

Gardevoir 88

Chapter 88 How could this be? My mouth is like a steel door.

"Chirrut! (Let go!)"

Shining Kirlia saw his brother hugging Ralts and sucking them like a pervert, and he instantly became angry.

He had never been sucked like this even when he was still Ralts. He fanned away the jealousy in his mind and knocked his brother to the ground with one punch.

He put the frightened Lalulas down, comforted her, and sent her away, then helplessly looked at his brother lying on the ground pretending to be dead.

"Chirrut? (I say, have you had enough? Why didn't I see you have this problem before in the forest?)"

Why haven't I seen him bothering Ralts before, but only bothering the Gardevoirs at home?

Why does he like to cling to Ralts after evolving? This is what Shiny Kirliao can't understand the most.

"You don't understand this. Ralts is what I want, and Gardevoir is what I want too."

Yu Feng suddenly raised his head and retorted, then realized something was wrong and lay down again and continued to pretend to be dead.

"Chirrut. (Do you really think pretending to be dead will help us? I remember that you can't have both.)"

Shining Kirlia held her forehead. Would playing dead really work for these superpowered elves? Just check their heart rate and expose them directly.

But she was quite curious. Logically, her brother should not know the sentence after that, so why did he still say it? Her mother taught her when she was a child, and she almost vomited.

"Superficial, so superficial! Only children make choices. A mature adult like me, of course, wants them all!"

After hearing what his sister said, Yu Feng stopped pretending and stood up and looked at his sister proudly. Who makes the choice? He wants them all.

"Chirrut. (What about Chirrut?)"

Shining Kirlia gave a death stare, and if the brother said anything about Kirlia, I'm sorry, she would make a big fuss.

"I've already told you that only children make choices, I want them all as adults."

Yu Feng couldn't help but roll his eyes at his sister. It seems like he didn't hear anything she just said.

"Sana? (What are you two talking about?)"

A green head interrupted their conversation with a smile, and there was a strong sense of sarcasm in the words.

"Ha! Auntie, you scared me to death!"

Looking at the aunt who suddenly appeared between them, Yu Feng and Shining Kirlia patted their chests at the same time, as if they were startled by the sudden appearance of the aunt.

Looking at the actions of the two people in front of her, Gardevoir's mouth curled up slightly. She liked to see the frightened expressions of the brother and sister.

I don't know when these two siblings started to resist each other as if they were arrogant, even though they were so affectionate when they were young that we were all envious of them.

"Sana! (I heard you just now. What do you want? What do you want?)"

But compared to this, she was more curious about what the brother and sister were whispering about. Gardevoir blinked and looked at them.

Yu Feng and Shining Kirlia looked at each other, nodded silently, and decided to swallow what they had just said.

Yu Feng was worried that his aunt would know his thoughts, and then the clan leader and others would come to talk to him. After all, his mother said that she had to beg for a long time before the clan leader agreed to let him stay.

If my little trick was discovered, I would be kicked out and that would be the end of me.

But Shining Kirlia is different. What she heard since she was a child is different from what Yu Feng heard.

In fact, she is not the only one in the tribe who covets the older brother... ahem, not just one or two, but almost the entire tribe is waiting for him to grow up and is eyeing him covetously.

Let's put it this way, even if the old patriarch continues to pick up stray Lalulas, he will not be able to expand the tribe on a large scale.

At this time, their father appeared and successfully kidnapped their mother.

When they came back to give birth to the siblings, the old patriarch almost bit his teeth in secret.
(Special information from my aunt)

But the birth of the elder brother immediately made the chieftain active, as the number of the Lalulas she had picked up was less than a hundred.

This is less than a hundred people including Kirlia and Gardevoir.

How to revitalize their Gardevoir clan? The old clan leader was deeply distressed at the time and wanted to dismiss himself.

After all, when she took over the position of the clan leader, she promised the previous clan leader that she would revitalize their clan. There was no reason for it, it was simply because there were only a dozen Ralts and Kirlia in the clan at that time, and there was only one Gardevoir, the clan leader.

Now that the tribe has developed to this extent, it is inevitable that the tribe leader has been cheating and deceiving outside (crossed out), finding stray tribesmen outside and bringing them back, and also meeting Lord Xerneas, which allowed the tribe to gain a foothold in the forest.

The older brother is a human, but he is the child of Gardevoir, which means he is also Gardevoir.

She doesn't need to say the rest. This is partly why my brother eats well.

So you must not let your aunt know what they were talking about just now, otherwise it will be very funny.

"I think it's better for you not to know."

"Chirrut! (That's right!)"

Although the two people's information was not equal at the moment, their ideas were surprisingly consistent, and neither of them wanted to let the aunt know what they were talking about.

"Sana~ (Hmm~ This is suspicious. I always feel like you two are talking about something exciting.)"

My aunt's lips were almost pouted to the sky. Her sixth sense told her that Xiao Fengfeng and Xiao Yaya were talking about something very important just now.

Her eyes rolled around, as if she was thinking about how to know what they were talking about just now. Then, as if she had thought of something, she approached the two of them with a smile.

Seeing their aunt approaching them, Yu Feng and Shining Kirlia became nervous. After all, anyone would be scared if they saw a head almost as big as their own approaching.

"Sanae. (Don't get too close.)"

Shiny Gardevoir flashed and stood in front of my aunt. Facing the Shiny Gardevoir that was the same size or even bigger than herself, my aunt looked at it and made a very disgusted sound. What does it mean to be bigger than herself in every sense?

Xiao Fengfeng is obviously a boy, so why is the separated body bigger than hers?

"Shanai! (Just tell me, you two. Don't you believe me? My mouth is as solid as a steel door.)"

But she still wanted to know what they were talking about, so she looked at them in a flattering manner.

"Yes, the automatic door."

"Chirrut. (Open it if someone comes.)"

Just kidding, Yu Feng and Shining Kirlia are not completely ignorant. Their aunt is notoriously talkative.

The old chieftain complained privately about the chaos in the Beedrill tribe yesterday, and it didn't take long for these words to reach the ears of the Beedrill chieftain.

There were only three people present who heard this. My mother doesn't spread gossip, so how could the clan leader spread what he said himself? So all the suspicion fell on my aunt.

The problem is that she herself is unaware of it and always thinks she is very tight-lipped.
