Chapter 33 Why don't you stay at my house first?

"It's not necessary, I think it's good."

Yu Feng politely declined the kindness of Miss Junsha and Miss Qiao Yi. After all, this matter was made up. If he really found the other party, they would probably be confused.

Seeing this, Miss Junsha said no more and secretly made up her mind to tell her sisters about this matter and ask them to help investigate it.

It was obvious that Miss Joy thought so too. The two looked at each other and nodded secretly.

"Lucky!"

Two round lucky eggs appeared from nowhere, and a man stood on tiptoe with an egg in his hand and was about to give it to Yu Feng.

"It seems like these two kids like you very much."

Miss Joy who was watching from the side couldn't help but laugh. After all, since Chansey would take the initiative to hand over her egg, it seemed that this trainer was a very good person.

This also made her determined to find the man who abandoned this good child and teach him a lesson.

"Thank you."

Yu Feng took the egg from Jigglypuff and rubbed their smooth heads. He hadn't rubbed Jigglypuff's head for a long time. The Jigglypuff at home had evolved into Humus.

"Lucky!"

The two Jili eggs also enjoyed Yu Feng's touch.

"Oh, by the way, where should I register to challenge the Quartz Alliance?"

Yu Feng took a look at the surroundings and remembered that he had registered at the Pokémon Center.

But it seems that there is no way to solve the current situation, after all, it has all turned to ashes.

"Quartz Conference? What is that?"

Xiaozhi suddenly looked at Yu Feng strangely, and began to be curious about the Quartz Conference he mentioned.

"You don't even know about the Quartz Conference? Then why are you traveling?"

Xiaoxia was also surprised that there were people who didn't even know what the Quartz Conference was. She didn't know why he was traveling.

"of course!"

Xiaozhi pulled his hat back, and a Pikachu who had appeared out of nowhere stood on his shoulder. He pointed his thumb at himself and said proudly, "Of course, my goal is to become a Pokémon Master."

"Oh? Then you shouldn't be unaware of the Quartz Conference."

"This is a super event that takes place every four years. As long as you defeat eight gym leaders and get a badge, you can participate in the tournament."

"The final champion can challenge the current Four Heavenly Kings."

Seeing Xiaozhi's ignorant look, Xiaoxia couldn't help but touch his head and explained to him what the Quartz Conference was.

There aren't many young people like this who don't even know about the Quartz Conference. They are a rare species.

"Your goal is to become a Pokémon Master, but you don't even know this."

Speaking of this, Xiaoxia couldn't help but complain. Her ambition is to be a Pokémon Master, but she doesn't even know about one of the biggest competitions for trainers.

"Is that so? Pikachu, our goal is to win the championship and defeat the king!"

"Pickup!"

Xiaozhi and Pikachu looked at each other, and flames burned in their eyes, determined to defeat the king.

"puff."

A burst of laughter interrupted their burning, and the two of them looked for the person who disturbed their burning.

"Sorry it's me."

Yu Feng covered his mouth but still couldn't help laughing. After all, Xiaozhi's remarks seemed a bit childish no matter how he thought about it.

"Xiao Feng, why are you laughing at us?"

"Pikapi."

Xiaozhi and Pikachu stared at Yu Feng together, wanting to know what was going on.

"I just think it's funny. Xiaozhi, do you really know what kind of existence the king is?"

"That's right Xiaozhi, do you know what the king represents?"

Yu Feng asked Xiaozhi what he thought of the king, and Xiaoxia echoed him. Miss Joy and Miss Junsha started to clean up the mess as they could not get involved in the conversation here.

"What is the Heavenly King?"

Xiaozhi thought for a long time but still didn't understand what Tianwang meant, and the two of them almost fell down.

"Listen carefully, Xiaozhi. The King is one of the top five fighters in a region. Above that is the Champion, and above that is the Pokémon Master."

Yu Feng was helpless. God knows if Xiaozhi's knowledge reserve is really what he should have if he was raised by Professor Oak?

"I know what you're going to say, but do you really think that just one Pikachu can challenge the Elite Four and the Champion?"

Yu Feng stopped Xiao Zhi from speaking. He would probably say that passion alone would be enough.

"You need enough partners and to defeat eight gym leaders to obtain their badges. And you must remember to register with Miss Joy first."

"Otherwise, even if you complete the gym challenge, you won't be able to qualify for the Quartz Tournament."

"but...."

Yu Feng pointed to the ashes of the Pokémon Center behind them. It had been razed to the ground by Pikachu. There was no telling if anything could survive under such a huge thunder.

"this..."

Xiaozhi and Pikachu looked at each other and said nothing in tacit agreement. After all, this was what they did.

"By the way, I remember you just said you wanted to register for the competition, right?"

Just then Miss Joy walked out from the ruins, tilted her head and looked at the two people, wanting to confirm their answer.

"Yes, please sign me in, Miss Joy."

Xiaozhi quickly ran to Miss Joy and bowed 90 degrees, and Pikachu did the same.

"Okay, come with me. Fortunately, the backup equipment in the basement is not damaged."

Miss Joy smiled softly and called on Xiaozhi and Yu Feng to follow her, then turned and walked towards the ruins.

"What about you, Xiaoxia?"

Yu Feng would naturally follow, but Xiaoxia would probably not challenge the Quartz Alliance.

"I, I'll go and take a look too. After all, Xiaozhi crushed my bicycle to ashes."

Whenever Xiaoxia talked about this, she would grit her teeth. Others could at most break Xiu and still be useful, but Xiaozhi directly beat him into ashes.

"Ahem, let's go first."

Yu Feng didn't know what to say when it came to this. After all, Xiao Zhi was his 'brother', so it would be better for him not to get involved in such matters.

.....

"Okay, here's the illustrated guide for you. Keep it well."

Miss Joy took the illustrated book from the machine and returned it to Xiaozhi, asking him to keep it safe.

"Is this okay?"

Xiaozhi, with Pikachu on his shoulder, was a little curious. Could the information be recorded just by swiping it?

"Yes, yours is also good for Xiaofeng. I hope to see your heroic figure at the Quartz Conference."

While answering Xiaozhi, Miss Joy also helped Yu Feng enter his information.

"That's not fair. Why don't I say that?"

Xiaozhi protested, why didn't he say this, he also wanted to fight bravely in the Quartz Conference.

"How can you, who blew up the Pokémon Center, say such things?"

Misty's rant was precise and elegant, instantly making Satoshi hide aside and draw circles.

"Hehe, this is your badge box. It's getting late, Xiao Feng, do you have a place to rest?"

Miss Joy handed the badge box in stock to Yu Feng with a smile, and asked Yu Feng if he had a place to stay today.

"The Pokémon Center was bombed. I'll probably camp in the park."

Speaking of accommodation, Yu Feng couldn't help but scratch his head. He originally wanted to see if he could stop the explosion earlier, but he didn't expect it was too late.

If you can't stay at the Pokémon Center now, you can only camp in the park.

"If you don't mind, you can stay at my place for one night."

Miss Junsha appeared behind them at some point and asked Yu Feng for his opinion.

"Yeah, that's OK. Although the buildings above ground are destroyed, there are still three emergency rooms underground."

Miss Joy also talked about the current situation of the Pokémon Center. After all, the entire top has been leveled, but this situation was also taken into consideration when it was built, and there are also several rooms in the basement.

"Yes, I still need to investigate the situation here for a long time. I won't be going back at night, but of course I'm not staying here for free. Please make me some breakfast."

Miss Junsha also smiled and raised a finger to invite Yu Feng.
