Chapter 41 The So-Called Samurai Boy

"Ash has great ambitions and strong faith and leaves Pallet Town with the Pokémon Pikachu!"

"Wait a minute, why is there something like a previous summary?"

When Yu Feng started to say some strange things again, Xiaoxia interrupted his singing. Why did Xiaofeng say something like a summary of the previous story?

There are obviously only a few of them, so why do they need any background information?

"I really don't understand men's hobbies."

"Yes, yes."

Yu Feng spread his hands helplessly, and Xiao Zhi also crossed his arms and echoed Yu Feng's words.

"You two, really!"

Xiaoxia clenched her hands and a well-shaped pattern appeared on her head, but she suddenly felt a cold and creeping sensation on her feet.

This gave her a bad feeling. She looked at her legs tremblingly. A brown hornworm was twisting and turning on Xiaoxia's legs.

"Damn it! Xiaozhi, hurry up and catch it!"

Xiaoxia instantly shrank behind Yu Feng and asked Xiaozhi to quickly capture the hornworm.

Xiaozhi calmly took out the illustrated book and scanned the unicorn beetle.

"The unicorn beetle has a sharp poisonous needle on its head to prevent invasion by foreign enemies."

"It's a poison needle attack, so be careful."

Xiaozhi muttered to himself as he listened to the introduction in the illustrated book, which made Xiaoxia very nervous.

"I almost forgot. To capture a Pokémon, you have to weaken it. So, I'm counting on you, Pikachu!"

When Xiaozhi was about to capture the Horned Beetle, he remembered what happened last time and prepared to let Pikachu go up and defeat the Horned Beetle.

Who would have thought that Pikachu would take out a small quilt from somewhere and lie down in it without paying any attention to Xiaozhi.

"Forget it, I have other partners."

Looking at Pikachu's appearance, Xiaozhi shook the two Poké Balls in his hands.

"I'm telling you, quickly subdue him!"

Xiaoxia felt the wriggling sensation on her leg again, her face turned pale and she ran out quickly.

"Xia Misty, you haven't improved at all. I'm going to use Pidgeot and use Fierce Blast!"

Xiaozhi released Pidgeot to fight, which made Yu Feng feel relieved. He finally understood the restraint relationship between Pokémon.

The Pidgeot flapped its wings, creating a strong airflow that knocked the unicorn worm back.

After dodging the last poisonous needle from the Hornet Beetle, Pidgeot successfully defeated the Hornet Beetle and made it lose its ability to fight.

"Okay, then we have to conquer him!"

After seeing Pidgeot defeat Beetle, Ash took out the Poké Ball and prepared to capture Beetle.

"Let me ask you, are you the Pokémon trainer from Pallet Town?"

A child in samurai armor appears from behind Xiaozhi and asks about his origins.

"Yes, I'm very busy now. We can talk later."

Xiaozhi was just about to capture a Beetle and had no intention of paying any attention to the person who came over to disrupt the situation. After replying to the person, he was ready to throw the Poké Ball.

When the young samurai heard Xiaozhi's answer, his eyes flashed with a gleam and his hands were placed on the sword slung across his waist.

Yu Feng, who was watching Xiaozhi capture the Horned Beetle, curled his lips slightly. Is this guy really treating him as if he doesn't exist?

Yu Feng stretched out his arm, and the movement of holding the warrior boy with his palm stopped instantly.

His face turned red but he couldn't do anything. At this moment, Xiaoxia ran back from a distance, saw the warrior boy's actions and shouted Xiaozhi's name.

Xiaozhi heard Xiaoxia's cry and turned around to find out what was going on. He saw the samurai boy with a red face, trying to draw his sword and unable to move.

"If you don't subdue the unicorn beetle, it will run away."

Yu Feng nodded to indicate to Xiaozhi that the beetle would wake up soon.

Xiaozhi hurriedly threw the Poké Ball over and put the Beetle into the ball, then turned around and looked at the warrior boy who was controlled by Yu Feng.

"who is he?"

Xiaozhi was a little confused. It was obvious from the man's actions that he wanted to draw his sword and chop him, but he didn't do anything. Xiaoxia also ran to Xiaofeng with a worried look on her face.

"I don't know. This guy just suddenly pulled out a knife at me. I almost thought I was finished. Xiaozhi, do you know him?"

Xiaoxia patted her barren chest in relief when she saw that the two were fine. Then she looked at the young warrior who was fixed in place with a puzzled look on her face.

"Then ask him, but I will confiscate the dangerous goods first."

Yu Feng waved his hands for too long. How could he know why this man was targeting the trainers in Pallet Town? He had to ask him in person. But before that, he had to destroy the dangerous goods in this man's hands.

Yu Feng clenched his fist, and the sword in the samurai boy's hand was instantly twisted into a ball as if it was held by a huge force. Then Yu Feng released his control over him.

"My sword!"

The first thing the samurai boy did when he was released was to check his beloved sword. However, when he found out it was beyond saving, he stared at Yu Feng with angry eyes, but if you looked closely, you could see that his eyes were full of fear.

"Who are you? Are you trying to rob me?"

Xiaozhi looked at the young samurai with confusion, he didn't remember offending such a person.

"I'm not a robber who wants money!"

When Xiaozhi asked himself, the warrior boy finally perked up a little and looked at Xiaozhi expressionlessly.

"Then who are you?"

Xiaoxia was very dissatisfied with the person who pointed a knife at her. This was not a safe behavior.

"I am a warrior, training to be a Pokémon trainer in this forest, and I want you to have a Pokémon Duel with me!"

"Come on, challenge me to a duel."

The young warrior subconsciously wanted to touch his sword, but when he realized that it had turned into a lump of iron, he withdrew his hand in disappointment.

He took out his Poké Ball and challenged Xiaozhi to a duel.

"Let me tell you a few words. What is your mentality when you challenge someone? Do you want to force someone with a knife?"

"Besides, you almost caused Ash to fail to capture the Hornet. Don't you know not to disturb others when they are catching Pokémon?"

Yu Feng was a little confused. Although fighting was the main theme of this world, what this young man did was very dangerous. Not to mention that the sword had no eyes, he clearly saw others catching Pokémon, but he actually interrupted the process.

If this happened to someone with a bad temper, he would definitely not see the sun tomorrow.

"That's not my fault. If he escaped, it only means that his skills are not mature enough."

The samurai boy didn't care. If he failed to capture the Pokémon, it was his own problem. He had never stopped him from capturing the Pokémon from the beginning to the end.

Seeing that the warrior boy was unrepentant, Yu Feng was so angry that he laughed. Although he couldn't remember what happened afterwards, it was obvious that he caused something very serious to happen.

Yu Feng narrowed his eyes slightly, pointed at the warrior boy with one finger and spoke in a cold tone.
