

Gardevoir 67

Chapter 67: Do you want to practice with me?

"After getting two badges, Xiaozhi even walks proudly! Where is his next destination?"

"Where do you think it is?"

Xiaozhi, who was leading the group in front, turned around dejectedly and looked at Yu Feng who was reciting the narration again, smiling with an embarrassed look on his face.

"Xiao Feng, you started again. But I think we can go to Vermilion Leaf City this time and take a look at the luxury liner St. Anne."

"Guaranteed worth the money!"

Misty is still obsessed with her St. Anne cruise ship, and had suggested to Satoshi that he go there, but Satoshi is too stubborn to go.

"We're not on a sightseeing trip!"

Xiaozhi put his hands on his hips and looked at Xiaoxia helplessly. They were not sightseeing but a gym challenge.

"I remember there was a gym in Vermilion City, right?"

Yu Feng said with some uncertainty that his memory of Kanto was too vague. Of course it was definitely not because he was now hiding from the death gaze of the shining boss Gardevoir.

I said I would let her out to get some fresh air, but I forgot about it. Well, that's definitely not the case!

"Yes, there is a gym in Vermilion City."

Xiaogang also confirmed Yu Feng's statement that there is indeed a gym in Vermilion Leaf City.

"Really? Then we can get the third badge! Let's go!"

When Xiaozhi mentioned that there was a gym in Vermilion City, he became excited. After all, the goal was to have a gym, so why go there if there wasn't one?

"Wait a moment, there are a lot of trainers nearby!"

Misty reminded Ash that there were many trainers along the way who wanted to challenge him.

"That's what I want even more! I will defeat all of these people."

Are you kidding me? Who is Xiaozhi? Anyone who challenges him will be in trouble for the rest of his life.

As Xiaozhi ran forward, he looked obviously very confident!

Pidgeot knocked a little Rattata to the ground, and the child opposite looked very sad.

"We won! Ten consecutive wins!"

Xiaozhi looked so excited that he had no idea how weak his opponent was.

"You are so amazing that I am convinced."

The kid opposite shook hands with Xiaozhi and expressed his admiration for his strength.

"Nothing, this is just the difference in basic levels!"

As Xiaozhi spoke, he opened his coat, and two badges were shining brightly in the middle.

"That badge is..."

The little boy looked at the badge on Xiaozhi's clothes in shock.

"You saw me!"

Xiaozhi kept pulling open his clothes and looked at the child opposite with a smug look on his face.

"Obviously, it was given to him because others sympathized with him."

Xiaoxia looked at Xiaozhi who was showing off with a helpless look on her face. She really didn't know what there was to show off.

"Pika Pichu!"

Pikachu also spread his hands helplessly to express his helplessness.

"So why is no one challenging me?"

Yu Feng was itching to fight, he also wanted to fight with others, but Charmander from the Cerulean Gym didn't even appear.

As soon as Yu Feng said this, everyone, including Xiaozhi's opponents, looked at him as if to ask why he spoke so outrageously.

Look at the shining boss Gardevoir rubbing his hands behind you, and then look into my eyes. Do you seriously say that I can fight with you?

In Kanto, at least for now, big means strong. If your size is almost as big as Onix, who would dare to challenge you?

"Maybe you can defeat Xiao Ming!"

"He built a personal gym right in front. He's a trainer known as Beast Master Xiao Ming."

The little boy pointed to the road behind and looked at Xiaozhi with some excitement.

"Xiao Ming?"

Xiaozhi was a little confused. Who is this Xiao Ming?

"I heard that he has never lost a fight so far."

The little boy was a little excited. After all, Xiao Ming was someone he could never reach.

"I am unstoppable now."

Xiaozhi closed his eyes and shook his finger, looking very confident.

"How dare he say that!"

Xiaoxia looked at Xiaozhi with a confident look in her eyes with cold sweat.

"It's good to have confidence, but he was a little too confident."

Yu Feng also continued to dodge Shiny Gardevoir's death gaze with a cold sweat on his face. He felt that if he continued like this, his reputation would be ruined.

"People are often in the most dangerous state!"

Xiaogang also agreed with what Yu Feng and Xiaoxia said. It seemed that Xiaozhi was a little too confident now.

"How about practicing with me? Shiny Gardevoir is already rubbing her hands with excitement."

Yu Feng pointed at the shining Gardevoir that was burning behind him. After all, he hadn't let her fight for a long time, and now he was itching to do it.

Shiny Gardevoir looked at Xiaogang, whose face was full of rejection. He still had the psychological trauma of having his Onix's horn broken last time.

Then he glanced at Xiaoxia, who turned her eyes away guiltily. What the hell was this? There was no way she could fight him with her telekinesis.

Looking at Xiaozhi, Xiaozhi was also looking around. He was not a fool who couldn't tell who was strong and who was weak. It was enough to abuse them once, so why did he rush to be abused?

Xiaozhi and the other two quickly walked in the direction that the kid had pointed. Whoever wanted to fight could do so, but they wouldn't.

"An unofficial gym of the Pokémon League? This person really wants to attract attention!"

Looking at the sign above, Xiaozhi's face was full of excitement.

"98 consecutive wins. He's an undefeated general, but you've only won ten games in a row."

Misty's expression turned teasing, after all, Satoshi knew everything.

"I will never lose to him!"

This really aroused Xiaozhi's competitive spirit. How could he lose to others!

"Who lost to me before?"

Yu Feng, who had just caught up, thought he was talking about himself and replied casually, choking Xiao Zhi and being speechless.

It's a pity that what I was talking about was heard by the person who said it. Oh, Xiaozhi was not talking nonsense but was serious, at least he really thought so.

A strange voice came from the side: "Do you want to compete?"

"It seems you heard the rumors about me from the local trainers. Well, come in first."

A man who looked very much like a Saiyan came over and looked at Xiaozhi provocatively.

However, he also realized that it was not a good idea to entertain guests in such a place, so he opened his door and invited Xiaozhi and the others in.

"Are you making all this by hand? It looks real!"

Xiaoxia was shocked when she saw the venue in front of her which seemed to be a replica of a regular gym. It looked like it was taken out from a gym.

A Butterfree flew from a distance and took Xiao Ming's backpack away.

"What was that backpack just now?"

Xiaozhi was more curious about what was in the backpack. Of course, if Xiaoming didn't want to tell him, he wouldn't ask.

"I caught Pokémon with these Poké Balls. There are still plenty in the tent."

Xiao Ming did not hide it. After all, it was not something worth hiding.

"Ah, can you lend it to me for a moment?"

Xiaozhi became excited when he heard about Pokémon and wanted to see those Pokémon later.

"OK, alright."

Xiao Ming walked onto the self-made ring and looked down with a provocative look on his face.
