

Gardevoir 60

Chapter 60 Did you put something weird there?

"Ah, I'm finally done."

"Ah, thanks."

After finishing all the work, Miss Junsha patted her stiff waist, thanked Yu Feng and took the tea in his hand.

Just after taking a sip, he suddenly realized the problem. Didn't she handcuff Yu Feng and himself together? When did he make the black tea?

"You didn't put anything weird there, did you?"

Miss Junsha looked at the gold-rimmed teacup in confusion. She was curious about where this thing came from.

"How could that be? It's just a cup of ordinary black tea."

Yu Feng let go of his cup, asked the butler to add some tea, and then looked at Miss Junsha seriously.

"Okay, but we have found out some things about your family."

Looking carefully at the teacup in her hand, Miss Junsha didn't see anything wrong.

Giving up observation, Junsha told him that they had found information about Yu Feng's family.

"Really?"

Yu Feng raised his eyebrows. He didn't have much hope at first. After all, his mother and aunts were too stubborn to reveal anything. But Miss Junsha actually said so, which meant that they must have found some useful information.

"Well, this matter is a bit secretive. Let's go to the bureau and find a place to talk about it."

Looking around, Miss Junsha indicated that this was not the place to talk. This matter was still related to the alliance and was not suitable to be discussed outside.

Seeing that Miss Junsha's serious expression did not seem fake, Yu Feng agreed to go to the police station with Miss Junsha.

Yu Feng had a wonderful feeling sitting in the police car. As a good young man who had never committed any crime, this was his first time sitting in a police car.

I always feel nervous, as if I have done something wrong.

As the police car whizzed past the Cerulean Gym, Yu Feng seemed to see his sister walking into the Cerulean Gym with Xiaozhi. Of course, this had nothing to do with him for the time being.

"We're here, come with me."

After getting off the car, Miss Junsha took Xiao Feng to the rest area in the police station and asked him to wait there while she went to the archives to retrieve the information she had investigated.

Yu Feng was not in a hurry for the past ten years, nor was he in a hurry for the present moment.

Miss Junsha returned from the archives room soon, placed a few documents in front of Yu Feng and began to explain: "According to our investigation, your life experience is related to a certain king of the Huaxia Alliance. We don't have enough power to investigate who it is."

"A certain king? I don't think so. How could a king be so desperate as to abandon his child?"

Yu Feng picked up the document Junsha gave him and read it carefully. After all, it was too outrageous to say that he was the son of a superstar.

"According to the marks on the Pokeballs of the Celestial Kings registered at the Pokemon Center, the marks on your individual Pokeballs are exclusive to a certain Celestial King, if you rule out the possibility that you picked up that Celestial King's Pokeball."

Miss Junsha remembered the shocked look on Miss Joy's face when she gave her this file. After all, it was the Poké Ball mark exclusive to the King.

"It's a pity that this is the Heavenly King Seal of the Huaxia region. We don't have the right to gather information. Junsha over there has to investigate."

Miss Junsha briefly explained to Yu Feng why they couldn't directly investigate which superstar it was, because this was the information of superstars from other regions. They only knew that the other party was a superstar, and the rest had to be investigated by the local Junsha and Joey.

"So that means I want to know who has to go to the Huaxia region?"

Yu Feng was a little surprised. Junsha and the others didn't know it, didn't he know it better? This Poké Ball was made by his mother. Since his mother could make it, it meant that she had a special relationship with that King, or even that King was the father of him and his sister.

But the question is, how could such a superstar make his mother go back to the forest when she gave birth, and he hasn't visited them for more than ten years.

Seeing how my mom often misses my dad, it's obvious that this isn't due to any relationship issues.

Then why hasn't he visited them for more than ten years, and hasn't even been to the forest once?

"Then I will go to the Huaxia area now."

Yu Feng hurriedly prepared to leave. The Quartz Conference would not be held anymore. How could it be more important than finding his father?

He also wanted to ask properly...and condemn his father for having captured his mother's heart.

"Don't worry. You can go to the Huaxia region after the Quartz Conference." Junsha signaled Yu Feng not to worry, and then explained the reason to him: "Even if you are really sure that the king is your father, you can't meet him directly. After all, he is a king."

"The Huaxia region is different from other regions. You can only receive your first elf at the age of fifteen, and you can choose to continue your studies or go on a trip at the age of eighteen."

"You were not able to directly participate in the Huaxia region's conference at your age, but on the contrary, as long as you have a record of participating in other regional conferences, you can sign up to participate."

"If you rank higher in the Quartz Conference, you can skip the preliminaries and enter the knockout rounds directly, which can save you a lot of trouble."

"After the sisters over there find out who the king is, you can choose to challenge that king and confront him on the spot after you win the Chinese regional conference."

After Miss Junsha's analysis, Yu Feng dispelled the idea of going there right away. After all, Miss Junsha was right. He would not be able to see the king if he went there now, and those kings would definitely not see a nobody like him.

As for super powers... no one really thinks that the king of heaven won't be able to guard against this, no way! No way!

"Then it seems that I can only challenge and finish the Quartz Conference first before going."

Yu Feng sighed and it seemed that he could only do as Miss Junsha said. It would be better to go to the Chinese Alliance with good results after challenging the Quartz Conference.

"We have collected this information for now. You can go to my sisters to ask about the progress later. They will tell you."

Miss Junsha packed up the documents she had read and prepared to send them back to the archives room later.

"Ahem, now let me ask you some personal questions."

Miss Junsha coughed, put on a smile on her face and looked around mysteriously.

"What kind of girls do you like, sexy ones? Cute ones? Or plump ones?"

Junsha was making some sexy or cute movements while she was talking, and at the end she gestured twice in front of her chest, which made Yu Feng almost unable to control his eyes.

"Ahem, I like them all, whether they are sexy or cute."

Looking at Miss Junsha's inquiring eyes, Yu Feng felt that he could not refuse her question. After thinking about the type he liked, he found out...

He actually likes them all! So he is very honest. Although he prefers Gardevoir, it doesn't mean that Gardevoir can't be sexy and cute.

"Yeah, ahem, so are you really ten years old?"

Miss Junsha quietly made a gesture that the plan was successful, and seeing Yu Feng's eyes, she still felt a little embarrassed and asked the question that concerned her most.

"Yes, I am exactly ten years old this year."

This is not something that cannot be discussed. After all, people have to be honest. It is not too much to say that he is only ten years old but has twenty years of combat experience!

After hearing Yu Feng's words, Miss Junsha, covered in gray, squatted in a corner and started drawing circles.