Chapter 85 Who would find the way in this way!

"These four people are still the same... sorry, now there are five of us. We are still traveling. They have come to a sparsely populated forest. Where on earth is this place?"

Yu Feng continued his confusing narration, and the others had no idea why he was doing this or what the point was.

"Come to think of it, he did the same thing last time. Does Xiaoxia often talk like this?"

Yuto Seidai followed Xiaoxia and was a little curious about what strange things Yu Feng was doing. After all, it didn't seem like normal behavior no matter how you looked at it.

"Ignore him. We're used to him. He's always mumbling weird stuff."

Xiaoxia patted Yuto Seidai's shoulder and told her not to worry. They didn't know what Yu Feng was doing, but all she needed to do was smile at this time, right?

Even though the grass here was almost up to their waists, it still hurt their thighs.

"Well, I don't care what he says...but this is no longer a road for people to walk on."

Xiaozhi looked back at the people behind him. After all, the grass was so high that it was impossible for a human to walk on it.

"It's easy to tell with your knees that we've lost our way."

Xiaoxia pointed to her invisible knees. It seemed that no one had walked here for a long time. The grass on both sides was up to Xiaozhi's waist.

It is impossible for grass to grow on a road that is frequently walked on.

"That's what I told you. You should have gone right at the fork in the road!"

Xiaoxia now began to complain to Xiaozhi, the leader, for bringing them to such a remote place.

"What? At the beginning, you said you wanted to go left, too, Xiaoxia!"

Xiaozhi is very dissatisfied with Xiaoxia's hindsight behavior. She also agreed to go to the left at the beginning, but now she starts blaming herself after getting lost. Is this reasonable?

"That's because you keep saying choose left, choose left!"

Xiaoxia was also annoyed. Who was it that kept telling her to choose the left side? If she didn't listen to him, she felt like her ears would fall off.

"You want to fight, don't you!"

Xiaozhi also got angry. Even if he said that, doesn't Misty have any responsibility for not stopping him from walking on the left?

"Choosing to move in the direction where the stick falls is something that only a brainless person like you would think of!"

Xiaoxia got even angrier when she heard this, as if she was the one who chose the path. Why didn't you throw your shoes and see which direction he pointed and then go?

Looking at Satoshi and Misty arguing in the front, Yuto Seidai found it difficult to maintain her expression. She hadn't seen this team act normal that whole day, with Satoshi and Misty arguing non-stop and Yu Feng talking to himself.

Oh, there is also a normal guy named Xiaogang. He is the only one who looks normal in this team.

It's a pity that what Yuto Seiji doesn't know is that the most normal person in this team might be Xiaoxia.

Why not say it was Yu Feng? Is he a human?

"Do the two of them often quarrel like this?"

After thinking for a moment, Yuto Seidai decided to use this reason to get closer to Yu Feng. After all, weak girls would get more sympathy from men.

Yu Feng glanced at Yuto Seidai, whose heartbeat was obviously amiss, and said calmly, "This happens all the time. You have to get used to the fact that they quarrel almost every day."

Although Yu Feng was not quite sure what Yuto Seidai wanted to do, it was definitely not a good thing. In the original work, she and Xiaozhi did not run away, so there was no doubt that her target was herself.

Could it be that I exposed the identity of the Pokémon? That shouldn't be the case. There are many people who have super powers. It's just a special ability. Can it also expose the identity?

Or was it because he was discovered because he could fight Pokémon in close combat? But that shouldn't be the case. There are many fierce people like Xiba and Caidou who can fight Pokémon in close combat.

However, this does not prevent Yu Feng from not wanting to get close to Yuto Seidai. After explaining the reason for the quarrel between Satoshi and Misty, Yu Feng stood next to Brock, and his meaning was obviously to ask Yuto Seidai not to bother him for the time being.

Looking at Yu Feng's actions, Youtou Seiji stomped her feet angrily, and then wondered if she had become uglier.

Has my charm disappeared? But the expressions of Xiaogang and Xiaozhi yesterday showed that my charm has not weakened. Could Yu Feng be gay?

Looking at Yu Feng's actions, Yuto Seidai was full of doubts about herself. Unfortunately, she would never have thought that she did not occupy a place in the other party's XP. Among the few Pokémon that Yu Feng liked, humans did not include her.

Okay, let's not talk about Yuto Seidai who is doubting his life, and the scene turns back to Satoshi and Misty.

"Really? If you keep going this way, you'll never reach Vermilion City! Can't you let Butterfree, Pidgeot, and Beedrill explore the way before choosing a route?"

Misty crossed her arms and looked at Ash. It was ridiculous that he had to use such an outrageous method as knocking down a Pokémon that could fly.

Sometimes she really didn't know what was going on in Xiaozhi's head.

Hearing what Xiaoxia said, Xiaozhi's eyes instantly turned into small eyes. He looked at Xiaoxia with an expression that clothes could be done like this and said with some embarrassment: "It can... still be done like this?"

After hearing what Misty said, Xiaozhi realized that he seemed to have been really stupid. He had three flying Pokémon but he insisted on finding the way by himself.

"You just realized that?"

Looking at Xiaozhi's expression, you can tell that he must have forgotten about this matter. I really don't know how he dared to come out alone. Was it based on courage?

"Okay, okay, everyone stop arguing."

"Well, it's too late to say whose fault it is now. We can't just run back now that we've come this far, right?"

Xiaogang and Yu Feng also separated the two people who were quarreling. What's the point of quarreling at this time? Since they had come this far, it would be better to continue walking.

After hearing what Xiaogang and Yu Feng said, Xiaozhi and Xiaoxia looked at each other tacitly and then turned their heads away quickly.

With an attitude of "I don't care about you", the two of them walked forward awkwardly.

Yu Feng couldn't help but want to complain when he saw this scene. Before he traveled through time, he felt that the way these two people got along was very weird. Now, watching them quarreling every day is really annoying.

How can they quarrel every day? Xiaozhi and the others would be annoyed to death if they didn't annoy him.

Then their team seemed to be divided into three parts. At the front were Misty and Satoshi who were in a weird atmosphere, in the middle were the helpless Brock and Yu Feng, and at the end was Yuto Seidai who was still doubting his life.

Time passed quietly in this strange atmosphere until they saw a place that was very suitable for resting.

"Rest!"

Xiaozhi picked a good spot first and sat down first. When Xiaoxia saw that Xiaozhi had grabbed a good spot first, she didn't want to be outdone and also found a good spot and sat down.
