Chapter 83 Is this something we can do?

After listening to Yu Feng's words, Xiaozhi pointed at himself and Pikachu in a daze, and then pointed at Shiny Blim and Charmander in surprise.

His eyes were wide open, and confusion was evident on his face. He seemed to be confused as to how Yu Feng, with his 36-degree angle of voice, could say such cold words.

"Yes, you heard me right. You and Pikachu need to avoid Charmander's sparks or jets of flames while being distracted by Glitter Blim."

Yu Feng saw Xiaozhi's disbelief and said very calmly that this was not a strange thing.

"Pikachu aside, how can I withstand Charmander's flames?"

Xiaozhi pointed at Pikachu to show that he was fine, but how could he withstand Charmander's attack?

"Pika~~? Pika!!"

Pikachu was nodding in agreement with Xiaozhi, but then he heard himself stop talking and started punching and kicking Xiaozhi's legs with his fists.

Hearing Xiaozhi's words, Yu Feng looked at him strangely, pointed at Pikachu and said, "You know, during the time you and I were traveling, you were electrocuted by Pikachu four times a week on average."

"I'm underestimating this. In fact, you were shocked more times, and you were full of energy not long after each shock."

Yu Feng didn't say the rest of the words. He believed that Xiaozhi knew what he was going to say.

"Pikachu is Pikachu, and Charmander is Charmander. I can withstand electric shocks, but I may not be able to withstand jets of fire."

Xiaozhi tried to make Yu Feng feel pity and let him go by showing that fire and electricity were different, but he didn't expect that Yu Feng himself was not the kind of person who would easily feel pity for others. What's more, Yu Feng knew very well that he was burned many times after he captured Charmander.

"Now that you've said that..."

Yu Feng looked at Xiao Zhi and thought thoughtfully.

"Yeah, just leave me alone and just train Pikachu."

Stars appeared in Xiaozhi's eyes as if Yu Feng had already agreed to his request.

After hearing what Xiaozhi said, Pikachu kicked and hit Xiaozhi faster and faster, and there were traces of electricity on his cheeks. If he hadn't considered that Yu Feng would stop him, he would have attacked him with electricity.

Yu Feng looked at Pikachu's angry expression, then looked at Xiaozhi with a sly smile and said, "In this case, you don't have to hide from Charmander's jet of fire."

"Great!"

Xiaozhi jumped up excitedly, but Pikachu looked at Xiaozhi with more and more dangerous eyes. If Xiaozhi didn't train, Pikachu would turn against him.

"Don't be so happy too soon." Yu Feng stopped Xiaozhi from being happy, and the smile on his face became brighter: "Pikachu has to avoid Charmander's jet of fire and use electric shock to attack you while being disturbed by Miblame, and you have to avoid Pikachu's attack."

Since you said you can withstand electric shock, I will let Pikachu shock you. Not only can it train my two Pokémon, but it can also help Pikachu improve its flexibility and accuracy, and it can also slightly increase Pikachu's attack power.

When Xiaozhi heard Yu Feng's words, he seemed to be petrified. The world instantly turned gray and black. However, Pikachu was different. He looked at Xiaozhi with an eager expression, and strands of electric light burst out of the electric sac on his face.

I asked you, Xiaozhi, to harm me, and now I must teach you a lesson.

Pikachu began to get ready to teach Ash a lesson, as the words just now hurt him deeply.

"Don't worry, since this is training, there must be some rewards. This is your first training, so just hold out against them for half an hour. Pikachu can't be hit by Charmander more than five times, and Ash can't be hit by Pikachu more than ten times."

"And Charmander's mission is to hit Pikachu more than five times. Each additional hit will add one more day of gourmet time. The same goes for Miblim. The same goes for Xiaozhi and Pikachu. As long as they are hit less times, they will also add one more day of gourmet time."

Yu Feng proposed his own reward. Hearing what Yu Feng said about the reward, Charmander and Miblim subconsciously swallowed their saliva. It was gourmet time. They usually only had this once a week.

This time, as long as the hit amount is exceeded, one more day will be added directly. That's three meals a day!

Suddenly, Charmander and Shining Blim looked at Ash and Pikachu with strange eyes.

Although Xiaozhi and Pikachu didn't know what the food time was, they knew that this food time must be extraordinary, at least it must be delicious, seeing Charmander and Shiny Blimp suddenly become serious.

"Pikachu, let's discuss something. Please don't shock me too much."

Xiaozhi squatted in front of Pikachu and wanted to negotiate with him to let him go. He also wanted to know what the food time was, and it would be a waste if he didn't eat it for free.

"Pickup!"

Pikachu turned his head to the side when he heard what Xiaozhi said, pretending not to hear him.

"Ah! Pikachu, I really want to know what food time is."

Xiaozhi almost begged Pikachu in a requesting manner to let him see what food time was.

"Pickup!"

Pikachu tilted his head to the other side again, as if he didn't want to see Xiaozhi now.

Looking at Pikachu like this, Xiaozhi knew that his delicious food time was definitely over, and he couldn't help but lower his head in disappointment.

"Okay, okay, now that you've discussed it, get ready to start."

Yu Feng saw that Xiaozhi and Pikachu seemed to have finished their discussion, so he was ready to start training.

Let Charmander and Mineblim get ready, but considering that it was the first time for Satoshi and Pikachu to train, Yu Feng asked them to take it easy for the first twenty minutes to allow them to adapt.

As Yu Feng announced the start of training, red light appeared from Charmander's mouth and sprayed towards Pikachu.

Pikachu jumped lightly to avoid Charmander's attack, but his body suddenly stopped in the jumping action as if it was controlled. When he felt he could move again, Charmander's sparks were already close to Pikachu.

Pikachu was so scared that he dodged Charmander's sparks with a dolly. Pikachu got up and looked at the burnt ground behind him and breathed a sigh of relief. It must have hurt to be hit by this cup, but luckily I have better skills.

Pikachu dodged it, and Charmander's eyes turned into small dots. Even though he let it go, didn't he have any face by dodging it like that?

And he was controlled by Miblim for a bit. Could an electric rat do that kind of backbend?

"Well done Pikachu!"

Xiaozhi also cheered for Pikachu, but he seemed to have forgotten that he had just offended Pikachu, and that he and Pikachu also had a antagonistic relationship.

"Pickup!!"

Pikachu saw Xiaozhi cheering nearby and attacked him with an electric shock.

"Hey, Pikachu, are you serious?"

Xiaozhi was so frightened by Pikachu's electric shock that he sat on the ground, looking at Pikachu in disbelief, as if he couldn't believe that Pikachu really shocked him.

The electric shock that hit Xiaozhi in front shows Pikachu's attitude. He will control the power but for the sake of delicious food time, he will not let Xiaozhi go.
