

Gardevoir 82

Chapter 82 Get up and train!

"Chirrut! (Wake up!)"

In the early morning, Kirlia came to Yu Feng's bed with a smile and called her brother to get up.

Yu Feng ignored her. He finally got a chance to sleep on a soft bed. Who would want to get up so early? Besides, his biological clock didn't tell him to get up.

"Chirrut~~ (Hehehehe!!)"

Shining Kirlia looked at her brother without any reaction, and the corners of her mouth almost twisted to the sky.

I make you wake up early every day to train, and now it's your turn and I should wake up!

"Whoo~~~"

In order to prevent her brother from getting up suddenly, Shining Kirlia opened her mouth and blew out a faint cold breeze, making the room extremely cool.

Yu Feng felt the air around him getting cooler and he subconsciously tightened the quilt around him. His brows, which had been furrowed due to the drop in temperature, gradually relaxed.

Shining Kirlia was humming the song that their mother used to sing to put them to sleep when they were young. Although the way of speaking was different, it made no difference to his brother because he could understand it.

Amid the grim smile of Shining Kirlia, her hands were gradually wrapped in an icy blue aura.

Yes, she lowered the indoor temperature in advance so that Yu Feng would not notice the cooling caused by her use of the Ice Fist.

"Chirrut!!!! (Take my punch, stinky brother!)"

Shining Kirlia punched Yu Feng in the stomach, causing his eyes to bulge out unconsciously due to the pain.

At this moment, he seemed to see a man in sunglasses and a suit sitting idly at his desk.

When the other party saw him, he was very surprised and picked up a paper document. He took off his sunglasses, wiped them and put them back on. After confirming that what he saw was correct, he took out a large inflatable hammer with the words "100t through hammer" written on it from his back.

It hit his head hard, and his consciousness seemed to return to his body and he felt the pain again.

After hitting with a punch, Shining Kirlia seemed to enter a berserker mode, and his punch seemed to leave an afterimage and hit Yu Feng directly in the stomach.

A minute later, Shining Kirlia finally vented enough, jumped off her brother's body that had turned into ice, and wiped her hands with satisfaction.

"Chirrut. (Don't pretend. I didn't use any force except for the first punch.)"

Shining Kirlia looked at her brother who was frozen in the ice with dead fish eyes. Others might not know that she did it herself, but didn't she?

He is frozen now just because he is too lazy to come out. This amount of damage is not as great as the one minute of morning exercise they do every day.

"Even if you know, don't say it out loud. It's so embarrassing."

Yu Feng's voice came out from the ice, even if he didn't move his mouth, the sound came through.

"Chiru. (What are you talking about! Come out quickly. You were the one who planned this morning exercise.)"

Shining Kirlia rolled her eyes, not seeing anything wrong with speaking without moving her mouth.

Flames suddenly appeared beside Yu Feng, who was wrapped in ice, and melted the ice on his body.

"Okay, that's good. Also, don't hit someone suddenly next time. I almost thought I saw Yveltal."

Seeing his sister holding her head with her hands and looking indifferent, Yu Feng couldn't help but complain.

You know, the first punch almost made him think he saw Yveltal, it was really too cruel.

Yu Feng touched his stomach with some palpitations, and almost vomited the food he had eaten the night before.

"Chirrut. (You're kidding. That punch wasn't even as powerful as a million-ton punch.)"

Shining Kirlia was very disdainful. This punch was not as powerful as the million-ton punch. Who could withstand a freezing punch?

"Forget it, forget it. I don't want to talk to you anymore. Let's go grab a sandbag to practice with."

Yu Feng glanced at his indifferent sister, stretched, and prepared to find a lucky child to accompany him for morning exercise.

Yu Feng walked outside yawning, looking at the three doors in front of him and fell into deep thought.

"Gon's ambition is not to be a trainer but a breeder."

Yu Feng looked at the first door and ruled out Xiao Gang first. It would not be a good idea to catch him and train him since he was not interested in this.

"Then...Xiaoxia? No, it's not nice for a man like me to run into someone else's house."

Looking at the second door, Yu Feng ruled out Xiaoxia as an option without a second thought. As a boy, even if he looked like a girl, he would not knock on a girl's door early in the morning.

Then, without thinking, he kicked open the third door and pulled the confused Xiaozhi out of the bed.

"Elbow, come with me for morning exercise!"

Without giving Xiaozhi a chance to react, he used his superpowers to roughly put clothes on Xiaozhi, then disappeared into the house with Xiaozhi.

At this time, Pikachu yawned and got up, looking at the disappeared Xiaozhi with a confused look on his face. How could Xiaozhi get up so early? But he soon found out how Xiaozhi disappeared.

"I said he seemed to be missing something."

Yu Feng's big face suddenly appeared in front of Pikachu, which scared him. Yu Feng did not give Pikachu too much time to react. He grabbed Pikachu's neck and disappeared in the room.

.....

"Ha ha, Xiao Feng, there's no need for that, right? It's not even daybreak yet."

Xiaozhi rubbed his sleepy eyes, looked at the still slightly dim sky and yawned.

"Qiu~~"

Pikachu also yawned and seriously agreed with Xiaozhi's words. He had never gotten up so early before.

After hearing what they said, Yu Feng just glanced at them and released his main combat elf.

"Hi!"

"Chirrut!"

"Mm!"

"Ai Wan!"

Four Pokémon appeared in place. As for why Shiny Gardevoir and Shiny Sylph were not released, the main reason was that one did not need training and the other did not need training either.

Ahem, actually one of them is extremely powerful and doesn't need any training, while the other one just provides food and doesn't need any training.

As for why I let him out to serve as a servant...

"Ai Guanshi, please make breakfast for me."

Yu Feng asked the butler to prepare breakfast, as they hadn't had breakfast yet so early.

"Ai Wan!"

Ai Guanshi happily agreed to Yu Feng's request, then disappeared in front of them to prepare today's breakfast.

"As for the others, Miblim, you should mainly practice your superpowers. You will also evolve soon."

"You too, Charmander, are very close to evolving into Charmeleon."

"You two will train with Xiaozhi in a while. Miblim, you use your psychic power to interfere with Xiaozhi and Pikachu. As for Charmander, you use sparks to attack them. Try to compress your sparks to turn them into jets of flame."

Yu Feng simply arranged the training schedule for Charmander and Miblime.

"As for the two of you, just avoid Charmander's attacks and Miblim's interference."