

Gardevoir 35

Chapter 35 Do you want to travel together?

"Here, Xiao Feng."

Xiaozhi was waiting for something at the edge of Viridian City, while Xiaoxia was interacting with Pikachu nearby.

As if he saw something, Xiaozhi loudly greeted the person walking on the side.

"Well, Xiaozhi, you guys didn't leave?"

Yu Feng was walking outside when he suddenly heard someone calling him. He looked over there curiously and unexpectedly a familiar color appeared in front of him.

"No, Xiaozhi is waiting for you here."

Misty watched as Pikachu, who had just been interacting with her, suddenly ran to Ash's shoulder and looked at him with an unimpressed look.

"Xiao Feng, do you want to travel with me?"

Xiaozhi ignored Xiaoxia's gaze and excitedly invited Yu Feng to travel with him.

"But, we will probably have to separate after arriving in Golden City."

Yu Feng remembered what his mother said to him that day.

"Sana (Go to this address when you arrive in Golden City. Mom will help you find a travel companion. If it doesn't work, let me know and I'll find you another travel companion.)"

Although he challenged the Kanto Alliance together with Xiaozhi, he will probably challenge the Chinese Alliance next, so he needs to make this clear to Xiaozhi in advance.

"Is that so? Never mind! We can talk about this later."

"Okay, I'll travel with you first then."

"Yeah!" x2

Looking at the shining eyes of Xiaozhi and Pikachu, Yu Feng couldn't say anything to refuse. It just so happened that it would be too boring to walk over there by himself, so he decided to travel with Xiaozhi.

Xiaozhi and Xiaoxia looked at each other and high-fived to celebrate, which made Yu Feng wonder if their relationship was so good now?

.....

Ninjago synopsis (crossed out)

"In the Viridian Forest, which is even darker during the day, there is the caterpillar Pokémon Caterpillar and Xiaozhi. Can Xiaozhi capture him?"

Yu Feng stood next to Xiaoxia and Pikachu and watched Xiaozhi and a green caterpillar confronting each other.

"What are you talking about, Xiao Feng?"

Xiaoxia looked at Yu Feng, who was speaking expressionlessly as if he had just given the whole story, and was a little confused as to why Yu Feng was saying such meaningless words.

Yu Feng pointed at Xiaozhi who was confronting Caterpillar without saying a word, and signaled Xiaoxia to watch carefully because this was one of the few times when she could capture a Pokémon with one ball.

Except for Gou Hao.

"Watch this, Caterpillar!"

Suddenly, Ash moved, struck his classic pose and threw the Poké Ball at the Caterpillar.

Then he looked seriously at the Poké Ball that was spinning and flying towards the Caterpillar. The Caterpillar seemed to be frightened by Xiaozhi's awkward action and did not react at all.

Seeing this, Yu Feng really couldn't help but complain that this green caterpillar was really stupid. If it were his green caterpillar, it would tie you up like a dumpling with both the person and the ball.

Under the gaze of everyone, the Caterpillar was hit by Ash's Poké Ball and turned into a red light and entered the Poké Ball.

The Poké Ball kept shaking, and even Ash couldn't help but swallow, fearing that he would fail to capture the Pokémon this time.

The Poké Ball kept swinging back and forth, and everyone's breathing subconsciously slowed down.

Looking at the Poké Ball that was shaking all the time but didn't show that the capture had failed, Yu Feng's eyes kept twitching. You know, when he played games before, if the Poké Ball was shaken more than twice, it would have been scrapped.

How many times did Xiaozhi shake the ball? Five or six times, definitely a lot.

"boom!"

Finally, with a slight sound, the red light in the center of the Poké Ball disappeared and the Poké Ball stopped shaking, which meant that Xiaozhi successfully captured the Caterpillar.

The moment he successfully captured the Poké Ball, Xiaozhi's serious expression instantly turned into a funny one, and he ran towards the Poké Ball with a big laugh.

Carefully, he held up the Poké Ball containing the Caterpillar with both hands, stretched out his hand holding the Poké Ball and shouted loudly: "I have captured the Caterpillar!"

Then he happily ran to Yu Feng and Xiao Xia and made some exaggerated movements, accompanied by words of self-praise.

"Well done, Xiaozhi. You are awesome, Xiaozhi!"

"Although the Pokémon we captured is very small, it is a small step towards success."

As he spoke, Xiaozhi put his hand on Xiaoxia's shoulder, which made Xiaoxia look speechless (?_?).

Afterwards, Xiaozhi wanted to pull Yu Feng and Xiaoxia up, but unfortunately Yu Feng dodged Xiaozhi's sneak attack. Xiaoxia didn't expect Xiaozhi to do this, and was pulled by him and started spinning in place.

"It worked, it worked, yay!"

"Wow! Don't go around, it'll make your eyes blurry!"

"Skin..."

Pikachu watched the two people circling from the side, and his eyes couldn't help but follow the two people's movements. Then his eyes became red and he fell to the ground.

"Hate it! What are you doing?"

Misty pushed Xiaozhi away, expressing her confusion about his excitement.

Just as Xiaozhi was about to put the Poké Ball with Caterpillar in front of Xiaoxia, Yu Feng grabbed his arm.

"Xiaozhi, it's alright, girls are afraid of bugs."

Yu Feng thought for a long time and decided to stop Xiaozhi's straight male behavior. After all, he didn't even want to accept most insect Pokémon.

Who would have known that this brave boy who dared to play with a colorful big spider in his hands when he was a child would be scared when he saw a dragonfly when he grew up.

Xiaoxia gave Yu Feng a grateful look. She really couldn't accept insect Pokémon.

"But even if she hates Bug-type Pokémon, it shouldn't be a problem to put it in a Poké Ball."

Xiaozhi was a little confused. There were really not many Pokémon that he was afraid of, and since everything was put into the Poké Ball, it shouldn't be such a big problem, right?

As for Xiaozhi's opinion, Xiaoxia launched a fierce counterattack.

"Even if it's installed, a bug is still a bug. I don't want to see that kind of thing!"

Seeing Yu Feng's obstruction and Xiaoxia's annoyance, Xiaozhi didn't say anything else but rubbed the Poké Ball with a silly look on his face: "This Poké Ball is a very comfortable world for Pokémon. Pokémon are in heaven, and I feel like I'm in heaven too."

(A giant shining Gardevoir expressed strong condemnation and said that there was not even a computer in the Poké Ball, which was boring!)

Xiaoxia's expression became extremely ugly, and she began to doubt the correctness of traveling with Xiaozhi.

Then Xiaozhi came to Pikachu, holding the Poké Ball and said to Pikachu happily: "Pikachu, you have more companions."

"Pickup!"

Pikachu sniffed the Poké Ball in Xiaozhi's hand and also made a happy gesture.

Seeing that Pikachu was also happy about having a new companion, Xiaozhi was also very happy, so he made a decision.

Xiaoxia, who was being comforted by Yu Feng, suddenly felt a chill on her spine, as if something bad was about to happen.

"I've made up my mind. Green Caterpillar, come with us!"

Xiaozhi happily released the Caterpillar from the Poké Ball again.

"Let's go together...?!"

Xiaoxia felt that her bad premonition was about to come true.