Chapter 61 Is it really necessary to find this father?

"Okay, I'm going to go buy some things."

When they reached a crossroads, Xiaogang and Xiaozhi decided to go shopping separately.

"What to buy?"

Xiaozhi was as silly as ever, and was quite curious about why Xiaogang was going to buy something without taking him with him.

"It's hard to finish one salt. I'm leaving first."

Time was a bit tight, so Xiaogang didn't explain everything to Xiaozhi. He left a sentence "It's hard to explain" and then headed towards the supermarket.

"Okay, that leaves us, Pikachu, oh and you, Shiny Kirlia."

Xiaozhi looked at the remaining Pikachu beside him and the Shiny Kirlia that followed behind, and made a cheering gesture.

Xiaozhi looked at the map and took Pikachu and Shiny Kirlia to find the Cerulean Gym.

Half an hour later....

"Cerulean Gym. Cerulean Gym. Where on earth is it?"

Xiaozhi looked at the map with a confused look on his face. He felt like he had been to this place several times.

"Chirrut! (Show it to me.)"

Shining Kiria looked at the street corner that she had turned back several times with a frown on her face. She didn't quite understand how someone could turn to this corner four times and still be able to turn back.

She looked at the map, then looked at the surrounding environment and pointed helplessly at the road on the right, where there was a building with a huge white sea lion painted on it.

Didn't they turn three times on this road without thinking of going back to take a look?

"Is that right there?"

Xiaozhi scratched his cheek as he looked at the building over there. After all, he had seen that building several times and thought it was some entertainment building.

Walking into the gym, it was obviously different from Xiaogang's gym where there was no one else. The stands were already full of spectators, all cheering as if something good was about to happen.

"Dear audience, sorry to have kept you waiting. The synchronized underwater ballet show by the three beautiful sisters in this city is about to begin!"

The broadcast sounded, explaining the current situation to Xiaozhi and the others.

As the broadcast voice faded, the surrounding lights dimmed, and two beams of light were aimed at the diving platform above the pool.

With cheers, the three Hualan sisters appeared above the diving platform at some point.

With the cheers of the crowd, the three of them jumped into the water and began a graceful underwater ballet.

They performed graceful dance moves to the music, and then it seemed to be the most exciting part, when the three of them dived into the water, revealing their long white legs.

The cheers in the gym were deafening; this seemed to be the boys' favorite.

"That's weird. I heard the Pokémon Gym is right here, right?"

Xiaozhi scratched his head in confusion, and looked at Shiny Kirlia who brought them here, wanting to ask her if she knew what was going on here.

Shiny Kirlia gave him a look and told him to figure it out for himself, then walked away with a frown on his face from the Pikachu who was staring at the ballet in the water with a mysterious glow in his eyes.

"What the hell is going on with this place?"

Xiaozhi walked up the stairs in the gym with his arms folded and a confused look on his face. He remembered correctly that this was indeed a gym, so why was there a performance?

"Chirrut?"

Shining Kirlia pointed at the three people walking towards the front. Aren't these the three people who were dancing ballet in the water just now?

"Sister Sakura, this dress suits you so well."

Acorus wiped the water stains from her long blue hair and happily discussed today's performance with her sister.

"This means our training has not been in vain."

Sakura with golden hair also looked at her sisters with a smile. The performance was a great success, which meant that their training was not in vain.

"That's right!"

The pink-haired Peony happily agreed with her sisters.

Several people laughed like silver bells, seeming to be happy about the great success of the performance.

"Excuse me..."

Xiaozhi saw several people running forward happily. Just when he was about to ask what was going on here, Mudan interrupted him.

"What can I do for you? If you want an interview, you must go through your agent first."

"No..."

Before Xiaozhi could finish his words, Mudan, who had misunderstood Xiaozhi's meaning, spoke again.

"You can't sign it, either."

Shining Kirlia slapped his forehead, this guy was being played around by someone.

"That's not the case. Someone told me this is a Pokémon Gym so..."

Xiaozhi finally asked his question, and before he could finish, Sakura acknowledged it.

"Then where is the gym's trainer?"

Hearing this, Xiaozhi suddenly became excited. Since this is a gym, then there is no problem. He is here to challenge the gym.

Shining Kiria didn't know how many times she had been speechless. She really didn't know how her brother could tolerate such a stupid person like him. These super-powered elves could think of many problems in one second.

Almost the moment Acorus admitted it, she knew that the three people in front of her were the gym trainers here, and sure enough, Mudan later proved her point.

"Don't you understand yet?"

Mudan didn't know what to say. Normally, the trainer opposite her should understand what she was saying.

"The three of us are the trainers here."

At some point a sparkling light screen appeared behind the three of them, and Sakura hugged her chest and spoke.

"We are the three beautiful sisters of Hualan."

Mudan held her chin with one hand and spoke confidently.

"We are so famous."

Chang Pu didn't expect that there were still people who didn't know them, even though their performances were very famous.

"Ah, so the underwater ballet just now..."

Xiaozhi had no idea what he was thinking about as he looked at Acorus and the other two in front of him with a look of shock. Could it be that the challenge of the competition was to do underwater ballet with the three of them?

Shiny Kirlia had already guessed what Xiaozhi was thinking, so he thought about it for a while and then silently walked to the side and hit the wall next to him, trying to make himself forget the picture he had just thought of.

"That's just a hobby, so as not to waste our beauty."

When Mudan saw Xiaozhi's expression, she knew that he was not expecting anything good, so she explained helplessly.

"Yes, beauties are most beautiful when they are playing in the water."

Acorus also put on a shy expression.

"Hahahaha"

No one knew what the three sisters were thinking of, and their expressions became very funny as they laughed.

This made Shining Kirlia have an idea. Is this Cerulean Gym really a proper gym? If all humans are like this, won't my brother become stupid? Should I really look for my father? I'm afraid my father is the same as the three Cerulean sisters.

"Anyway, come with us first, and we'll talk about the challenge once we get there."

After laughing enough, Sakura motioned for Xiaozhi to follow them to the place where they would meet the challengers and then talk about other things, after all, they were very busy.
