

Gardevoir 72

Chapter 72: Still Need to Mature

"Ah? Ah! Ah~ Pikachu!"

Xiaozhi was horrified when he saw Pikachu curled up into a ball. He felt around Pikachu's body and tried to bend it back, but he only heard the sound of a spring.

"Ah, I can't do it anymore."

Xiaozhi was breathing heavily. He didn't have much strength after the battle with Xiao Ming. Although he wouldn't be able to open it even if there was no battle.

"Okay, let me do it."

Xiao Ming felt sorry for his own tools when he saw Xiao Zhi, who didn't know how to use the tools and could only use brute force.

After he took Pikachu, he skillfully unlocked the device, and Pikachu escaped from the device in an instant.

Xiaozhi hugged Pikachu happily, luckily nothing happened to him.

"Pikachu, have you seen my Sandshrew?"

Xiao Ming was still more concerned about where his Sandshrew was, and couldn't wait to ask Pikachu about his whereabouts.

"Pica~"

Pikachu shook his head, indicating that he had no idea where the Sandshrew had gone. Trapped in this device, it was difficult for him to even breathe, let alone observe the free Sandshrew.

"Is it?"

"Sandrat, where are you?"

After receiving the news from Pikachu, Xiao Ming was obviously a little disappointed, but he did not give up and continued to call Sandshrew.

"He escaped."

On the contrary, Xiaozhi looked at Xiaoming with a smug look on his face. After all, now that Sandshrew is gone, doesn't it just mean that Sandshrew doesn't like Xiaoming's training method?

"That is impossible!"

"You bullied him so much, it's only natural that you would run away."

Xiaozhi had a smug look on his face at the moment. He looked at Xiao Ming with a mocking expression, as if he was very sure that the Sandshrew ran away because it couldn't stand Xiao Ming's training.

"You don't know my sandrat at all, shut up!"

Xiao Ming didn't want to talk to this person who didn't understand the bond between him and Sandshrew.

Seeing this, Yu Feng, who was about to say that he knew where the sandrat was, silently put down his hand and stood aside to eat the melon with Xiaoxia and Xiaogang.

"Of course I understand. Your Sandshrew must have seen me and Pikachu."

"And I thought to myself, maybe other trainers will love him more."

Xiaozhi looked at Xiao Ming with an expression of "I understand everything". After all, at this point, it was obvious that Sandshrew couldn't stand Xiao Ming's uncomfortable training method so he ran away.

"He's about to win 100 games in a row. He won't run away at this moment. I know him best!"

Xiao Ming shouted loudly in the ears of Xiaozhi and Pikachu, as if he wanted to vent his dissatisfaction, and Xiaozhi and Pikachu were also frightened by Xiao Ming's roar and their faces changed slightly.

"Everyone, listen up! Let's go and find the Sandshrew!"

Xiao Ming immediately mobilized his Pokémon to look for Sandshrew.

"I think everyone actually hates trainers like Xiao Ming. If you want to be the strongest Pokémon, come with me."

"Okay, now if you want to come with me, Pokémon, please raise your hands!"

Xiaozhi encouraged Xiaoming's Pokémon to leave this torturous place, but unfortunately, all his Pokémon, including Xiaoming, ignored Xiaozhi.

"Why? Why isn't there any Pokémon coming with me?"

Xiaozhi was still very confused as to why Xiaoming tortured them so much and why they were unwilling to go with him.

"This idiot has forgotten who he is again."

Xiaoxia is very clear about Xiaozhi's situation of being carried away by everything, and a similar situation has occurred during this period.

"Want some?"

Yu Feng sat on the red ball and came to Xiaoxia and handed her a piece of cake.

"Thank you, but what is this ball of yours?"

Xiaoxia has been very concerned about this since just now. When did Xiaofeng get this ugly mount? It is totally unworthy of his appearance.

Moreover, this ball with four legs looks weird no matter how you look at it, especially these four legs look so familiar.

"Team Rocket, I sneaked in when Xiaozhi and Xiaoming were fighting just now, caught the Sandshrew and ran away. Now I'm controlling him with an illusion."

Yu Feng patted the big red ball under his feet and explained the origin of the ball. He also patted it again, causing Kojiro to cry out in pain.

"Does that mean the sandrat is in here?"

Xiaogang also opened his eyes wide and looked at the huge red ball, as if he was curious about why Xiaofeng did this.

"Just teaching Xiaozhi a lesson. He is too confident. Of course, it's not that confidence is not a good thing, but he is so overconfident that he doesn't know how to train Pokémon on a daily basis."

Yu Feng waved his hand and looked at Xiaozhi. He was not Xiaozhi's babysitter. He would leave the team after finding a travel companion in Jinhuang City.

If Ash had maintained this kind of self-confidence and not trained Pokémon, he might not have been able to get through the various theatrical plots and dangerous situations that followed.

The more recent one is Mewtwo's counterattack. How could Ash really punch Mewtwo's shield? This is hilarious.

Besides, most of the problems that Xiaozhi and his friends encountered on the road were caused by Xiaozhi's recklessness.

"That's true. If he doesn't change his reckless personality, he might end up having to retire from this competition."

Xiaogang also nodded. He had seen that Xiaozhi was a reckless person, who often rushed out in a fit of passion.

And if the trainer can't keep up with the level of the Pokémon, it might not obey the trainer's orders.

"As a trainer, you can't compare to me! There's just too much difference in strength!"

Xiao Ming and Xiao Zhi are still as incompatible as they were at the beginning. Xiao Ming expressed doubts about Xiao Zhi's command. After all, how could he have the nerve to say that there was something wrong with him when he just lost to him?

"You're still stubborn even after losing!"

Xiaozhi looked at Xiaoming calmly with a very sarcastic look. After all, the fact that Sandshrew was missing was in front of him.

"It's now!"

Yu Feng snapped his fingers, and the Sandshrew teleported to a specially opened cave below them. The Sandshrew crawled out of the cave with a look of horror on its face, knocked Xiaozhi unconscious, and fell into Xiaoming's arms.

"Mountain rat!"

Xiao Ming hugged the lost mole tightly, and his companions around him also came to congratulate the mole on its return, looking very happy.

"They all think he's great."

Xiaozhi didn't quite understand why these Pokémon felt like torturing them, Xiaoming, all day long.

"It's because everyone likes Xiao Ming, so they will endure the strict training."

Xiaogang came up from behind and explained to Xiaozhi why these Pokémon liked Xiaoming so much.

"So, you have to train with Pikachu and the others, too. Not to mention half of mine, at least one-fifth of them."

Yu Feng also came up from the back sitting on the red ball and talked and taught Xiaozhi.