Chapter 48 Xiaogang's Busy Day

"Sorry to have kept you waiting, Xiao Feng."

After Xiaogang had finally dealt with everything, he came to Yu Feng with a little apology. After all, it was he who invited Yu Feng to his home, but ended up making Xiao Feng wait here for so long. He felt really ashamed.

"Nothing, are you all ready?"

Yu Feng waved his hand to indicate that nothing was wrong. He had done a lot of waiting for people, and Xiaogang was much better than his procrastinating sister.

"It's all right, come with me."

Xiaogang made a gesture of invitation and took Xiaofeng towards his home. It was already dusk outside.

"Actually, I have a question that I don't know if I should ask or not."

In fact, Yu Feng has been holding this question in his mind for a long time. Although there are patches in the comics, it is just the content of the comics after all. What exactly caused the real Xiaogang to become like this?

"It's okay, go ahead."

At this time, Xiaogang was still very serious and didn't care about Yu Feng's rudeness.

"I've seen gyms in other regions, why yours?"

This is a lie. Yu Feng has never challenged gyms in other regions. All his impressions of other gyms come from anime and games.

"Are you wondering why it's so quiet?"

"It's mainly because I don't have money."

Xiao Gang didn't care about what Yu Feng said, because what he said was true. His gym was indeed very deserted, but the main reason was that he didn't have the money to invite so many people.

"But the gym can charge money for recruiting apprentices, right? And there can also be other part-time jobs, like the part-time water performance at the Hualan Gym."

"And the alliance doesn't pay you?"

Yu Feng thought about what Xiaogang said and found that it was not right. After all, apprentices need to pay to learn, and the alliance should also provide some help. Xiaogang's financial situation is not right.

"You are right, but my family's situation may be..."

Xiaogang knew that what Yu Feng said was right, but his family situation did not allow him to find a part-time job.

As they moved forward, they arrived at Xiaogang's home.

"You'll know when you come and take a look."

As Xiaogang opened the door, a bunch of little kids jumped out and entangled with him.

"Brother is back!"

"Yes, brother is back. Is Jiro taking good care of his younger brothers and sisters at home?"

Xiaogang stroked the heads of the nine little kids in front of him one by one and gently asked about their situations at home.

"I have taken good care of my younger brothers and sisters. Who is this sister, brother?"

The child called Jiro puffed out his chest and looked at his older brother with pride. He took good care of his younger siblings when his older brother was away.

But Jiro saw Yu Feng standing nearby and was curious about who she was and why she came back with his brother.

Before Xiaogang could answer, Sizi said, "I know, I know! This is the sister-in-law that my brother found to take care of us!"

"Brother finally got it!"

"Sister-in-law, sister-in-law!"

The brave little kid had already run up to Yu Feng and looked at him, wanting to see what their sister-in-law looked like.

"Yashi, Jiulang, Juzi, stop making a fuss. This is just my brother's friend."

Although Yu Feng didn't say anything, Xiao Gang couldn't help but speak. Although Yu Feng looked very much like a female, Xiao Gang's female radar didn't work, so Xiao Gang was still very serious.

"Little cutie, I'm a man."

Yu Feng pinched Shizi's little face. Looking at the nine faces in front of him that were almost identical to Xiaogang's, Yu Feng couldn't help but sigh at the power of martial arts genes.

You know, their mother Xiaomi is also a beauty. But it turns out that all ten brothers and sisters look almost the same as Wu Neng. This is really a strange thing.

"Hey, it's the older brother. I thought Xiaogang had finally come to his senses."

Although Shizi felt a little regretful that Yu Feng was not their future sister-in-law, she still liked this handsome older brother very much.

"Shizi! Don't talk nonsense."

Xiaogang was a little troubled. Could it be that his younger brothers and sisters were so concerned about his marriage?

"I was wondering what's wrong. If Brother Xiaogang can find a sister-in-law to take care of us, then he can pursue his dream."

Shizi made a face at Xiaogang, and then wanted Yu Feng to hug him.

Yu Feng also fulfilled the little girl's wish and picked her up from the ground.

The fourth, sixth and seventh sons looked at the tenth son who was held by Yu Feng with envy. Who wouldn't want to be held by a handsome big brother?

Xiaogang gave Yu Feng an apologetic look. After all, his younger brother and sister were indeed a little naughty.

"It's okay. It's normal for children to be a little naughty. As long as they are not naughty, they are still very cute."

Yu Feng didn't feel anything too bad. As long as the kid wasn't naughty, it wouldn't be a big problem. He waved his hand and went into the house with Xiaogang and the others.

Xiaogang sighed and walked into the house, then changed into an apron.

"Xiao Feng, please sit down for a while. I'll go cook for them."

After saying that, Xiaogang started washing his hands and cutting vegetables.

Outside....

Xiaozhi and Wu Neng walked to the outside of Xiaogang's courtyard and saw Xiaogang washing his hands and cooking, while Yu Feng was playing with Xiaogang's brothers and sisters.

"Brother, my skirt is torn."

Qizi came to Xiaogang with a torn skirt. Because the courtyard was small, Xiaozhi and the others could easily hear what was said inside the house.

"Okay, I'll help you sew it in a moment, okay?"

Xiaogang looked at his sister lovingly, turned around and got the sewing box to help Qizi sew a skirt.

Xiaozhi looked at Xiaogang in disbelief, then turned to look at Wu Neng as if he wanted to say something, but Wu Neng shook his head and motioned for him to continue reading.

They continued observing until late at night. After Yu Feng and Xiao Gang had finished exchanging their training experiences, Xiao Zhi and Wu Neng headed home.

"Xiaogang's image is completely ruined."

Xiaozhi kicked the stones on the road as he walked. He always felt that Xiaogang's image of being in control at home was completely different from that at the gym.

"Xiaogang has ten brothers and sisters to take care of, so he can't leave the city for the time being."

Wu Neng walked in front and spoke very calmly, as if this matter had nothing to do with him.

"What about Xiaogang's parents?"

Xiaozhi was a little confused. Where were Xiaogang's parents? And why were Xiaogang left to take care of his younger brothers and sisters alone?

"His father was very irresponsible. He said he wanted to become a Pokémon Master, but he never heard from him again after he left Nibi City."

"His mother ran away from home out of despair over her husband's irresponsibility, leaving Xiaogang as the only reliable person left."

The starlight from the sky shone on Wu Neng's body, making this very strong man look a little decadent.

"Don't tell me stories that shake my morale. How can I give my all next time I challenge him?"

Xiaozhi felt a little embarrassed because Wu Neng had said so much that he felt embarrassed to use his full strength next time he challenged Xiaogang.

"You still want to challenge him? You can't beat him no matter how strong your fighting spirit is."

Wu Neng seemed to have heard something incredible and stopped to stare at Xiaozhi.

Even now, this young man still says such things. This made Wu Neng feel a little emotional. This child is really like him in this respect.

"I will win! I will definitely win next time, as long as Pikachu can unleash his potential!"

For some reason, Xiaozhi suddenly became excited, as if he was hypnotizing himself.

"You really might have a way of reaching your potential."
