Chapter 76 I am more than the one who has 2 badges

"The entry-level qualification is equivalent to having two badges, which is roughly equivalent to having four badges. Advanced and graduated people can directly participate in the Quartz Conference even if they don't travel around to kick gyms to get badges."

"That man is also a beginner, but he is too old, so no one is willing to give him the Whip of Love."

When Xiaochun heard Xiaozhi's question, he explained to him the differences between the various levels. Of course, the main point is that graduation is equivalent to challenging the levels of eight gyms.

"So it's a joke to think that you can be on par with those who have obtained eight badges. If someone who has traveled to other regions or is a super abnormal person comes here, he will be beaten like a baby."

Yu Feng's natural contempt for those who only learn written knowledge and don't care about actual combat at all may be because he grew up in the forest and could not survive without actual combat (this is a lie).

"Xiao Feng, you can't say that. By the way, does your teacher recognize your special training in love?"

Xiaoxia told Yu Feng not to talk nonsense, after all, this was in someone else's school. However, Xiaoxia looked at Xiaochun curiously, she was curious if the teachers knew about this.

"They didn't admit it, and even if they knew, they would pretend not to know."

Xiao Chun knew very well what these teachers were thinking. After all, whether or not he could get promoted had little to do with them, and they might not dare to offend these students.

"Whether you call it special training or the whip of love, it's just an excuse to bully the weak."

Xiaozhi's feelings are sometimes very accurate, but, sometimes, even if you see through something, there is no way to solve it. What can you do when someone says they are doing it for your own good?

"Tell us who your special training boss is."

But Xiaozhi is a man of action. In his opinion, it is better to have a good talk with these bullies (physics) instead of accepting it.

After hearing what Xiaozhi said, Xiaochun took out a photo from his pocket. In the photo was a girl with long black hair but a rather unpleasant figure.

"That's just the way it is. Not as good as my...sister."

Yu Feng looked back at the Shiny Gardevoir and confirmed that his eyes were still bigger.

"It's a girl."

Xiaoxia was a little surprised that the person who came up with this method of torture was actually a girl.

"And she's so cute!"

"She'll be a great beauty in eight years."

Although Xiaoxia didn't react much, the other two boys were different. The girl in the photo could actually make Xiaozhi, a straight man, blush.

Xiaogang even said with a silly look on his face that this girl would definitely be a great beauty in eight years.

"Wait a minute, why are you carrying a picture of a girl who bullies people like this?"

Xiaoxia was very confused about why Xiaochun was holding a photo of a girl who was bullying others. After all, normally the girl should be pricked.

"What does it matter? It's okay as long as you're cute and have a bad temper, just like the blue-haired girl next to you."

Xiao Chun pointed at Yu Feng. After all, as long as he was cute and good-looking, what did it matter if he had a bad temper?

"???"

Yu Feng was a little surprised. Didn't he just speak? Why did he still think he was a woman?

"Yes, there are many women who not only have bad tempers, but are also worse than men."

Xiaozhi was in a state of charm and dared to say anything, and he hit Misty's weak spot accurately.

"Okay, I can tolerate you saying I can't compare to Xiao Feng, but you actually said I can't compare to this woman?"

Xiaoxia went berserk on the spot and wanted to find this top student to have a good talk.

Zooming out, we saw the three members of Team Rocket standing on the hillside, watching Ash and the others' every move through binoculars.

"I don't want to go to that kind of place."

Musashi's tone became different from usual and a little weak, as if he was thinking of something bad.

"I don't want to go either. My dark past makes me sad."

Kojiro also became a melancholy handsome guy, and recalled his past that he did not want to recall.

"The dark past is nothing, don't mention it, meow."

Meow Meow didn't want to listen to their long talks about the past. He was just a cat. What did these things have to do with him?

"Did you know the cherry blossoms were falling?"

Musashi suddenly approached Kojiro, her voice very gentle, not at all like her usual self.

"Don't say it, it will make me sad."

Kojiro became a little lost. He knew very well what Musashi was talking about. After all, he had experienced this kind of thing before.

"The cherry blossoms will bloom when you pass the entrance exam."

"If you fail the exam, the cherry blossoms will fall."

Musashi and Kojiro recalled the scene of that year one by one.

"We both took Pokémon research classes before!"

Finally, the two put their hands together, their expressions became pitiful and they talked about their past.

"Your cherry blossoms have scattered, meow."

Although it was a question, Miaomiao said it with certainty. After all, looking at the way they looked, he knew that they definitely failed. Even if they passed, they would not be his partners.

"You want to know the details so badly."

Musashi and Kojiro still looked at Meow Meow with pitiful expressions.

"I'm polite and don't ask about sad things, meow."

Meow Meow doesn't care about their affairs, but since they are companions, it would be better to give them some symbolic comfort.

Then he was picked up by two people and attacked from both sides. They rubbed his furry cheeks and said nice things while rubbing: "You are so gentle and cute."

'These two guys look so weird, I have to reconsider.'

A drop of cold sweat appeared on Miaomiao's face as he was trapped by two people. He regretted not asking. After all, it must be something fun to make these two people become like this.

.....

"Yuto Seidai, she usually practices here."

Xiaochun opened the door of a computer room and led Xiaozhi and his group in.

Because of its huge size, the Shiny Gardevoir was temporarily taken back into the Poké Ball, and the butler who had been following Xiao Feng and taking care of his life was left behind.

"You said you wanted to negotiate with her, but it's useless unless you defeat her."

"The tradition of the research class is to only look at the strength of the Pokémon Trainer."

Before entering, Xiaochun reminded Xiaozhi and his group again that only strength matters here, otherwise no one will listen to you.

"That's what I want. Look, I have two badges."

When Xiaozhi heard this, he was shocked. It was just strength, as if no one had any. He took off two badges from his clothes and held them in his hands.

"But Yuto Seidai is the top student in the junior class. Her strength is greater than those who have three badges. For example, even though my grades are not that good, I am also stronger than those who have more than two badges."

I don't know where Xiao Chun got his confidence from. He actually said that he surpassed those who had two badges. Fortunately, Yu Feng was too lazy to argue with them now, otherwise he still had the ability to raze this place to the ground.
