Chapter 43: Just you?

"Who is this person? Xiao Feng, do you know him?"

Xiaozhi looked at Yu Feng with a puzzled look, as if asking him if he knew this person.

"How would I know? But judging by the skin, it's Ni, right?"

Yu Feng knew who this was at a glance, but he didn't know how to ask the question because it was too troublesome to explain.

"Xiao Feng, don't be so rude. I just have a darker skin, not Ni."

Xiaoxia poked Yu Feng on the back to signal him not to be so rude.

"My name is Wu Neng, and the place where you are sitting now is my product."

Wu Neng didn't care about Yu Feng's words. His implication was that Xiaozhi should leave his products as soon as possible.

Xiaozhi quickly stood up and apologized to Wu Neng. It would be a disaster if he sat on someone else's goods and they failed to sell.

After some investigation, Xiaozhi learned that Wu Neng was a businessman who made a living by selling stones here.

"Then it seems impossible for you to buy a stone for making pickles."

Wu Neng had already realized that it was impossible for him to sell a stone to the three people in front of him.

"I'm sorry, I'm here on a training journey as a Pokémon trainer."

Xiaozhi pointed at himself with one finger and said with pride.

Pikachu on the side couldn't help but sigh when he saw his trainer like this, and Wu Neng looked at Pikachu's actions and spoke to Xiaozhi.

"Your Pokémon looks very tired. Come here and I'll take you to the Pokémon Center."

Wu Neng finally stood up from his land, ready to lead Xiaozhi and the others to the Pokémon Center in Nibe City.

"I can't tell he's a nice guy."

Xiaozhi looked at Xiaofeng and Xiaoxia and whispered good things about Wu Neng.

"really?"

Xiaoxia expressed her doubts about this. Although she didn't have any bad opinions about martial arts, she always felt that this matter would not end so easily.

Sure enough, Wu Neng, who was walking in front, seemed to remember something, turned around and said to Xiaozhi with a smile: "Sorry, big brother, I will charge you 50 yuan for the rest first."

Wu Neng's act of calling someone "big brother" because he has money shocked Xiaozhi and the others so much that they fell to the ground. Yu Feng covered his face and handed over a 100-yuan bill.

Wu Neng searched his body and found no change, so he handed a stone to Yu Feng, intending to use it to pay for the remaining 50 yuan.

Yu Feng covered his face and waved his hands. He didn't care about the money. The important thing was to take them to the Pokémon Center as soon as possible.

After getting the money, Wu Neng didn't cause any more trouble and safely brought Xiaozhi and the others to the Pokémon Center.

"sorry to bother you."

Xiaozhi and Yu Feng placed their Poké Balls on a tray and handed them to Miss Joy.

"Don't worry, it's okay."

Miss Joy looked at Xiaozhi and Yu Feng in front of her with a gentle smile.

"Are you Joey?"

Xiaozhi pointed at Miss Joy in front of him with a little disbelief. He seemed to remember that Miss Joy was in Viridian City.

"Yeah, I'm Joey."

Miss Joy still looked at Xiaozhi with her usual smile and was not angry at his rudeness.

"This place is not Viridian City, it's Nibi City, right?"

Xiaozhi was a little confused now, and didn't care about Yu Feng's action of covering his face and not recognizing him. He carefully observed the surrounding environment. He suspected that he had not reached Nibe City at all, but was still in Tokiwa City.

"The Joey in Viridian City is my sister, and I am her older sister Joey."

Miss Joy remained expressionless. She had seen many cases of mistaken identity, but she still explained it to Xiaozhi in case he made the same mistake again in other places.

"I heard about your situation, Xiao Feng. Don't worry, we will help you find that irresponsible father."

"Would you please wait a moment?"

Miss Joy looked at Xiao Feng and showed her kindness. After all, she also hated people like him. Finally, she took away Yu Feng and Xiao Zhi's trays and left first.

Xiaozhi didn't know what to do for a moment, and suddenly saw the promotional poster of the Quartz Conference pasted at the back.

"It's the Pokémon Regional Conference. I must attend."

Looking at the poster in front of him, Xiaozhi was filled with endless fighting spirit. He couldn't wait to challenge the Quartz Conference right away.

"Really? If you want to participate in the competition, you have to defeat gym trainers from several towns."

"You have to get the badge as proof. Xiao Feng, I'm not worried, but do you have any way to get it? (???)"

Misty came over and poured a basin of cold water on Satoshi, trying to extinguish his burning fighting spirit. But Maple was not worried, because that ridiculously large Shiny Gardevoir was enough to defeat many gyms, including Satoshi.

"of course."

Xiaozhi was not satisfied with what Xiaoxia said. How could she look down on others like that?

Just as the two were arguing, Wu Neng came over with a laugh.

"Are you planning to challenge Brock, the recognized Pokémon gym leader in Nibi City?"

Wu Neng came out from somewhere, crossed his arms and looked at the three people in front of him.

"Of course. Once Pikachu and the others have recovered their strength, take me to challenge Brock at the Pokémon Gym, okay?"

Xiaozhi put his hands on his chest, affirmed Wu Neng's answer and asked him to wait for Pikachu and the others to recover their strength before taking him to challenge Xiaogang.

"Hahaha, just you? I still trust the guy next to you. Hahaha."

Wu Neng's laughter was full of sarcasm. After all, he didn't look down on this young man for bringing an electric-type Pokémon to challenge a rock-type gym.

Wu Neng walked out of the Pokémon Center, leaving only his back to Xiaozhi.

"Damn it, Xiao Feng, that uncle is so contemptuous!"

Xiaozhi complained to Yu Feng while eating, asking who was that uncle and how could he speak to him like that.

"Do you really think you can win? Gym trainers are different from street trainers. They are very strong."

Misty said to Satoshi who was eating, after all, she was also a gym leader and was much more familiar with gym trainers than Satoshi.

"If you come to me for help, I can make an exception and help you."

Misty said these words to Satoshi, but who is Satoshi? He is the ultimate straight man.

"I don't need it."

Xiaozhi was concentrating on eating and didn't pay attention to Xiaoxia's suggestions.

"Really? Well, it's up to you. You can never beat Bakugo from Nibi City anyway."

Xiaoxia, who was mad at Xiaozhi, walked outside with her backpack on her back, not wanting to bother with Xiaozhi for the time being.

Xiaozhi didn't care about Xiaoxia's leaving, but he started to regret it after he saw the 1500 bill on the table.

"Hey! Xiaoxia, you haven't paid yet!"

"I'll just pay for it. It's not much."

Yu Feng stopped Xiaozhi who wanted to argue with Xiaoxia and said that he would pay the bill. After all, Xiaoxia meant well, but it was Xiaozhi, the idiot, who made him angry.
