

Gardevoir 50

Chapter 50 Am I hallucinating?

Early the next morning, Xiaozhi arrived at the Nibi Gym.

"Is anyone here!"

Xiaozhi took a deep breath for a long time in front of the Nibe Gym, and finally pushed open the door of the Nibe Gym.

"You are here again, you fearless boy."

Brock has a very bad opinion of Ash. How can you beat Onix today if you couldn't beat it yesterday? Brock has always been disgusted by people who don't cherish Pokémon.

It just so happened that Xiaozhi violated his principle, so he spoke harshly to Xiaozhi.

"We are different today than we were yesterday!"

"mound!!"

Xiaozhi looked at Xiaogang with full confidence. The special training last night made him full of confidence. Pikachu also showed him his abundant power.

"It's really interesting. Come with me."

Xiaogang became slightly interested when he saw the man and Pikachu, who were obviously different from yesterday, and took them to the familiar venue.

"It's okay to only use two Pokémon, right?"

Before starting the battle, Xiaogang once again emphasized the rules of the challenge to Xiaozhi in case he was unaware of the situation. After receiving Xiaozhi's impatient answer, Xiaogang didn't say anything more.

"First up, Geodude! Go ahead!"

"It's decided to be you, Pidgeot!"

Ash and Brock threw the Poké Balls at the same time, and Geodude and Pidgeot appeared on the field.

"Do you think Smart wins?"

Yu Feng appeared beside Xiaoxia at some point and asked her what she thought about the game.

"Ha! Xiao Feng, how come you appear and disappear like a ghost?" Xiao Xia was frightened by the sudden appearance of Yu Feng. After finding out that it was an acquaintance, Xiao Xia patted her barren chest as if relieved and said to Yu Feng with some dissatisfaction: "Xiao Feng can scare people to death, but I still don't think much of Xiao Zhi."

Misty thought for a moment and expressed her opinion. After all, it was really difficult for Ash's ace Pikachu to defeat the Nibe Gym, and if nothing unexpected happened, Ash would still not be able to win.

Brock is not a weakling either. As of now, the Pidgeot in Ash's hands, as well as Caterpillar and Crotalis, are not suitable for fighting Brock.

"I think he will win, after all, he is the most unexpected person."

"I just can't see how he can win, unless there's a miracle."

Even if Pikachu is charged, it is impossible for it to cause much damage to Onix. Onix, on the other hand, can directly cause serious damage to Pikachu.

Unless something unexpected happens, such as Pikachu evolving or something, but Ash has only had Pikachu for a short time, how could it possibly evolve?

"Then let's wait and see."

Yu Feng smiled gently. After all, Xiaozhi was always able to come up with new ideas for him.

While they were talking, Pidgeot was being chased and beaten by Geodude on the field.

"You idiot, don't you know that Flying-type Pokémon are of little use against Rock-type Pokémon?"

Xiaogang frowned, feeling a little puzzled as to why he thought Xiaozhi had made progress. He thought he had made great progress.

"Xiaozhi is such a fool that he is hopeless."

Xiaoxia sighed, she really couldn't describe how she felt right now, but suddenly she found that there were a lot of Xiaogang around her.

"Do you want to give up the game again this time?"

Seeing Xiaozhi taking back the Pidgeot, Xiaogang crossed his arms and sneered. Did he really overestimate Xiaozhi?

"What? Go ahead, Pikachu!"

"Alas, it's this one again. It's really pitiful that you met the owner who doesn't know how to make good use of Pokémon."

Seeing Xiaozhi sending Pikachu again, Xiaogang felt powerless. He was beaten so badly by Onix last time, but he still hadn't learned his lesson.

Even if we defeat Geodude by chance, what good will it do? There's still Onix behind us.

"Listen Pikachu, you are not the same person you were yesterday."

"mound!!!"

Hearing Xiaozhi's encouragement, Pikachu released another electric shock. The golden lightning directly hit Geodude, charring him black and making him lose his ability to fight.

"This, this, this!"

Xiaoxia almost bit off her tongue. She looked at Yu Feng in astonishment and then at Xiaozhi on the field. She really couldn't understand how Pikachu could kill Geodude in an instant?

"Your Pokémon has improved a bit, but it's still no match for Onix!"

Xiaogang calmly took back the Geodude and didn't seem to be very surprised by the scene before him. He immediately threw Onix's Poké Ball out.

Onix appeared in front of Pikachu. Its expression was clearly saying, "Little brother, why are you here again?"

When Pikachu saw Onix, he took two steps back, obviously a little scared. But then he thought that he was no longer the same person he was yesterday, this was the complete him, the complete Pikachu!

Ahem, anyway, Pikachu seemed to have remembered the fear he felt when he was dominated by Onix that day, so he closed his eyes and released the electric shock again.

But because he closed his eyes, his aim was not very good and he only managed to break a few rocks and ignite the chandelier above his head. Onix slightly turned sideways to avoid Pikachu's electric shock.

Then he repeated the same trick and trapped Pikachu in his tail. The situation seemed no different from yesterday.

"Pikachu uses one hundred thousand volts!"

Xiaozhi saw it and felt sad, and could only hope that yesterday's special training was really useful.

Yesterday's special training seemed to have worked. Onix actually showed a painful expression after being electrocuted with 100,000 volts.

Unfortunately, Pikachu stopped discharging its power not long after, as if the power it had charged last night had been exhausted.

"Stop it, Onix."

Seeing that today seemed to be no different from the previous ones, Xiaozhi gritted his teeth and was about to give up like he did yesterday, but Xiaogang stopped Onix's next move first.

Onix put down Pikachu, who was temporarily unable to move, and looked quietly at Ash opposite him.

"Why did you call for a stop? You almost won."

"It's no use fighting any further. Your Pokémon doesn't stand a chance of winning."

Xiaozhi was a little confused as to why Xiaogang didn't take action when he was about to win.

Xiaogang saw it very clearly. Not to mention that Pikachu could not beat Onix at all, if it continued like this it would only cause more injuries to Pikachu.

The gym leader's job is to guide the trainers rather than defeat them, and besides, Brock loves Pokémon very much.

Unfortunately, they did not notice that the ceiling above was burning due to being hit by 100,000 volts, which directly triggered the gym's fire-fighting equipment.

A large amount of water gushed out from the fire hydrant, and Onix twisted restlessly in the water curtain formed by the fire hydrant, seeming to be very uncomfortable.

Pikachu also became energetic because of the sudden water flow.

"Now's the time, Ash! Rock-type Pokémon are the most afraid of water."

After hearing what Misty said, Ash also reacted and quickly commanded Pikachu to attack Onix.

The powerful electric current hit Onix like a thunder dragon, knocking him to the ground.
