Chapter 56 You Who Came From the Stars (Not)

"God? This is God?"

The man in the white coat looked at the huge Moon Stone in front of him with some disbelief. Can this thing also be called a god?

"I think Pippi and the others don't want anyone to ruin their lives."

Xiaoxia exclaimed as she looked at the sparkling Moon Stone in front of her and the Papis dancing around it.

"That's great, that's great!"

The man in the white coat pointed to the sky like crazy, and became excited as if he had seen through something: "The universe! Pokémon! And us humans, all three are connected by the Moon Stone!"

"Meow, I found you!"

The sound of meowing came from behind the man in the white coat who was feeling moved by himself, and at this time the inexplicable music started to sound again.

Everyone looked at Yu Feng, as if they wanted to see where he took out the radio from.

"Why are you looking at me? It's not me this time."

Seeing that even Team Rocket was staring at him, Yu Feng spread his hands to indicate that it was not the music he played this time.

"I will never give you the Moon Stone!"

The white coat suddenly became emotional and stood in front of Team Rocket.

Now it was Team Rocket's turn to be confused. Musashi looked at the excited man in front of him and asked in confusion: "Why is this man so excited?"

"This stone belongs to Pipi and the others. I will never let your evil plan succeed."

Even though the man in the white coat's legs were shaking like sieves, he still stood firmly in front of the Rockets.

"Do you think that's going to work?"

"Look, that leg is shaking all the time."

Team Rocket seemed to have heard some funny information and started to taunt the man in the white coat as he was shaking.

"What did you say!"

The man in the white coat was angered by their expressions, and suddenly rushed towards Team Rocket as if he was full of strength. Unfortunately, courage alone is definitely not enough for such a thing.

Miaomiao just stretched out a foot lightly and tripped the man in white coat to the ground. After the man in white coat got up, he found that the world was blurry. After a careful check, he found that his glasses had fallen somewhere.

"If you have any opinions, let's use Pokémon to decide the outcome!"

"Take the move!"

Sometimes I have to say that the Rockets, especially the team of Musashi and Kojiro, are really good! Most of the time they abide by the rules set by the league, while some people are not as reasonable as them.

“Boo boo boo boo!”

"You come on too, Onix!"

Xiaogang's Onix stood in front of Team Rocket like a wall of sighs.

The love ball on Yu Feng's neck suddenly exploded. The shining leader Gardevoir's eyes glowed red and he spoke in a voice that made people's scalps tingle. He stared at the Rocket Team opposite.

This was her first time seeing Team Rocket. In order to see the Team Rocket that accompanied her through her childhood, she had to give them an unforgettable exit.

"Being...big doesn't necessarily mean you'll win! Arbok burrows underground!"

"Gas bombs use smoke screens!"

Musashi felt a little guilty when he said this, after all, it was really annoying to be stared at by two such big creatures.

"Shauna!!!"

Seeing that the area was about to be covered by smoke, the super power of the flash leader Gardevoir instantly overflowed and controlled the spread of the smoke. Then the smoke continued to shrink to form a super small bead that fell to the ground.

"Ah, we got tricked!" Team Rocket disappeared without a trace after the smoke cleared. Turning around, they saw that the place where the Moonstone was was empty. Looking at the hole on the ground, Xiaozhi said indignantly, "They didn't really want to duel with us from the beginning!"

"The giant onix is chasing from underground..."

"Why bother?"

Xiao Gang just wanted to send Onix from underground to chase the fleeing Team Rocket, but was stopped by Yu Feng.

Yu Feng didn't know when he had a cup of black tea in his hand. He didn't know when he had brewed it or when he took it out.

"Bring them back."

Yu Feng glanced at his other self whose superpowers never stopped and was very calm. Although he did not take the initiative to contact the consciousness over there, he was still very clear about his own thoughts.

Yu Feng fell backwards. When Xiaozhi and the others were about to help him up, they saw the shining leader Gardevoir half-crouching with its hands on Yu Feng's back.

"Let us go!"

"Let us go meow!"

Musashi and the others were pulled back from outside the cave, and the huge Moon Stone was lifted out of the ground along with it.

"Okay, so strong."

The man in the white coat had picked up his glasses at some point and was looking at the huge Moon Stone that was lifted up by super powers with a look of shock.

They didn't know when the Papis had surrounded the members of Team Rocket and surrounded them tightly.

"Meow, we're surrounded."

Meow Meow always has a bad feeling when seeing these Papi's actions, but now they are bound by their super powers and can only wait and see what happens.

After surrounding Team Rocket, the Papis all stretched out their fingers and waved at them.

"What are they doing?"

"Is it a folk dance?"

Musashi and Kojiro looked at the movements of the Papis in great confusion. The movements of the Papis seemed to be possessed by some kind of magic. Even though their bodies were controlled by super powers, they couldn't help but shake along with the Papis.

Even Xiaozhi and the others began to sway to the rhythm of Pippi and the others. Yu Feng sat on the hand of the shining leader Gardevoir, drank black tea and shook his head, as if lamenting that their willpower was too low.

Who would have thought that the tea in his hand began to sway left and right, and his head was also slapped left and right by something unknown. When he turned around, he found that his mount, which was another self, also began to sway.

And what were slapping him were those two huge breasts. Yu Feng couldn't help but get hard when he saw this scene.

It's hard, my fist is hard!

"Sanae! (Why did you hit me suddenly? Be careful that your child will have no milk to eat!)"

The shining leader Gardevoir Leaf, who was awakened by Yu Feng's uppercut, also understood what he had done. He covered his slightly red face with his other hand, but did not stop talking.

"Even if I like my sister, it can't be you. Don't you feel disgusted?"

Yu Feng rubbed his arms when he heard her words. He felt goose bumps all over his body. When he heard what she said, he felt like something was crawling on his body.

"Sanae? (Me? I have no problem with that. I'm a woman and it's normal for me to like men!)"

Shiny Gardevoir seemed a little dissatisfied. What was wrong with her liking men? She just had a different way of thinking. What's more, apart from himself, she really didn't think that Yu Feng would let some males with ulterior motives approach her. She knew exactly what Yu Feng was thinking.

As the Pixies stopped swaying, a violent white light enveloped the two members of Team Rocket and one cat.

The ground beneath their feet cracked, and a huge pillar of fire shot up into the sky. The shining leader Gardevoir also released its control over Team Rocket.

"That's all for today!"

"Let you go!"

"I fly a lot today!"

"This is the second time it's flown again!"

Even though they were defeated, Team Rocket still held on. With some Moonstones being blown off into pieces and the Pixies being blown away, Team Rocket stood out and flew higher and farther, gradually turning into a bright star in the distance.
