

Gardevoir 93

Chapter 93: Stubborn Little Charmander

Everyone rushed to Xiaoxia and took a closer look.

A determined look!

A tail burning with intense flames!

as well as....

"It's Charmander."

When Xiao Gang got closer, he realized that the 'huge' creature was actually a Charmander lying on a rock.

“ ㄥ | ˘ O' | ㄣ Ouch~~~”

Seeing Xiaozhi and others coming, Charmander also howled cutely.

Xiaozhi also took out the illustrated book without hesitation and recorded the information of Charmander. You asked why he didn't record Yu Feng's Charmander?

While Yu Feng and the others were training, Xiaozhi was still partying with his Pokémon in his sleep.

"You know, Charmander is a Pokémon that I regretted for a long time because I didn't get from Professor Oak. It seems that I got lost in the right place this time."

Xiaozhi looked at the Charmander in front of him and felt that it was a good decision to get lost this time, as he actually met Charmander.

But Yu Feng felt that these words sounded familiar. He felt that Xiaozhi seemed to have said something similar at some point.

(Bulbasaur: Are you polite?)

"Don't you think he's weak?"

Yu Feng thought about it briefly and remembered the situation this time. This was a very bad person.

He didn't need his super powers to know that Charmander was very weak. He was already panting.

"Quickly subdue him and take him for treatment."

Xiaogang suggested that Xiaozhi capture him quickly. After all, the injuries of a captured Pokémon will be suppressed in the Poké Ball, so it will be convenient to send it for treatment.

As for why it wasn't Yu Feng, Yuto Seidai, or Xiaoxia who captured him?

First of all, Yu Feng already had a Charmander, so he voluntarily withdrew from the dispute.

Then, Misty mainly captures water-type Pokémon, so Charmander, which is a fire-type Pokémon, is not within her range.

Although Xiaogang is not picky about the attributes of Pokémon, he is not going to snatch it away if Xiaozhi likes it.

As for Yuto Seidai, she didn't have that idea at all. Her current goal was to keep an eye on Yu Feng and wait for her cousins to come over. Did she want any Pokémon?

Upon hearing this, Xiaozhi also threw out the Poké Ball and tried to capture Charmander.

However, Charmander turned around and pulled the Poké Ball back with its tail, then lay down safely on the stone, panting and looking at Satoshi and the others.

"He still looks very strong? I think we should let Pikachu fight him first, and then capture him when he's weaker."

Looking at the Poké Ball that bounced back into his hand, Xiaozhi looked at Xiaogang with an innocent face.

This little fire dragon doesn't look like it has no strength at all.

"How about using my water-type Pokémon to deal with this Charmander?"

Misty thought for a moment and asked Ash if he wanted her Water-type Pokémon to help. After all, if a Water-type Pokémon was used, Charmander would quickly lose its combat ability.

"I'm talking to you two."

Yu Feng held both of their heads down and his tone became very heavy.

"Can't you see that the flame on its tail is almost extinguished?"

Yu Feng lifted up the heads of both of them and asked them to look carefully at the little fire dragon with very weak flame on its tail.

Only then did Misty and Satoshi see that the flame on Charmander's tail was almost extinguished.

This means that Charmander doesn't have much energy to fight, and even his physical condition is not very good.

"Then Xiaozhi, try again."

Looking at the weak Charmander, Xiaogang thought that Charmander might have just been resisting because he didn't want to be tamed, so he asked Xiaozhi to tame him again.

"I know, go ahead Poké Ball!"

Xiaozhi also agreed with Xiaogang's words, of course, it was because he really wanted to capture Charmander.

I don't know if it was because it was exhausted or something, but Charmander didn't resist this time, but was directly put into the Poké Ball.

Just when Xiaozhi was excited to capture Charmander, the Poké Ball suddenly exploded, and Charmander returned to the stone where he had been lying.

The Poké Ball also returned along the same path and hit Xiaozhi on the head.

"He's quite a character."

Yu Feng made a comment about Charmander. Of course, this comment was not wrong. This Charmander has a very bad personality.

It was only cute when it was Charmander, but it can't compare to my own Charmander at all. My own Charmander will definitely be obedient even if it evolves.

(Yu Feng's Charmander: How dare I disobey!)

"This isn't the time to show admiration!"

This made him very dissatisfied with Yu Feng's praise of Charmander's personality. Is now the time to praise this?

"I think that Charmander has a bad personality."

Xiaoxia holds a different opinion from Yu Feng. Even in this situation, this little fire dragon is still so stubborn, which clearly shows that he does not take his own body seriously.

Pikachu looked at Charmander steadily, then slowly walked over and started communicating with Charmander.

When Xiaozhi and the others saw Pikachu communicating, they also patiently tried to see if he could get some information out of Charmander.

Pikachu talked to Charmander for a while, smacked his little hands to show that he understood, and then quickly ran back to Ash. Of course, his eyes were mainly focused on Yu Feng.

After all, he can understand what they say, so it is not that difficult to explain. If Satoshi and the others understand what he means, it would be better to let Bulbasaur cook.

"What's wrong Pikachu?"

Xiaozhi was still very curious about what happened, and immediately asked Pikachu what happened when he came back.

"Pikachu, Pikachu!"

Pikachu made a tie-tying gesture, then looked at Ash and the others.

"tie?"

Xiaoxia could see what Pikachu wanted to express, but she didn't understand what the tie meant.

"boy!"

Xiaozhi could tell what Pikachu wanted to say at a glance, but there were plenty of boys, there were three in their team.

After hearing what Xiaozhi said, Pikachu excitedly made a "yeah" gesture, indicating that he was right.

"I think Pikachu must have said something to Charmander."

Xiaogang felt that Pikachu must have gone to ask Charmander what happened.

Then the three of them squatted down and watched Pikachu explaining with his hands and feet gesticulating.

Several people nodded from time to time to confirm Pikachu's question.

Yu Feng's eyes twitched as he watched. He could clearly answer the question by asking himself, but he had to go watch the Pikachu show.

Is this some kind of novel play? As for Yuto Seidai, he didn't want to get involved in their affairs. This little Charmander was not important, and anyone could take it for treatment.

"Ok, I think I know!"

Xiaozhi suddenly stood up and scared Xiaoxia beside him. Xiaozhi didn't care about Xiaoxia's reaction and slammed his palm to show that he already knew what Pikachu was talking about.