuhong City to buy perfume!

"Ok."

Yu Feng and his sister looked at each other and agreed decisively. If possible, they would try not to use superpowers. Excessive use of telekinesis would be very uncomfortable.

"Hold on tight then! We're going to speed up."

After Yu Feng sat down with Shining Kirlia, Miss Junsha blinked at them and said something meaningless.

"Chirrut. (I'm starting to regret this. What should I do?)"

At this time, Shining Kirlia suddenly felt worried. She felt that she had made a very wrong choice, which was to sit on Miss Junsha's motorcycle.

Miss Junsha stepped on the accelerator to the maximum, and the motorcycle sped out instantly, raising a long cloud of dust.

Soon they arrived at the Pokémon Center.

"what on earth is it?"

Miss Junsha was shocked by the scene in front of her. Who actually attacked the Pokémon Center?

"You're really too late. If you had waited until you arrived, all the Pokémon would have been snatched away."

Miss Joy stood up from the wreckage of the Pokémon Center, covered in dust and looking at Miss Junsha in front of her with helplessness.

"Can you blame me? I rushed here as soon as I received the alarm."

Miss Junsha was also speechless. She rushed over as soon as she received the alarm. Even though she was delayed by Yu Feng for a while, it only took her more than ten minutes to arrive.

Who would have thought that it was the Pokémon Center that was bombed. She thought it was an explosion caused by a battle.

"Thanks to this trainer, it didn't lead to more serious consequences."

Miss Joy pointed at Xiaozhi, who was also crawling up covered in dust, and her tone was full of resentment towards Miss Junsha.

"Xiao Feng? You're here too!"

At this time, Xiaozhi saw Yu Feng watching on the side and felt a little excited. After all, meeting someone he knew at this time would still give him a sense of security.

"Well, I just came out of Viridian Forest."

Yu Feng lied without blushing or beating his heart. After all, he did come out of the Evergreen Forest, even if it was from the edge.

Just tell me whether it is Evergreen Forest or not.

"Then you are too slow. It's been two days."

There was some boasting in Xiaozhi's words. After all, he set out much later than Xiaofeng, but now he arrived a day earlier than Xiaofeng.

"Yes, you turned my bicycle into a pile of charcoal in just one day. Now there is not even any ash left."

Xiaoxia's voice full of resentment came from behind Xiaozhi.

I was just fishing, but my bicycle was stolen. When I got it back, it was a pile of charcoal, and now it's all ashes.

"Oh, you, I told you I would pay you back."

Xiaozhi felt a headache when he heard what Xiaoxia said. He really couldn't afford to pay it back now.

At this time, she noticed Yu Feng standing next to her, and his handsome appearance directly touched Xiaoxia's heart.

"Who is this handsome guy?"

Xiaoxia's voice suddenly became very gentle, which gave Xiaozhi, who was standing beside her, goose bumps all over his body.

"He is my brother, Xiao Feng."

Before Yu Feng could speak, Xiaozhi introduced Yu Feng to Xiaoxia.

"Your brother? But he doesn't look like one."

Xiaoxia was a little confused. If you said it was related to the Pokémon next to him, she would believe it, but she really couldn't see how Yu Feng and Xiaozhi were alike.

Miss Junsha and Miss Joey also nodded. After all, they were the best evidence that they were not brothers. They didn't look alike at all.

"Let me explain. I am Xiaozhi's mother's adopted son, and I was raised by elves."

Yu Feng repeated the background he had told Hanako to the people in front of him, which brought tears to the eyes of several girls.

"Don't worry, we will investigate thoroughly and find the murderer who abandoned the child."

Miss Junsha held Yu Feng's hands tightly and assured him. Seeing that Yu Feng was silently worried about his father whom he had never met, it was understandable that he felt very sad to be targeted by Miss Junsha.

"We'll help, too."

Miss Joy on the side also nodded seriously. This scum who abandoned the child must be punished.