

Gardevoir 64

Chapter 64 I knew it!

"Chirrut (Illusion ray sends it down!)"

Shining Kirlia waved her hand and directed Shining Fan Blim to use the most powerful skill she had learned so far.

Of course, if she could see the front, she would definitely find that Shining-fan Brilliant was looking at her speechlessly. She was so excited that she really thought she was a trainer.

But for Xiaofeng's badge, a colorful light appeared in front of Miblim and hit the paralyzed Starfish at an extremely fast speed.

"Starfish!"

Xiaoxia anxiously looked at the thick smoke and dust rising from where Hai Xingxing was. It could be said that her Hai Xingxing was in real danger this time.

Sure enough, the ruby in the middle of the sea star that appeared again began to flash, indicating that it had no more strength.

"Chirrut! (Great! I defeated the first one. It turns out being a trainer is so cool!)"

Shiny Kirlia jumped up happily on the spot. This feeling was completely different from defeating the opponent by himself. No wonder the old man wanted to be a Pokémon trainer so much.

"Come back, Starfish."

"Look at my jeweled starfish!"

Xiaoxia held the Poké Ball in her hand, and the red light hit Starfish. She put it back into the Poké Ball, said thank you for its hard work, and took out another Poké Ball.

The gray Gem Starfish emerged from the Poké Ball in high spirits. How should I put it? The Gem Starfish looked like two Starfish stuck together with different colors.

"Chirrut! (Magic Leaf!)"

Shiny Kirlia is really getting more and more into the role of a trainer. The moment Starfish came on the field, he directed Shiny Blim to use the Magic Leaf.

Countless leaves attacked the Gem Star, but the Gem Star did not receive Misty's command and so stood still and took the damage from the magic leaves.

"Gem Starfish! Dive into the water first!"

Looking at the Gem Starfish who was taking damage from the magic leaf, Xiaoxia could only order him to dive into the water to avoid damage.

The Gem Starfish, which had dived into the water to avoid damage from the magic leaves, instantly jumped out of the water and spun towards the standing Glitter Blim. The magic leaves that were close to it were blocked by its high-speed rotation.

"Chirrut! (Can it be used like this?)"

Seeing the Gem Starfish Flash spinning and directly deflecting the magic leaf, Kirlia was a little dumbfounded. Can this skill still be used like this? Then she could use Shadow Ball and then teleport to hit the target, and then teleport back.

The more I think about it, the more reasonable and abominable it becomes!

While Shiny Kirlia was stunned, the Jewel Star had already hit Shiny Blim who was waiting for instructions.

After being hit, Flash Fan Brim screamed in pain and flew backwards, barely grabbing the edge of the platform.

“Mmm! Mmm!”

Shining fan Blim turned around and accused the dazed Shining Kirlia, asking him to give orders properly if he wanted to, why did he end up with half of the people gone.

"Chirrut. (Sorry, sorry, I was thinking about something just now. Use telekinesis to control it!)"

Seeing that the Gem Starfish wanted to use the same trick again, she quickly asked Glitter Blim to control its actions with telekinesis. It's fun but she must not really lose.

The jewel starfish was fixed in the air by telekinesis, and it was in vain to break free.

"Chirrut. (Give him the final blow! Vision ray!)"

Shining Kirlia imitated what her brother liked to say in her memory, pointed at Jewel Star and gave the order to kill Shining Blim.

Flash-loving Blim felt like there was a knot in her chest and she didn't know how to express it. After much thought, she released her illusion beam to the jewel starfish in front of her.

The phantom light was like a sharp arrow, shooting at the Gem Starfish and knocking it directly onto the door behind it. The ruby above the Starfish was flashing, meaning that he no longer had any extra strength to fight.

After putting the Gemstar back into the Poké Ball, Misty walked up to Shiny Kirlia with a rather unhappy look on her face. Don't get me wrong, she was not angry, but it was really embarrassing to be shut out.

Moreover, he was defeated by a Pokémon commanded by a Pokémon, and that Pokémon was in its initial form. This is extremely embarrassing.

Xiaoxia sorted herself out and took out a blue badge from her pocket and handed it to Shining Kirlia: "I knew it would be like this. This is a blue badge. Congratulations."

Of course, Xiaoxia felt much more relaxed after giving it to him. After all, Yu Feng himself could easily get the badge, so it was not unacceptable.

Her main enemy is Satoshi, but after fighting against Shiny Kirlia, she is temporarily unable to defeat him.

Just as she was about to tell Xiaozhi that their battle was going to be postponed, Shiny Kirlia stopped her action.

"what happened?"

Xiaoxia looked at her with some confusion, wondering why he suddenly stopped her.

As if seeing through Misty's thoughts, Shiny Kirlia signaled her to release the Pokémon.

"You want me to release the jewel starfish?"

Looking at Shiny Kirlia's actions, he was a little confused. After all, Starfish and the others had no strength left. It would be better to let them rest in the Poké Ball instead of releasing them now.

"Chirrut. (Just let it out.)"

Shining Kirlia rarely interacts with others. After all, using her superpowers to translate things will more or less intrude into other people's privacy.

Now she just wanted to take a good look at the first badge she got. If she didn't want them to deal with it quickly, she would not be willing to translate.

"You can talk, right? I'll just listen to you."

Before Misty could say anything, she saw Shining Kirlia glaring at her, so she had to release Jewel Starfish and Starfish.

"Ding~ding~ding~"

The released Starfish and Gemstar were in a very weak state, and the red gems on their chests kept flashing. Even though Flash Kirlia had managed to minimize their injuries, the consumption of their physical strength was still inevitable.

In front of them, Shining Kirlia put her hands in front of her chest and poured a green liquid on the jewel starfish.

The gem on the Gem Starfish's chest no longer sounded the alarm after coming into contact with the liquid, and it also felt better.

Seeing that the effect of the Life Drop was good, Shiny Kirlia cast a Healing Wave.

Now the Gemstars have almost recovered to their peak, so they should have no problem fighting against Ash at least.

"This, this, this..."

Xiaoxia looked at Starfish and Gemstar who had recovered their spirits with a look of shock. What kind of skill could actually restore the state of the Pokémon?

But Xiaoxia didn't need to worry about that. She looked at Xiaozhi with fighting spirit and said, "Xiaozhi, how dare you come? My Starfish has already been through a battle."

"What are you afraid of? Just wait for me!"

Xiaozhi was also very excited. He originally thought that his battle would have to be postponed, but he didn't expect that Yu Feng's Pokémon had this trick.

Xiaozhi is not like Xiaoxia and Xiaogang, who can easily fall from a height of three or four meters. He can only run down quickly through the passage next to him.