Chapter 92 | Just Got Lost

"On this day, Xiaozhi and his group joined Bulbasaur as a partner, and they triumphantly headed towards Vermilion City."

Yu Feng started his habit of narration again, and the Frost Fairy with a heart-shaped sugar decoration on her face also cheered for Yu Feng's words.

Yes, that's right, Little Fairy Milk has evolved. After that trip back, Little Fairy Milk has evolved into Frost Milk Fairy. Because of its shiny color, the color of the evolved Frost Milk Fairy is quite complex.

Yes, in order to produce more cream flavors, Frosty Milk Fairy chose a three-color combined flavor.

However, the color of the evolved Shiny Frosty is hard to describe, even the three-color combination has most of its body black.

But the tuft of hair on the top of its head stubbornly turned light pink, which still looked cute.

"Is that cream on this Pokémon?"

After Xiaogang obtained Yu Feng's consent, he squatted in front of the Frost Milk Fairy and asked for some cream.

After Xiaogang got the cream, he put it on his hand and looked at it carefully, and said uncertainly.

"As expected of you, you can even guess this."

Yu Feng was amazed at Xiao Gang's observation skills, as he clearly didn't react much when Xiao Xian was feeding him before.

"She is the Cream Fairy who can produce whipped cream from her hands. The happier she is, the more delicious the cream she produces."

Considering that Xiaogang has been in Kanto all the time, even if he saw Pokémon outside, there would not be Frostmilax. Yu Feng briefly introduced the characteristics of Frostmilax.

"Then it looks like she will be very popular with the pastry chef. Hmm, she tastes very good. It looks like you took good care of her, Xiao Feng."

After learning from Yu Feng that this was really cream, Xiao Gang put the cream into her mouth without hesitation and tasted it carefully. It tasted very good and the milky flavor was very rich. It seemed that Yu Feng took good care of her.

"But, this tastes a bit too much, doesn't it?"

Xiaogang smacked his lips. Although it was delicious, there were too many other flavors mixed with the cream. He could taste three flavors: vanilla, matcha, and milk.

"It seems like you have a good sense of taste, Xiaogang. I only have three colors. Frost Milk Fairy has many flavors, about nine flavors, but they are different depending on the different shapes of the sugar decorations on the head."

Yu Feng was a little surprised to see Xiao Gang could distinguish so many flavors of Frost Milk Fairy just by using his mouth. After all, he couldn't distinguish so many flavors when he first came into contact with them.

Unfortunately, they are not talking about the same thing. One is talking about the smell of Frost Milk Fairy itself, and the other is talking about all the smells of Frost Milk Fairy.

"Is that so? Does that mean she has many forms?"

Yuto Sundae also came up and touched Frosty Milk Fairy's head. After all, no girl would refuse sweet cream!

"Compared to that...Is now the time to say something like that?"

Xiaoxia knelt on the ground and looked at the surrounding environment helplessly. It was really annoying to see nothing but trees! No matter how you look at it, it seems like they are lost, but why are Yu Feng and Xiao Gang discussing what kind of cream tastes good here?

"It's rare to get lost anyway, so if I come across a rare Pokémon, I can capture it at the same time."

Xiaozhi put down the telescope and looked helplessly at the angry Xiaoxia. Since he was already lost, it would be uncomfortable if he didn't find something to do.

"What are you talking about over there! Hey."

After hearing what Xiaozhi said, Xiaoxia sighed deeply. She really didn't understand why Xiaozhi didn't care at all.

"You know what? We have been heading towards Vermilion Leaf City for more than ten days now, and I can't walk anymore!!"

Xiaoxia was a little crazy. She had been walking in the forest for so long without being able to take a shower or rest for a long time. She felt like she couldn't bear it any longer.

"There are bugs on the soles of your feet."

Xiaogang appeared next to Xiaoxia at some point and pointed at the ground under her feet, indicating that there seemed to be a bug under her feet.

"Bugs! Where are they? I hate bugs the most!"

Amid everyone's shocked gazes, Misty instantly jumped onto Xiaozhi's body and frantically looked around trying to find the bug that Xiaogang mentioned.

Of course, what shocked everyone even more was that Xiaozhi was able to support the weight of Xiaoxia when she jumped up.

I don't know whether to say that Misty is lighter, or that Satoshi has better strength and balance.

"What? It's grass."

"Hahaha."

Xiaogang picked up a piece of dogtail grass from the ground as if he had suddenly realized something and said with a smile, he thought it was a bug, but it turned out to be just a piece of grass.

Xiaogang laughed to ease his embarrassment. After all, it was very embarrassing to recognize the wrong thing.

Although Xiaogang thought it was very funny, Xiaoxia, who was squatting on Xiaozhi, did not think so. Her face became darker and darker, and her expression became more and more unfriendly when she looked at Xiaogang.

"Hate it! Tell me where this place is and who am I?"

Xiaoxia used a flying kick to knock Xiaogang down, then she vented her emotions like a collapse and threw the map high into the sky.

"Your name is Xiaoxia. This is in the bushes somewhere. The nearest road from here is Route 24."

After receiving the map, Xiaozhi looked at it carefully and seriously answered the questions that Xiaoxia had just vented, but he still held the map and pointed to their current location.

The closest road they are now is Highway 24.

"So, after we cross this hill?"

After hearing what Xiaozhi said, Xiaoxia looked at him excitedly, as if she wanted to confirm whether what he said was true.

"You can see the road to Vermilion City now."

Xiaozhi confirmed Xiaoxia's statement that they were now not far from Vermilion City.

"Let's go, let's move forward quickly."

After hearing what Xiaozhi said, Xiaoxia, who didn't want to stay in such a place for even a second, decisively decided to set off quickly. The earlier she set off, the earlier she could reach Vermilion City.

Xiaoxia walked forward excitedly and saw a huge shadow appear under her feet.

When Xiaoxia looked up, she was shocked by the huge monster in front of her. She couldn't help but remind Xiaozhi and the others behind her to be careful.

"What? It finally appeared! A giant Pokémon that looks just like the one in Feng's hand! Pikachu!"

After taking a look from afar, Xiaozhi also became excited. This Pokémon is no smaller than the one in Xiaofeng's hand. Could it be that he also wants a Pokémon of huge size?

Xiaogang, with Xiaoxia's dark shoe mark on his face, looked at the huge black shadow in front of him with some weirdness.

If he remembered correctly, the largest Pokémon in the Kanto region was Onix, right? But Onix shouldn't appear in a place like this?

Yu Feng knew what it was at a glance, but since he already had an identical Pokémon, he had no intention of capturing it.

Yuto Seidai was very excited. If this was similar to Yu Feng's giant Pokémon, then by capturing this Pokémon, would she be helping her cousin and the others?

Pikachu, who was called by Xiaozhi, was a little scared when he saw the huge black shadow, so he hid behind the luggage that was still there, and weakly poked his head out.
