Chapter 65 My badge!

"I really don't want to fight you until you compensate me for my bicycle, but I have no choice."

"If you want to get the blue badge you have to defeat me first!"

Although Misty is full of fighting spirit, that is her motivation to stop Satoshi from obtaining the blue badge.

"Come on if you want to fight! Pikachu, let her see how powerful we are!"

"Hill~↓"

Xiaozhi was so excited that he couldn't wait to get the blue badge, so he didn't notice that Pikachu was in a strange state.

He seemed very reluctant, but unfortunately, Xiaozhi's mind was filled with the blue badge.

"Great! What about the number of Pokémon!"

"How about a two-to-two tie!"

Although he is already familiar with the process of the challenge, Xiaozhi still wants to ask Xiaoxia about the rules.

"No problem! Then the top player is Pikachu!"

Xiaozhi picked up the Pikachu next to him and was about to throw it onto the field.

This action made Shining Kirlia, who was watching the blue badge in his hand becoming more and more beautiful, look up to him. He thought this guy could only use electric-type attacks on the ground, but he didn't expect that he could use electric-type attacks on water-type attacks!

Pikachu didn't follow Xiaozhi's intention and held Xiaozhi's fingers tightly and refused to let go.

"Pikachu, what's wrong with you? Come on!"

"Hum! Hum."

Xiaozhi was very angry about Pikachu's avoidance of the battle, but saw Pikachu pointing at the opposite side with an unwilling look on his face, as if saying something.

"What's wrong? Don't you want to fight against Xiaoxia?"

"Pikachu."

Xiaozhi felt a little troubled as he looked at Pikachu who nodded. It was unexpected that such a thing could happen when they had developed feelings for each other.

"Pikachu! Good boy!"

Misty was very happy. After all, her chances of winning would be much greater if it wasn't an electric-type Pokémon. Pikachu also became more energetic after hearing Misty's encouragement.

In the current situation, Xiaozhi doesn't have much of a solution. What else can he do with his Pokémon? He can only pamper it.

What followed was the stage where Ash and Misty were fighting each other. Butterfree's hypnotic powder and paralysis powder were swept away by Starfish with water stream.

Pikachu also clapped happily, but was asked by Xiaozhi who he was supporting to die.

"Xiaoxia is really good at it."

"That's right. It's true that if you lose some beauty, you gain some talent."

The three Hualan sisters who were watching the battle on the shore expressed their opinions.

Butterfree is in a very bad situation on the field. Starfish's attack is very fierce, and its purpose is to drive him into the water.

For Starfish, you can succeed countless times but can only fail once. Butterfree that enters the water is like a grasshopper in autumn.

As the saying goes, the best defense is offense. However, Butterfree was still knocked directly into the water by Starfish, where it flapped its wings continuously.

Xiaozhi decisively took back Butterfree and replaced it with Pidgeot, while Misty also replaced it with Starfish to start a new round of fighting between the two noobs.

The jewel starfish flew up from the water and was fanned down by the Pidgeot's wing, and then flew up again and was fanned back by another wing.

Just when Xiaozhi was about to put an end to Starjewel, the wall of the Cerulean Gym was suddenly destroyed, and a strange-looking machine drove out from the middle of the wall.

"How could this happen? It's disgusting!"

"What the hell is that!"

Sakura and Ayame must be very angry about the destruction of the Cerulean Gym, after all, this is their home! Xiaozhi and Xiaoxia also finished their battle and quickly came to them.

Shining Kirlia also found a place to keep the blue badge to prevent it from being damaged in the battle later.

"Since you are not ashamed to ask."

"We will be merciful and tell you."

Musashi and Kojiro slowly rose from the center of the machine, with their classic lines still in their mouths.

"Pokémon near water become stronger when they touch water."

"So, if the water is pumped out."

"There are many Pokémon whose abilities have been greatly reduced."

"Suck up all the water! Meow!"

The three members of Team Rocket were kind enough to explain their purpose to Xiaozhi and his group on the opposite side.

"What did you say?"

Sakura felt a little unbelievable after hearing this. Do these people know what they are talking about? They want to suck the water out of their Hualan Gym with this weird-looking machine? What a joke!

Before they could wonder how it was done, a thick water pipe suddenly extended from the back of the machine, inserted straight into the water and began to vigorously suck water from the battlefield.

"A big engine and a really big hose, and that robbed store! No wonder they stole those two things."

Xiaozhi looked at the machine and realized that it looked very familiar. This was the store they saw being robbed in the morning!

"The water has been....Stop it now!"

"Stop it, you hear me!"

Xiaoxia and the others were not worried about any damage. What they were worried about was the water in their battlefield. The loss of this water was much higher than the cost of building this wall.

"Watch my reverse jet attack, meow!"

Meowth seemed speechless at their threats. It pulled a lever and the water that had been sucked in turned into a thick water gun and sprayed towards Satoshi and the others.

"Ah, the beauty is wet!"

Xiaoxia would maintain her beauty even if she was washed away by the water.

"Don't steal the beautiful woman's lines!"

Her elder sister Acorus didn't give her any face at all and would refute her younger sister even if she was washed away by the water.

"Okay! Suck them all up now! Meow."

Meow Meow saw that it was almost time, so he pushed the lever back again. The water pipe that had been spraying water began to absorb the water in the venue again, sucking in the little sea lion that was caught in the middle.

Pikachu, who was lucky enough not to fall into the pool, was also thrown into the pool by a sudden wave.

"Chirrut! (My badge!)"

Shining Kirlia noticed a flashing badge in the water being sucked into the machine, and immediately felt something was wrong. When he touched his body, he found that the badge was taken away by the sudden water flow.

"By the way, water conducts electricity."

Suddenly, Satoshi's mumbling was heard beside Shining Kirliao. Shining Kirliao's pupils shrank and she looked at Satoshi in shock.

When did this guy finally get the hang of it? No, my badge is still in there!

Just as Shiny Kirlia was about to stop him, Ash shouted, "Pikachu, use 100,000 volts!"

Pikachu was also excited when he heard Xiaozhi's words, and instantly released 100,000 volts. The golden electric current spread along the water flow to the strange machine of Team Rocket.

I gave them the latest smoky makeup.

"Numb...Numb...Numb!"

The electrocuted Team Rocket trio fell directly into the water and were sucked towards the center by their machine.
