

Gardevoir 37

Chapter 37 Please do it yourself. Thank you

"Chirrut? (Who is calling the fleet?)"

Shining Kirlia, holding a blue orange fruit bar in her mouth, poked her head out from behind Yu Feng in confusion. She seemed to have heard someone calling her just now.

"It's okay, sister, go eat your fruit sticks."

Yu Feng touched his sister's blue hair and sent her back to eat blue tangerine fruit bars.

Shining Kirlia also rolled her eyes and looked at the three of them, as if wondering how there could be such idle humans. However, she didn't want to sit back. It seemed more interesting to just watch what they would say next.

"Wait a minute, Xiao Feng, you just called her sister."

Xiaoxia discovered the blind spot. If she heard correctly, Xiaofeng called Shining Kirlia "sister"?

The girl's natural sixth sense tells her that there is a very big melon here that she can eat.

"Oh? Didn't I tell you?"

Yu Feng raised his eyebrows. He remembered that he had said a long time ago that he was raised by elves. Wasn't Xiaoxia also there at that time?

"That's what I said, but the question is why do you call Shining Kirlia sister?!"

Xiaoxia found it a little strange, after all, few people would recognize Pokémon as brothers and sisters.

"Yes, Xiao Feng, why do you call Shining Kirlia sister?"

At this time, even Xiaozhi, who was a little slow to react, realized that something was wrong. It is normal to call them baby and address them as brother and sister, but there are not many people like them, right?

"I didn't expect you to react. I was raised by Gardevoir, the mother of Shining Kirlia."

Yu Feng held his forehead with his hand. It was so obvious, but they didn't react. As expected, he had reservations about the IQ of Xiaozhi and the others in the early stage.

Although considering the fact that they don't know Gardevoir, making such an expression is really enough.

Seeing Ash and Misty looking shocked, Yu Feng didn't know whether he should complain or not. When you meet Coco, you will know what it is like to be raised by a Pokémon. Although it might be because Coco was raised by a monkey-like Pokémon like Zorua?

"You conquered your sister!"

Xiaozhi's way of looking at things was indeed different from that of ordinary people. He was actually just shocked that Yu Feng had conquered his sister.

"I thought you would be more concerned about what kind of Pokémon Gardevoir is."

Misty's complaints were very sharp. After all, a Pokémon fanatic like Satoshi should be more concerned about unknown Pokémon.

"So Xiao Feng, do you want to have a passionate Pokémon battle?"

Before he knew it, dinner was over. Xiaozhi looked at Yu Feng, who was training Shining Kirliao with Charmander, and Aibutsu who was cleaning up the mess, and he became interested in fighting them.

"Excuse me, but you can't beat me."

Yu Feng doesn't want to fight against the current Xiaozhi, because the current Xiaozhi is really weak. Even if Pikachu is very strong, they have just started their journey. He doesn't have any system to abuse Xiaozhi to get points.

Xiaozhi is not Xiaomao, so if he fights Xiaomao, he has to consider tactics. But when fighting against the current Xiaozhi, it's not that he looks down on the current Xiaozhi, but the current Xiaozhi and Xiaomao can push Xiaozhi's team. Xiaozhi and Xiaomao could have evolved long ago, but he just doesn't know what flavor they could evolve into.

What can he do with Charming and Round Singing? The newly acquired Charmander? Pikachu and Caterpillar will have to suffer. Charmander not only learned the "Farmer's Three Punches" very well, but also learned Flame Fang and Charged Flame Attack. He has also learned to dig holes.

With the current Pikachu, Yu Feng really doesn't think that Xiaozhi has any chance of defeating him.

"But how do you know you can't win without fighting?"

Xiaozhi was still full of confidence. How could he know that he couldn't beat Xiaofeng without fighting? Maybe he could even defeat Xiaofeng.

"Don't dream, Xiaozhi. Look at what Avatar is doing. Look at what Kirlia is teaching Charmander."

"Xiao Feng is right. You can't beat him at the moment."

Xiaoxia pointed at the butler who was using his superpowers to wash the dishes at once. Although she didn't know how the superpower elves calculated it, being able to manipulate water and so many dishes at the same time was definitely not something that the current intelligence could handle.

Let's talk about the Shiny Kirlia who came later. He could condense flames in an instant and disperse them in an instant, and he could also tell Charmander what was wrong. Although Charmander's condensation was not as fast as that of Shiny Kirlia, it was still impossible for a Caterpillar to defeat him.

"Okay, I can promise you a 2v2 battle, but do you really want to fight me?"

Yu Feng looked at Xiao Zhi's eager eyes and agreed to his request.

"Yes, Xiao Feng, please fight me with all your strength."

Xiaozhi put on a passionate attitude and asked Yu Feng.

"All your strength? I'm afraid you'll cry!"

Fighting with Xiaozhi at full strength? Does he really want to be beaten into autism? He himself doesn't even know what his full strength is.

But if I defeat Xiaozhi now, will he not bother me for a long time? Yu Feng thought about the possibility of this matter, and he found that this possibility seemed very high.

Although Xiaozhi will constantly challenge strong enemies, if the gap is too big, he will train himself to the point where he feels he can beat the opponent before challenging him again.

Yu Feng realized that this seemed to allow him to calm down for a while and decided to give Xiaozhi a deep memory. It just so happened that he had just obtained a powerful weapon.

"I really can't do anything about you two, so I'll be the referee."

Several people walked to an open space, and Yu Feng and Xiao Zhi stood in opposite directions waiting for the game to begin.

"Chirrut. (Shall I come on?)"

Shiny Kirlia was eager to try, as she had never had a formal battle since she came out.

"No, I decided to teach him a hard lesson."

Yu Feng pulled the love ball off his neck and put it in his hand. In the darkness, there was an indescribable cruelty in him.

"Chirrut. (My condolences to him.)"

Seeing the love ball in her brother's hand, Shiny Kirlia mourned for Ash in her heart. Although she didn't know how strong Shiny Gardevoir was, since it was Gardevoir, its use of super powers must be better than hers, and it was also turned into a boss by her mother and the others.

As we all know, bigger means stronger. Although it is easy to be hit, the physical strength and skill power will be stronger to a higher level.

"Then the rules of the game are limited to four, 2v2 matches."

"The battle begins!"

As the referee, Misty waved her hand downwards, signaling both sides to release their Pokémon.

"Then come on! Caterpillar!"

"let's go!"

Xiaozhi waved his hand, and the Caterpillar instantly jumped into the middle of the field. At the same time, Yu Feng also threw out the love ball in his hand.

“Sha~~~!!!!”

A huge figure with red eyes emerged from the love ball and appeared on the field with an ethereal and huge cry, and his unreserved momentum washed over everyone present.

When facing this figure, Caterpillar's eyes were blank and its whole body was shaking like a pile driver. If it could speak now, it would definitely let Xiaozhi come up and fight by himself.

"What...what is this! This isn't Onix!!!"

Xiaoxia was also frightened by the appearance of the black shadow. She was very sure that Onix was not like this.

"What do you think, Xiaozhi? It's not too late to admit defeat now."

Yu Feng stood behind Shiny Gardevoir and looked at Xiaozhi, waiting for his answer.
