Chapter 42 I will punish you by turning you into a doll.

"Since you are so stubborn, I will punish you by turning you into a doll for a few days."

"Don't worry, you don't need to eat. Or rather, you won't consume nutrients in this state."

Yu Feng's superpower turned into materialized azure blue that filled Yu Feng's body; even his eyes, which were as bright as orange gems, were tinged with a hint of blue.

The super power enveloped the warrior boy's body, slowly changing his form into a doll that looked similar to him.

Even if the samurai boy tried to resist, he could not escape the control of his superpowers and was completely transformed into a doll in a dazzling light.

"Xiao...Xiao Feng?"

Xiaoxia is a little afraid of Yu Feng now. He is so cold that she hardly recognizes him. He can turn people into dolls at will.

Yu Feng noticed the looks in Xiaozhi and Xiaoxia's eyes behind him and sighed. The blue in his eyes disappeared and returned to normal.

"It's okay, it's only temporary. I'll be back in a day or two. After all, I'm not a monster."

"Let's not talk about this anymore. I just found out the way to Nibi City."

Yu Feng disappeared for a while, and when he appeared again, the warrior boy's doll had disappeared. He pointed to a road and spoke to Xiaoxia and Xiaozhi.

"Xiao Feng, where are the others? And you?"

Xiaozhi is still a bit rough, and he is more concerned about where Xiaofeng went just now.

"I put him in his house. Even though it was a punishment, nothing should happen. As for what I am doing..."

Yu Feng deliberately dragged out his words in order to see Xiaozhi and Xiaoxia's reactions, but he didn't get the reactions he wanted and shook his head with a hint of regret.

"It's just one of the applications of super powers and teleportation."

Yu Feng didn't think it was a big deal. After all, everyone around him was stronger than him, so this way of using the skills was not worth showing off.

"Then doesn't it mean that walking with Xiaozhi has slowed down your progress?"

Xiaoxia is worthy of being Xiaoxia. She hit the nail on the head right away. Since Yu Feng can teleport, then doesn't it mean that his journey with Xiaozhi has slowed down his movements?

"You're right. Theoretically, I can challenge all the gyms in one day, but considering the consumption of mental energy, it will take more than a week. Besides, don't you think it's better to walk around instead of challenging them all at once?"

"Besides, the Quartz Conference is still a long way from starting. Where are we going after the challenge?"

Yu Feng nodded his head and explained to Xiaoxia with a little helplessness, why should she run in such a hurry when she could take some time off.

"That's true. Let's go quickly. I really want to take a nice bath in the Pokémon Center."

Xiaoxia nodded, and her fear of Yu Feng dissipated a little. Apart from the fact that he had superpowers, Xiaofeng was actually just an ordinary boy.

But what she wanted now was to go to the Pokémon Center and have a good rest. It was really uncomfortable to stay in the Viridian Forest for several days.

Okay, let's go back to the Rockets.

There was a big hole in the middle of the road that appeared at some point, and the soil was being dug out bit by bit with a shovel.

"Although I don't know why I suddenly want to introduce myself again."

.....

"I'm Musashi."

"I'm Kojiro."

Musashi and Kojiro once again spoke their classic lines and made classic moves that no one knew about.

"I'm talking to you two!" A shovel was stuck at their feet. Meow Meow climbed out of the pit with an angry face and said to them angrily, "You asked me to dig a hole while you were acting on the side. How can this be justified, Meow?"

"By the way, if they are going through Nibi City, the three of them should pass through here."

"I almost forgot we were digging a trap."

"You two changed the subject so abruptly, meow!"

The two men and the cat began to dig the trap together, and the depth of the trap dropped rapidly as if some kind of power was added.

Finally, put a loose frame on it, cover it with leaves, and then spread the soil on top. A perfect trap is ready, which is exactly the same as the original road surface.

"Done, meow."

Meowth clapped his hands excitedly. After all, he was a Pokémon, and the flexibility of his hands and feet was definitely not as good as Musashi and Kojiro's.

"Hey! Where's our trap?"

Kojiro suddenly seemed to have thought of something and looked at the open space in front of him with surprise. Why couldn't they find the trap they had just dug?

"Meow?"

Miaomiao suddenly felt like his brain short-circuited. If they couldn't find it, didn't that mean they were doing a good job? Only if they couldn't see it would someone step on it. Why did they have to know where it was?

But he was still led by Musashi and Kojiro to look for the trap they had just dug. The three of them stepped on a piece of soft ground and pondered, wondering why they couldn't find their trap after searching everywhere nearby.

They didn't notice at all that their bodies were slowly falling. Of course, by the time they noticed it, it was too late. They were caught in their own trap.

Okay, let's not watch these comedians.

"In order to become the world's best Pokémon trainer, Xiaozhi and his friends finally left the Viridian Forest. The next city they arrived at was..."

Yu Feng looked at the city in front of him and spoke strange words in a very magnetic voice.

"Xiao Feng, it's started again, but it's in Nibi City."

Seeing Yu Feng speaking again as if it were a recap of what happened before, Xiaoxia was no longer surprised. However, she also looked at the Nibi City in front of her with great relief, having finally walked out of the forest.

Xiaozhi sat down on a rock, breathed a sigh of relief, and said with a slightly tired look, "I thought we were going to spend our entire lives wandering in the forest."

"In fact, you could have come out a long time ago if you wanted to."

Yu Feng came out of that strange state and looked at the two of them who were a little disappointed. If they really wanted to get out, they could have done so long ago. They could just hold his hand and go directly to the Pokémon Center in Nibe City.

I don't know if they were scared by the fact that the samurai boy who attacked them was turned into a doll, but they didn't dare to pull his hand. It was as if someone was threatening them from behind.

Pikachu didn't want to pay attention to their quarrel, so he sighed and sat down next to Xiaozhi. You know, he had been following them for a whole day.

His short legs couldn't bear it any longer, and now he can finally take a break.

"Nibi means gray, the color of stone. This city has been famous for its stone since ancient times."

A strange voice sounded from near them, causing them to start looking for who was speaking.

Yu Feng gestured to Xiaozhi and Xiaoxia to look down, and they then noticed the black figure below them.
