Chapter 9: Worthy of being Xiaozhi

"This is! Your elf!?"

Xiaozhi looked at the Shining Kirlia who was following Yu Feng with excitement, and his envy was beyond words.

"Yes, she is my spirit."

Yu Feng comforted the somewhat unhappy Kirlia. If Xiaozhi had not had any bad intentions and had been warned in advance not to take action, with his sister's temper, she would have taken action long ago.

Professor Oak, who was hit by a 100,000-volt bullet, has something to say.

"You even have a Poké Ball!"

Xiaozhi saw the shrunk Poké Ball that Yu Feng had placed on his waist again. He was tired of talking about jealousy.

"Can you let me see your elf? Please, please."

Xiaozhi clasped his hands together and made the gesture of getting up from his seat, and asked Yu Feng to let him see his Pokémon.

"Ash!"

Hanako wanted to stop Xiaozhi from being so rude, but Pokémons are not meant to be seen by others.

Yu Feng waved his hand to indicate that it was okay. In fact, there was no such thing as Xiaozhi. He was also going to ask Hanako if he could release the Pokémon.

After all, they are all his good friends, and he would not let them stay in the Poké Ball for a long time if he could release them.

"It's okay. I just wanted to ask Hanako... if mom can release the elves."

Yu Feng was about to call her auntie, but was forced to change his words by Hanako's death gaze.

"It's okay, the little ones can all be released. Mommy still has enough food here."

Hanako assured Yu Feng not to worry, she could still afford the food for a few Pokémon, and if that really didn't work, she could always ask Professor Oak for help.

After hearing what Hanako said, Yu Feng was relieved. If he couldn't let them out, he would have to find a place to take them to eat.

Yu Feng took three Poké Balls from his belt, enlarged them, and threw them gently into the air: "Come out, everyone!"

Three red and white Poké Balls flew into the air and exploded with white light, and three little guys emerged from the Poké Balls.

"Mm!"

"mum!"

"Ai Wan!"

As soon as they appeared, several little guys surrounded Yu Feng. Except for Ai Guanshi who stood aside a little reservedly and arrogantly, Shiny Little Fairy and Shiny Fan Blim jumped onto his legs and asked for a pat on the head.

Yu Feng also responded to their thoughts one by one, and even the arrogant Ai Guanshi standing beside them was patted on the head by Yu Feng.

Watching the interaction between Yu Feng and the elves, Hanako smiled like an auntie, and then looked at Xiaozhi who was looking at her with envy.

I don't know what's wrong with Xiaozhi. He thinks that Pokémon don't like him. Normally, Pokémon won't attack him for no reason.

Although it's popular, we didn't catch any Pokémon when we set out. You know, this is Pallet Town, and the Pokémon nearby are all very friendly.

"Chirrut! (You guys are mine!)"

When Shining Kirlia saw that these little bitches were trying to take advantage of her brother when she wasn't paying attention, she didn't bother to establish her own persona and sat in Yu Feng's arms to declare her sovereignty.

"Xiao Feng, what kind of elves are they? I don't think I've seen any around here."

Xiaozhi looked at Ai Guanshi and the others, and his head was about to smoke, but he still couldn't think of the names of these Pokémon.

Looking at the mist floating above Xiaozhi's head, Yu Feng couldn't help but laugh out loud. Only Xiaozhi now would think about it for so long.

"This pink one is Miblim, a Psychic-type Pokémon. By the way, she's a rare Shiny Pokémon."

"Mm!"

Yu Feng introduced Mibliam on his left shoulder to Xiaozhi. Mibliam greeted Xiaozhi happily and she didn't dislike Xiaozhi at all.

"Ohh! Is her name Miblim?"

"Psychic-type? What is a Psychic-type? What is a Shiny Pokémon?"

Xiaozhi was very happy to see another unknown Pokémon, but he began to feel confused again. He looked at Yu Feng with curious eyes, hoping that he could explain it to him.

"Hey!"

Yu Feng and Huazi both fell to the ground. Their basic skills cannot be so poor. They must memorize the most basic attributes.

"As expected of you, Xiaozhi."

Yu Feng, who was helped up by the butler, was really helpless. As expected of a little idiot, at this stage he probably didn't even remember the attribute table.

Hanako also feels very helpless. Yu Feng, a child raised by elves, has more knowledge than Xiaozhi. Xiaozhi also often goes to Professor Oak's research institute to play, so it seems that Professor Oak will give him special treatment.

But he still didn't remember the most basic attribute restraint table.

"There are currently eighteen known attributes, and Psychic is one of them."

"As for the shiny Pokémon, it is an outlier in the group. It has a different color than the normal color of the group."

"For example, my Miblim is a shiny Pokémon. Normally her hair is light blue."

"Of course, just because a Pokémon's color is different from its group doesn't necessarily mean it's a shiny Pokémon; it could also be a different-colored Pokémon."

The difference between the two is that shiny Pokémon have a glittering effect around them, while colored Pokémon don't have this."

Yu Feng introduced to Xiaozhi what the Psychic attribute was, and what Shiny Pokémon and Alternative Pokémon were, and he even felt a little dry in the mouth as he talked.

After taking the juice handed to him by the waiter and moistening his throat, Yu Feng felt a little better.

But looking back at Xiaozhi...

Well, his eyes were already filled with mosquito coils and his brain began to overload.

This knowledge was too much for him.

"That means that Kirlia, Miblim, and this little guy are all Shiny Pokémon."

Hanako reacted first. She looked at Kirlia and Miblime, who were emitting sparkling light beside Yu Feng, and the little fairy milk shaking on the table, all of which were rare shiny Pokémon.

I have to say, his elf mother still dotes on him very much.

As for the faint spots of light around Yu Feng, she subconsciously ignored them. After all, it was normal for there to be a little aftermath when there were two shining Pokémon on his body.

"Yes, Hanako...Mom."

Yu Feng changed his words in time. To be honest, it is really difficult to change the habit in a short period of time.

"Xiao Feng, you are so awesome!"

"Let's have a 1v1 match after I get Charmander."

Xiaozhi was still very disappointed at first. After all, others already had four initial Pokémon, but he didn't even have any.

But after all, Xiaozhi quickly cheered up and issued a challenge to Yu Feng.

"Okay, let's have a 1v1 battle after we all get our starter Pokémon."

Yu Feng said with narrowed eyes, he knew very well that Xiaozhi and he might not necessarily fight, if he was late like in the anime, not to mention Charmander, he wouldn't get a share of the other two. But he was very curious if Xiaozhi would not get Pikachu if he arrived early?

Ash without Pikachu is not a complete Ash.

"Okay, okay, let's eat first, and then you can go and have a good rest."

"Xiaozhi, remember to take Xiaofeng out for a walk tomorrow."

Hanako looked up at the time and found that it was already late, so she clapped her hands and invited everyone to come for dinner.

She also asked Xiaozhi to take Yu Feng to visit Pallet Town tomorrow, after all, there is an age gap between her and Xiao Feng.

Xiaozhi and Xiaofeng are about the same age, and are both preparing to go on a journey, so maybe they have something in common.
